

Do You Have Headache?

If you do, very likely it comes from your eyes and can be relieved with properly fitted glasses. Eye strains, headache and nervous troubles, the result of optical defects can be relieved. My examinations are made by the most modern methods and greatest care exercised in the selection of the proper formula for the lenses in every instance.

HICKORY ICE

Is not a "make-shift" ice, and "good enough", but it is the VERY BEST that can be made

Nothing except the best enters into its manufacture and no detail is too small to have our most careful attention.

Hickory ice, the Distilled Water Kind, is the best--you can depend on that.

Mrs. Hahn, is 58 years old and during her whole married life has not taken a dose of medicine prescribed by a physician. Mr. J. D. Elliott, Mr. Frank A. Henderson and Joe Elliott Sherrill returned last night from Hendersonville, where they attended the Shriners' convention. On July 4, when news was read of the capture by the Russians of 20,000 prisoners, the Masons raised the roof, Mr. Elliott said. The distance from Hendersonville to Hickory is 121 miles and the trip was made in seven hours.

MUSIC IN WAR Milwaukee Journal If Germany cuts off our supply of German opera singers, we might retaliate by cutting off the supply of German street bands.

ENCOURAGING TO THE ALLIES

Columbia State. Remembering the German government's pitiful plea when it abandoned claims to national honor by setting out upon its course of ruthless submarine warfare that it would bring the war to a speedy end, Admiral von Capelle's summing up that "there is not the least reason for doubting the success of the submarine war," is heartening to the allies.

Five months have passed since the German government began its dirty work and two or three months have passed since the war should have ended, according to the promises of the government controlled German newspapers to the German people. In March Capelle would have said, in ringing tones of affirmation, that the submarines are winning the war. Seeking refuge in a negative form of speech in July, he is content to deny that there is reason for doubting their success, thereby conceding that doubt has begun to creep into the German mind. Meantime the German government's promises already have failed of realization.

In a word, German expression of confidence in the submarines is perceptibly weakening in a measure that tends to confirm British expression of confidence that they are being defeated.

It is observable, too, that while Capelle asserts that the number of German submarines increases steadily, successful attacks upon fighting ships of the allies do not increase, although, in the transportation of commissions and of troops, the latter have lately been on the open sea in expanded numbers. Destroyers are chasing the submarines and, apparently, with safety. Meantime von Hindenburg points to the submarine as the German hope, telling the German armies that they have but to hold out while the submarines win the victory. An astonishing confession from the lips of a general acclaimed as a conqueror! It is at least plain that the Germans are qualifying their boasts.

With Capelle denying the doubt of submarine victory and with Hindenburg admitting that victory on land is not to be expected--that the armies must but hold out--the allies were never so much justified in taking a hopeful view as they are now.

PEARL WHITE AT THE PASTIME MONDAY The following is a short synopsis of "May Blossom," a five part Gold Rooster play featuring Pearl White which will be shown at the Pastime Monday, July 9: So long has Pearl White been thrown off cliffs and tied with yards and yards of good manila rope, with a bomb of promising power sizzling near her fettered feet, that one might have thought she had forsaken all but the perilous serial. "May Blossom" proves she hasn't. It is a photoplay in which Miss White repeats with her characteristic charm the manner in which Annabel Lee, secretly married to a dissolute spender in her youth, finally finds happiness. There are no foreign spies or mysterious strangers in the plot, but it is none the less filled with action and suspense.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY An Ambition and a Record THE needs of the South are identical with the needs of the Southern Railway; the growth and success of one means the upbuilding of the other. The Southern Railway asks no favors--no special privilege not accorded to others. The ambition of the Southern Railway Company is to see that unity of interest that is born of cooperation between the public and the railroads; to see perfected that fair and frank policy in the management of railroads which invites the confidence of governmental agencies; to realize that liberality of treatment which will enable it to obtain the additional capital needed for the acquisition of better and enlarged facilities incident to the demand for increased and better service; and, finally-- To take its niche in the body politic of the South alongside of other great industries, with no more, but with equal liberties, equal rights and equal opportunities. "The Southern Serves the South."
