THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY

An Ambition and a Record

THE needs of the South are identical with the needs of the Southern Railway's growth and success of one means the upbuilding of the other.

The Southern Railway asks no favors—no special privilege not accorded to others.

The ambition of the Southern Railway Company is to see that every dollar of interest that is born of co-operation between the public and the railroads to see perfected that fair and frank policy in the management of railroads which involves the confidence of governmental agencies to realize that liberality of treatment which will enable it to obtain the additional capital needed for the acquisition of better and improved facilities incident to the demand for increased and better services and facilities.

To take its niche in the body politic of the South alongside of other great industries, with no more, but with equal liberties, equal rights and equal opportunities.

Bolick-Weathersbee

Williston, S. C., June 28.—One of the most beautiful weddings ever witnessed here was solemnized on Thursday evening, June 21 in the Baptist church, when Miss Madeline Lucile Weathersbee, the popular and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen Weathersbee, became the bride of Marshall Loy Bolick of Conover, N. C. The church had been most artistically decorated with ferns and palms against a background of white. Pedestals holding potted plants and linked together with festoons of lilies were arranged in a colonnade on each side of the center aisle through which the bridal party entered. Back of the altar was placed a lattice work of white entwined with Southern smilax. In front of this was banked ferns and palms forming a beautiful setting for the event.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Helen Battle of Augusta, Ga., a close friend of the bride, sang "I Love You" and "Thine Eyes," accompanied on the organ by Miss Mattie Weathersbee. After this Mr. Eugene Easterling of Barnwell, S. C., rendered "A Perfect Day" on the violin. Promptly at 8:30 to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Weathersbee and accompanied by Mr. Easterling on the violin, the bridal party entered. First came the pages, Masters Selwyn Thomson and Brooker Hair who opened the lattice gates in front of the ushers, Mr. S. E. Holland of Danville, Va., with Mr. Q. A. Kennedy of Williston, and Mr. Charlie Brown of Barnwell, S. C., and Mr. Jas. E. Kennedy of Williston. Next came the groomsmen, each entering alone, in the following order: Mr. Fred Lowrance of Hickory, N. C., Mr. J. L. Murphy, Jr. of Hickory, N. C., Mr. Cecil L. Green of Williston, Mr. P. J. Suttlemire of Hickory, N. C., and Mr. R. K. Bolick of Conover, N. C. These were followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Sarah Harley of Williston, Miss Louise Owens of Washington, D. C., Miss Edith Austin of Clinton, S. C., Miss Annie Alexander of Williston, and Miss Mayo Rountree of Williston. They were crowned in green taffeta with overdress of tulle and bodice of silver lace, carrying armfuls of sweet peas. Then came the dame of honor, Mrs. Burt Carter of Bamberg, S. C., in her wedding gown of Duchesse satin carrying sweet peas. She was followed by the maid of honor, Miss Marion Rountree of Williston, in a gown of white tulle over radium silk with bodice of silver lace carrying sweet peas. Then entered the groom with his brother and best man, Mr. W. K. Bolick of Conover, N. C. Next came the flower girls, little Misses Marie Wise of Williston, and Frances Phillips of Washington, D. C., in fluffy white organdy with pink ribbons, scattering rose petals in the pathway of the bride. The bride entered on the arm of her father who gave her away. She never looked lovelier than in her wedding gown of Duchesse satin and georgette crepe with trainure of pearls and court train, carrying a shower bouquet of sweet peas. The ring ceremony was impressively performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. W. J. Jones, D. D. The bridal party left the church in reverse order to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus. Immediately after the ceremony the bride changed her costume for a traveling suit of orchid taffeta with hat, gloves and accessories to match. They quietly slipped away in an automobile for their honeymoon, their destination being unknown to their friends.

On the evening before the wedding the parents of the bride entertained at a brilliant reception in honor of their daughter. The guests were received in the drawing room by Mr. and Mrs. Weathersbee, the bride and groom, and the bridal party. From here they were taken into the music room where a most costly and beautiful array of presents, consisting of silver, china and cut glass was displayed, showing the high esteem in which the young people are held by their friends. They then entered the dining room where they were served to cake, block cream and mints by young friends of the bride.

Immediately after the reception, the groom entertained his friends at a smoker at the Williston hotel.

The out of town guests at the wedding, besides the attendants, included Mrs. Alfred Owens, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Hugh Phillips and Dr. Clarence J. Owens, aunt and uncle of the bride, all of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. William Parker, Mrs. Lee Easterling Mr. and Mrs. Charley Brown of Barnwell, Mr. Burt Carter of Bamberg, Mrs. Allen Weathersbee of Arlando, Fla., Miss Rubie Guess of Denmark, S. C., Miss Mary Smith of Abbeville, S. C., and Miss Emmie Robinson of Augusta, Ga.

Mrs. Bolick is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weathersbee and is a young woman of rare personal charm and beauty, who is loved and admired by a large circle of friends. She was a student of Chicora College and is a musician of unusual ability. It is a matter of great regret to her friends that her marriage will take her elsewhere to live.

Mr. Bolick is a prominent young man of Conover, N. C. His amiable manner and sterling worth have won for him the highest esteem of his many friends.

After the wedding trip, the young couple will make their home in Hickory, N. C., where a modern bungalow just completed by the groom awaits them.

WILL OPERATE FERRIES IN LIEU OF BRIDGE

The three ferries operated by private individuals across the Catawba at Buffalo Shoals, Island Ford and Terrell, between Catawba and Irwell counties, will be operated as free ferries by the commissioners of both, according to action taken at Statesville. It is estimated that the cost of building three bridges would be about $117,000, and anti-materials are reduced in price it was believed wise to operate the boats free to the public. All three can be run for $3,000 a year, effecting a saving of nearly $3,000 over bridges. This is only a temporary expedient, however, and the authorities are anxious to rebuild the bridges, especially the structure at Buffalo Shoals, which is the Central highway crossing.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes: "From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain."

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.
