"If In Doubt, Call On Me," He Exclaims

Well-Known Norfolk Notary Public Had Spent $100 In Effort to Gain Relief

Now Tells How Ironized Paw-Paw Brought Relief From Stubborn Stomach Trouble and Sleeplessness

"Any one in doubt of the merits of Ironized Paw-Paw should call on me," declared Mr. Albert S. J. Jake-man, the prominent notary public and conveyancer of deeds, residing at 407 W 30th St., Norfolk, yesterday. "Yes, sir I had spent over $100 in my efforts to gain relief from stomach trouble and sleeplessness without success until I found Ironized Paw-Paw," he continued. "My stomach was in such a bad condition that I vomited practically everything I ate. What felt like a lump of iron seemed to lie in my stomach causing me much distress. My stomach became so sore that I couldn't bear to touch it. I believe I had the worst case of indigestion and sleeplessness on record, along with nervous headaches. I had no ambition to do anything. I began taking Ironized Paw-Paw and within a week, to my great surprise, I arose one morning to realize that I had slept the entire night through without awakening once. "Well, sir, I have finished my second bottle of Ironized Paw-Paw and to say I feel much improved would be putting it mildly. My stomach is back in good condition, my appetite has improved and I sleep through the night without awakening once. The pains in my stomach are things of the past. I feel like new—thanks to Ironized Paw-Paw." Paw-Paw—IRON-NUX—the principal component parts of the Standard New Remedy, is being especially introduced and explained at the Hickory Drug Store. ENFORCE AUTOMOBILE LAW Notice is hereby given that section 13 of the state automobile law will be enforced. The section follows: "Sec. 13. That no person shall operate a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state who is under the age of sixteen years and who is not competent physically and mentally, and no person shall operate a motor vehicle when intoxicated, or in a race, or on a bet or wager, or for the purpose of making a speed record; Provided, nothing herein contained shall prevent racing on private race courses or tracks."

The officers hope that the public, for whose benefit the act was passed, will assist in its enforcement. JOHN A. ISENHOWER, Sheriff, E. W. LENTZ, Chief of Police. 7 25 6t

SPECIAL AT THE PASTIME THURSDAY, JULY 26th

The following is a short synopsis of "The Wax Model" a Paramount picture featuring Vician Martin which will be shown at the Pastime Thursday, July 26th. Both the gay and serious sides of the life of an artist's model are graphically depicted in "The Wax Model" the forth coming starring vehicle of Vivian Martin. In this Pallas-Paramount picture, Miss Martin is seen as a little French girl, the most popular model in London, in which she has ample opportunity to display her natural charm and piquancy. This story made a sensation when it appeared in Smart Set Magazine, and there is every reason to believe that its more vivid presentation on the screen will prove even more successful.

RHEUMATISM

Physician Believes a Genuine Remedy for the Disease Has Been Found Rheuma, the wonderful rheumatism remedy sold by Hickory Drug Co., and all druggists, gives quicker and more lasting relief than other remedies costing many times as much. Rheuma passes the deadly poisonous secretions into the bowels, and kidneys, from which they are quickly thrown off in a natural, healthy way. Read what a reputable physician says about Rheuma: "I have made a most careful investigation of the formula employed in the manufacture of Rheuma, and I heartily recommend it as a remedy for all forms of rheumatism. I find Rheuma far in advance of the methods generally employed in the treatment of rheumatism, and altogether different in composition from the remedies usually prescribed."—Dr. Lyons. This should give any sufferer from rheumatism confidence to try Rheuma.

PICKETING RESUMED Greensboro Record.

The women of Washington who have been picketing the white house have secured their freedom, gotten away from jail and are again on duty. The hope is that finally something will happen to stop this folly. A good-sized riot where the unlawful citizens dressed in petticoats could be run down and killed would be the best thing that could happen. Maudlin sympathy protects them from going to the roads, where they belong for their unlawful conduct and treasonable utterances. A big mob trampling them under foot and crushing them to death would be about as slight a penalty as we would want to impose. A woman is the limit in goodness or meanness, and in this case she is the limit in lawlessness. Much worse than Emma Goldman, much worse than the Industrial Workers of the World. Worse because defiant and foolish. Half witted women should not be allowed to run free, and when they insist on it kindly death should relieve them and their sex from further humiliation.

MISS ISABELLA HANCOCK, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hancock, observed her 13th birthday anniversary Monday evening with a dinner at the home of her parents.

Her guests included Misses Dorothy Ivey and Ermonia Shell, Rev. and Mrs. W. K. Bradshaw, Rev. A. L. Stanford and Mr. Geo. F. Ivey.

MR. FOGLE NAMED ACTING POSTMASTER

Mr. W. F. Fogle has been appointed acting postmaster by the bonding company which guarantees Uncle Sam against loss and as soon as his appointment is confirmed by the postoffice department at Washington, he will take charge of the office. Mr. Fogle is local agent for the bonding company. He is a son-in-law of Mr. W. S. Stroup, county commissioner, and is an active agriculturist, farmer and home canner. His appointment is expected to hold until a successor to Mr. Aiken can qualify.

GENERAL WOOD INVITED TO TOWN OF SALISBURY

Salisbury, July 25.—Mayor Walter H. Woodson has invited Gen. Leonard Wood to visit Salisbury and see for himself what this city offered as a site for a cantonment camp. Early in the game Salisbury was considered an ideal place for the camp, but recently this city has been laying low. Two officers sent here at different times made recommendations favorable, one of them Captain Sharpe, sending in this by wire: "I have inspected the proposed camp site in Salisbury and find it practicable in every respect and don't think you can do better anywhere else." Written report will follow. Salisbury's offer included about 3,500 acres of land.
