

Do You Have Headache?

If you do, very likely it comes from your eyes and can be relieved with properly fitted glasses. Eye strains, headache and nervous troubles, the result of optical defects can be relieved.

My examinations are made by the most modern methods and greatest care exercised in the selection of the proper formula for the lenses in every instance.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY

An Ambition and a Record

The need of the South are identical with the needs of the Southern Railway; the growth and success of one means the growth of the other.

The Southern Railway asks no favors—no special privileges not shared by others.

The ambition of the Southern Railway Company is to see that the South has a fair and frank policy in the management of its railroads which invites the confidence of governmental agencies to realize a liberality of treatment which will enable it to meet the additional capital needed for the acquisition of better and more facilities incident to the demand for increased and better service.

It is the policy of the Southern Railway Company to give equal opportunities to all.

"The Southern Serves the South."

NEWTON ITEMS

Newton, Aug. 30.—Two children were slightly injured by being thrown from a buggy while D. C. Puett was hitching his horse. The children had just climbed into the buggy, when the horse became frightened and ran. One was a small son of Joe Travis and the other was a little daughter of Mr. Puett. The buggy was badly damaged.

The Newton graded school which is to open September 10 has added to the faculty Miss Dora Atkinson of Goldsboro as one of the first grade teachers and Mrs. T. H. Olive as supply teacher.

A new corporation has been formed at Maiden with H. E. Clay of Hickory as head of the concern for the manufacture of picker sticks and other wood products. The capital stock is $10,000 subscribed by B. M. Spratt, cashier of the bank of Maiden, Dr. Bandy, J. S. Campbell and other business men of Maiden. They are expecting to have the plant in operation by September 20. Maiden is also planning for the erection and operation of a hosiery mill.

Lee O. Drumwright, who once worked in Newton as telegraph operator, has enlisted as a telegraph operator in the signal corps in the District of Columbia national guard. He goes to Aniston, Ala., at once to prepare to go to France.

J. D. Jenkins and Miss Lizzie Jackson were married in the office of the register of deeds yesterday. Rev. Geo. P. Drum performed the ceremony in the presence of the register and some friends of the couple.

A series of meetings are in progress at the Startown Baptist church this week. Rev. W. F. Staley of Winston-Salem is assisting the pastor, Rev. J. A. Snow.

BRITISH SOCIALISTS

GO HOME UNDECEID

London, Aug. 30.—The so-called inter-allied socialist conference concluded a two-days session last evening. It failed to reach unanimity of opinion of the Stockholm conference on peace. The United States was not represented at the conference and one South African delegate was the only representative of the British overseas dominion. Delegates from pacifist bodies were in the majority. The trades union congress, representing the bulk of British labor, had only eight delegates in attendance and the labor party twelve delegates.

TEN DAYS YET BEFORE

GERMANY ANSWERS POPE

Copenhagen, Aug. 30.—It will be ten days before the central powers answer the peace note of Pope Benedict, says the Berlin Kreuz Zeitsung. Negotiations regarding the note between Berlin and Vienna have been completed, the newspaper states, but are still taking place with Turkey. It expresses the view that the central powers undoubtedly will agree upon a joint reply.

Mr. J. Caswell Sherrill, formerly principal of the West Hickory graded school left today for Caldwell county, where he will spend a few weeks. Mr. Sherrill was one of the best principals West Hickory ever had.

Miss Kathleen Whitener returned to the city yesterday after spending the past month in Greenville, S. C. While there she was a frequent visitor to Camp Sevier and says "our soldier boys are all well and happy."

Mrs. J. W. Shuford and children and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Warlick and family were among the Hickory people to attend the Rameur family reunion near Lincolnton yesterday. A large number of relatives were assembled for the event, which was held at the home of Mr. T. J. Rameur.

OPPOSE CHANGING TIES

BINDING GERMAN EMPIRE

Copenhagen, Aug. 30.—The Staats Zeitung of Munich, the organ of the Bavarian government, publishes a Berlin communication against the introduction of a parliamentary regime as opposed to the federative character of the empire. The Staats Zeitung declares that all the federal states undoubtedly share the views expressed by the chief speaker in the reichstag who said that his party welcomed the chancellor's intention to bring about closer relations between the government and parliament, but it must reject any tampering with the federated character of the empire and the rights of the federal states.

The article says that the reichstag in its present form, although without the right of parliamentary domination, has met all patriotic requirements complete and more satisfactorily than the British and French parliaments have met the needs of their countries.

AMUSEMENTS

MOLLIE KING AT PASTIME MONDAY

See Mollie King, the most beautiful girl on the screen at the Pastime Monday, September 3rd, in the first episode of the "Double Cross," Pathe's new Mystery Serial. Miss King was born in New York City in April, 1898, and has been on the stage since the early age of eight months. At the age of seven she had an important child part with Maxine Elliott in "Her Own Way" and made a hit in New York and London.

SPECIAL AT PASTIME TODAY

The special attraction at the Pastime this afternoon and tonight, a Paramount picture "Out of the Wreck" a powerful photodrama featuring that great actress, Kathryn Williams. The following is the story: James Aldrich, honest and respected, is a candidate for United States senator.

"The Clarion," a newspaper of opposite politics, casts about for something to "get" him. His own life is clean, so it is suggested that they try to learn something of his wife. The services of Ruby Sheldon, whom newspaper work has made into a cynic, are engaged. She goes to a reception given by Agnes, James Aldrich's wife, and recognizes her as Josephine Dargie who was tried for murder.

Duncan, managing editor of "The Clarion," tells Aldrich he must quit—revealing to him the identity of his wife. Agnes overhears the statement, admits her identity, and tells her story to Aldrich, Duncan and Ruby—of the loss of her parents, of meeting Steve O'Brien, who through kindness wins her love; how Steve finally attempts to force her into the streets and in a drunken rage tells her he has another wife.

She places a pistol under her pillow and as Steve attempts to kill her she shoots him. She is acquitted at the trial, and goes into mission work. It is here that she meets Aldrich. Duncan, Ruby and Aldrich listen spellbound to her story, and Duncan reports to the rival politician that they can find nothing against Agnes Aldrich.

In the cast are Miss Williams, William Clifford, Wm. Conklin, Stella Razeto, W. W. Jefferson and Don Bailey.
