ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS

THURSDAY, JULY 19, 1917

ON RIGHT TO MAKE WAR

Bismarck, like Frederick the Great, believed it was not immoral for a nation that wanted a piece of territory to provoke a war so that it could be seized.

When the great war broke out in 1914, now nearly three years ago, England was torn with dissension.

German philosophy, which believed that the morality of a state is vastly different from the morality of an individual, doubtless will be revised when the German people turn the dishonest gang out of office in Berlin.

Senator Lodge, for whom we have expressed admiration in the past, should have more sense than to make attacks on the administration for choosing camp sites in the south and for the manner in which the draft army is to be selected.

A scholarly gentleman writes us: "Do you know your old Record as it is hard to lay down, once I open the wrapper, as the Literary Digest? I congratulate you on the stuff you choose for fillers."

The chorus that used to sing, "Why don't the British fight," has been disbanded for the period of the war.

You can't put French over on our North Carolina linotype operators. The Mount Olive News, which appeared last week, started out with the intention of giving the raison d'etre of that paper, but Editor John C. Tipton—success to him—was made to say "The reason I started." It is about the same thing, brother, and should warn you to stick to your mother dialect.

MR. POU'S CAUSE

When it is known that James H. Pou of Raleigh is to address a jury, the court house is packed with people for miles around—the highbrow being conspicuous by his presence.

Hon. J. H. Pou of Raleigh delivered on Sunday evening in the auditorium an address on the war that we have not heard equalled by any man. It is impossible to describe it. You must hear it in order to understand.

He ought to be heard in every county in North Carolina. He knows European history as well as he knows his Blackstone and has a facility for imparting his knowledge that will make an audience stay with him for hours.

Best be a certain amount of rain, that falls.

RED CROSS SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE NOW DUN IN HICKORY

The central Red Cross committee, named by Mayor Yount to solicit funds for the war relief fund of the national associations, has been instructed to make collections and return them promptly and the committee urges all people who have subscribed to the cause to send checks to the First National Bank.

How to Stop Loss of Hair and Start New Growth

If your hair is thinning out, lifeless, full of dandruff, and your head itches like mad, it's a sure sign of the dangerous dandruff germ, and quick action must be taken to save what hair you have and start a new growth.

German philosophy, which believed that the morality of a state is vastly different from the morality of an individual, doubtless will be revised when the German people turn the dishonest gang out of office in Berlin.

LIVER DIDN'T ACT DIGESTION WAS BAD

Says 65 year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved After a Few Doses of Black-Draught.

Meadorsville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fix. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me. My appetite was gone, I was very weak... I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial as I knew it was highly recommended for this trouble. I began taking it. I felt better after a few doses. My appetite improved and I became stronger. My bowels acted naturally and the least trouble was soon righted with a few doses of Black-Draught." Seventy years of successful use has made Theodor's Black-Draught a standard, household remedy. Every member of every family, at times, need the help that Black-Draught can give in cleansing the system and relieving the troubles that come from constipation, indigestion, lazy liver, etc. You cannot keep well unless your stomach, liver and bowels are in good working order. Keep them that way. Try Black-Draught. It acts promptly, gently and in a natural way. If you feel sluggish, take a dose tonight. You will feel fresh tomorrow. Price 25c. a package—One cent a dose.
