

Do You Have Headache?

If you do, very likely it comes from your eyes and can be relieved with properly fitted glasses. Eye strains, headache and nervous troubles, the result of optical defects, can be relieved.

MORE IMPORTANT THAN A GREAT MANY THINK

New York, July 25.—The announcement that Siam has declared a state of war with Germany carries a greater significance than might at first be supposed.

A QUESTION TO THE POINT

Christian Science Monitor. A plea has been made for the non-drafting of German-born citizens into the United States army for service in Europe, and it is difficult to withhold sympathy from such a demand, although really when a man accepts the advantages of citizenship he must also accept all the responsibility with it.

NOT WORRYING ABOUT AMERICAN AVIATORS

Copenhagen, July 25.—The commanding general of the German aerial forces has issued an interview to the German newspapers in which he attempts to discount the prospective participation of American aviators in the war for mastery of the seas.

TARTARS OF THE LAKES COUNTRY

New York Herald. Since Russia's abandonment in 1905, of the policy of repression that came in with the Slavophile movement six years earlier, Finland has enjoyed an autonomy practically complete.

The Finns are a distinct people, neither Slav, Teuton nor Scandinavian, but relics of one of the Mongol hordes that pushed into Europe. After long experiencing the disasters that go with the condition of buffer state they selected the tsar of the Russians to be their grand duke and ruler, at the same time being guaranteed the rights of their own constitution and fundamental laws.

Swedish is the secondary language. There is a Swedish party in politics. Undoubtedly the hand of that party is seen in the "independence" movement which culminated in the Helsingfors declaration on Saturday, though the social democratic party has led the way.

The pro-Germanism of Sweden is born of cupidity, with Finland the prospective victim. Independence may be most attractive to Finnish politicians and people at this time, but they must know that the best they can hope for is a return to the unenviable position of buffer state.

LIVING COST A CENTURY AGO

Sugar Was 27 Cents a Pound and a Coffin Sold for $7.50, According to Old Ledger.

Chester Knipe has compiled some interesting data, collected in this section, setting forth what it cost our forefathers a century ago to live, writes a North Wales (Pa.) correspondent of the New York World.

Some of the data are obtained from an old ledger kept by David C. Kulp, founder of Kulpville, near North Wales, from 1813 to 1834.

Some of the interesting prices shown follow: In 1813 sugar was 20 cents a pound; in 1815 it was 27 cents a pound; coffee was 25 cents a pound and molasses $1.25 a gallon.

In 1813 Kulp paid David Meschter $7.50 for making a coffin for his father. Potatoes sold at 80 cents a bushel and bricks cost $5.50 per thousand.

Improved Camera. The convenience of the camera has been further increased by the addition of a means for accurately judging the actual value of the light at the time of making a picture, and thereby arriving at the correct length of exposure to be given the sensitive film.
