ALL HOTELS WILL BE INSPECTED OCTOBER 10. All hotels in the state, those containing as many as fifteen bed rooms, will be required by law, after October 10, to observe the rules and regulations passed by the last general assembly, for the sanitary management of hotels. The Travelers' Protective Association has requested this of the state board of health, at whose hands the state requires the enforcement of the law.

The board is making preliminary announcements of its purpose to enforce the law regarding the sanitary management of hotels, beginning October 10, to all hotel managers or proprietors with the view that the requirements of the law will be observed and no prosecutions will be necessary. It calls special attention to sections two, nine and eighteen of chapter 66 of the public laws of 1917, which require full information concerning rates, the provision of proper means of sewage disposal and the prohibition of the common roller towel.

The inspector will be official representatives of the state board of health who will report the conditions of the hotels inspected on blanks to be filed in the office of the board. The hotels will accordingly be graded and their scores kept.

The North Carolina division of the Travelers' Protective Association reports numerous complaints concerning North Carolina hotels. The general complaint is that the laws recently enacted and the sanitary instructions furnished by the state board of health for managing hotels are not being regarded. To improve sanitary condition is the association's reason for asking that the law be enforced.

PROCLAMATION BY PRESIDENT

To the School Children of the United States:

The President of the United States is also president of the American Red Cross. It is from these offices joined in one that I write you a word of greeting at this time when so many of you are beginning the school year.

The American Red Cross has just prepared a junior membership with school activities in which every pupil in the United States can find a chance to serve our country. The school is the natural center of your life. Through it you can best work in the great cause of freedom to which we have all pledged ourselves.

Our Junior Red Cross will bring to you opportunities of service in your community and to other communities all over the world and guide your service with high and religious ideals. It will teach you how to save in order that suffering children elsewhere may have the chance to live.

It will teach you how to prepare some of the supplies which wounded soldiers and homeless families lack. It will send to you through the Red Cross bulletins, the thrilling stories of relief and rescue. And best of all, more perfectly than through any other school lessons, you will learn by doing those kind things under your teacher's discretion to be the future good citizens of this country which we all love. And I commend to all school teachers in the country the simple plan which the American Red Cross has worked out to provide for your cooperation, knowing as I do that school children will give their best service under the direct guidance and instruction of their teachers. Is not this perhaps the chance for which you have been looking to give your time and efforts in some measure to meet our national needs?

WOODROW WILSON, President.

UP TO MECKLENBURG?

Catawba County News. Mecklenburg county could have had the congressman from this district when Yates Webb was nominated the first time, if that great county had united on one man.

The time has again come when Mecklenburg can name a man for congress in the convention of this district if the Democrats of Mecklenburg will unite on some one of their able and capable men.

There is plenty of opposition to Webb in the district to unite with Mecklenburg county to send one of her sons to congress next time. Does Mecklenburg want a representative in congress. This is the question for Democrats of Mecklenburg to answer.

ROOSEVELT'S FINE TIME

Springfield Republican. Col. Roosevelt had a fine time during his recent visit to St. Paul and Minneapolis, he boasted "Twin Cities" of Minnesota. His welcome was the greater because of the popular impatience with the recent utterances in that locality tending toward disloyalty. The Minneapolis Journal has grouped some of the picturesque phrases which Col. Roosevelt has been employing, as follows:

His "neo-copperheads" had preceded him, along with his denunciations of "the Huns within our gates." But his characterizations of Gronna as La Follette's "Me Too" and of the little clique that follows the Wisconsin senator as "Shadow Huns" were received with delight, while his reference to Misrepresentative Lundeen as "one of the lesser microbes" hit home. "Fifty-fifty patriots" was another happy phrase. And he struck 12 when in St. Paul he said, "They held a disloyalty day last week, and we are holding a loyalty day this week."

GERMAN LANGUAGE PAPER SEIZED BY GOVERNMENT

New Ark, N. J., Oct. 5.—Federal agents seized the publishing plant of the New Jersey Freie Zeitung, a widely read German language newspaper and arrested its proprietors and editors on charges of publishing seditious and treasonable articles. The proprietors, Benedict and Edwin S. Prieth, publishers, and William von Kattzler, Frederick J. Hartman and Henry Waechter, were arraigned in $5,000 bail each for a hearing October 18. Government agents are in charge of the plant.

The Freie Zeitung has been under surveillance of the government for several months, and September 26 the publishers were notified by the postoffice department to show cause why their paper should not be barred from the mails.

POLICE LIEUTENANT IS HELD UNDER BIG BOND

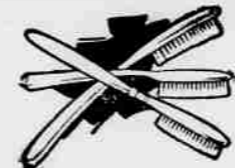

Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—Presiding Judge Charles L. Brown of the Municipal court, where Mayor Smith and eight other men are being given a hearing on the charge of conspiracy to murder in connection with the killing of a policeman by alleged New York gangsters in the fifth ward political feud, publicly announced from the bench that Lieut. David B. Bennett, in command of the police in that ward, is parading under an assumed name.

Until he proves that he had legally changed his name, the court declared, the lieutenant would be held in $10,000 bail, pending the outcome of the hearing, under the name of "Stebbins," alias "Bennett."

The court's announcement came at the end of a day of much testimony intended to show that the police of the fifth ward had been illegally used to swing the nomination of Isaac Deutsch, Mayor Smith's candidate for council.

Counsel for Bennett protested against the action of the court in bringing discredit upon a defendant who had not yet been tried, and to this the judge replied:

"I only make that remark for this reason: I note in my official career on this bench and other courts wherein I sit, I am called upon to sit in judgment upon men who are Hebrews of the lowest type in the community who adopt Irish names and are charged with offenses that an Irishman never in God's world could be guilty of."

PEARL WHITE AT PASTIME

The following is a short synopsis of the Ninth chapter of "The Fatal Ring" featuring Pearl White which will be shown at the Pastime this afternoon and tonight:

Unaware of danger and ignorant of the fact that the Violet Diamond is within the safe, Pearl endeavors to open it in this episode. The result is an explosion which wrecks the room and hurls Carslake and Pearl to the floor.

Later Carslake is summoned by the Priestess and leaves Pearl with his men, saying that if he is not back by three she is to be killed. The episode ends with Carslake, the Priestess and her adherents, entering just as Carslake's henchman is about to plunge the dagger in the muffled form on the sofa.

SPECIAL AT HUB SATURDAY

The special attraction at the Hub theatre Saturday, October 6th will be "Her Beloved Enemy," a Gold Rooster play in five parts featuring Doris Grey and Wayne Aray. The following is the story:

A girl's emotion are torn between a death-bed promise of revenge to her father and love for a man, whom she believes to be guilty of ruining her father's life. This is the powerful mental struggle presented by Doris Grey in "Her Beloved Enemy." And of course, being a true daughter of Eve, at the psychological moment, when she should have betrayed "the guilty man," to the police, love wins out, and she tries to aid him to escape. He refuses, however, and then comes the denouement as the detectives walk in. This is the sort of picture that can't be described very well—one must see it to appreciate what a splendid drama Pathe has produced.
