GOOD ATTENDANCE AT UNION MISSIONARY MEETING

Probably one hundred women representing the Episcopal, Baptist, Lutheran, Reformed, Presbyterian, and Methodist churches, attended the services of the quadricentennial celebration of the Reformation at the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon.

The church was artistically decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums. A union choir led in the singing. Miss Patrick presided at the organ. Mesdames Stevenson, Gosnold and A. A. Whitener acted as ushers and distributed the programs. Mrs. W. B. Ramsay, by virtue of her office as president of the N. C. Synodical Auxiliary, presided.

After the Reformation service participated in by Mesdames J. H. Shuford, J. L. Allen, W. L. Abernethy, J. L. Latta, E. D. Yoder, W. R. Beckley, C. L. Mosteller, B. A. Klutz, J. L. Riddle, Miss Schenck, closing with prayer by Mrs. Gwaltney, an hour was spent discussing topics related to the work of the missionary society.

Mrs. C. C. Bost gave convincing reasons why one should belong to a missionary society, urging that we do not serve our God less because we serve our country more. Miss Morrell gave a most practical and inspiring presentation of the subject of mission study, based on her successful experience as a mission study leader, showing that a large majority of those present were or had been members of mission study classes. Mrs. West in handling the subject of stewardship, urged the consecration of time, talent, personality, and money to the work of the missionary society.

Community service for the colored people was delightfully presented by Mrs. Garth. She suggested that a committee consisting of one from each society be appointed to investigate the possibilities for practical service.

A most earnest and inspiring appeal was given by Mrs. J. B. Pruitt on the subject, "The Open Bible and Prayer." Following this the Home Helpers Prayer Circle was presented, each woman present being asked to sign the card promising to pray daily for the gospel work among the soldiers. The program closed with the singing of Luther's Battle Hymn of the Reformation and the doxology.

Local and Personal

City council will meet tonight to receive bids for the sale of improvement bonds.

A Halloween dance will be given at the Chero-Cola hall tomorrow night beginning at 9 o'clock.

Rev. J. G. Garth and Dr. P. W. Troutman are in Fayetteville attending the Presbyterian synod.

Watch out for a freeze. The county is due one, but Hickory, nestling between mountains, probably will escape severe cold.

Are you interested in the food pledge campaign? It was inaugurated to save food and enable the allies the better to fight the enemies of American soldiers.

Mrs. E. Chadwick will return to Hickory Thursday or Friday from an extended visit to Atlantic City, Philadelphia, Elizabeth, N. J., and Ashland, Ky. While away she visited Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gilley, Rev. and Mrs. E. H. J. Andrews and Mrs. E. H. Gartrell, the latter her niece.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Miller and son, Albert, left this morning in their car for Camp Sevier near Greenville, S. C., to visit John F. Miller, Jr. They were joined at Gastonia by Miss Pearl Miller, who is teaching voice and expression at Troy. They expect to return Wednesday evening.

YOU ARE OLD, KAISER WILLIAM

By Porter Emerson Browne of the Vigilantes, with appropriate apologies to the late Lewis Carroll.

"You are old, Kaiser William," the crown prince said,
"And for years have done nothing but fight;
Yet now you incessantly prate about peace—
Will the world understand the thing right?"

"When I started this war," he replied to his son,
"I thought we were certain to win,
But the terrible bloomer you made in Verdun
Has encouraged the allies like sin."
"You are old," said the youth, "as I mentioned before,
And you've boasted of conquest for years."
Yet now that you've gotten the world good and sore,
You talk peace with a voice full of tears."

"At the start," Kaiser William replied to the lad,
"Our good old steam roller sure rolled!
But we'd better let go, now that things are so bad,
And endeavor to get a new hold."

"You are old," said the youth, "and have wallowed in death,
And you haven't had nearly enough,
Still you talk about peace with a palpitant breath—
Do you think that they'll fall for the stuff?"

"At the start," said his father, "It looked like a cinch,
And victory certain for us;
But now that we're fighting ourselves in a pinch
The people are making a fuss."
"You are old," said the youth, "and you speak about God,
And you treat him almost as a friend,
Don't you think he should heed your imperial nod
And bring this affair to an end?"

"I've answered three questions; be off on your way."
Said his father, restricting a sob;
"You've only lost fourteen divisions today;
"They'll think that you're quitting the job."

HICKORY NEWS

This Case Has a Hint for Many Hickory Readers

A Hickory woman has used Doan's Kidney Pills.

She has found them as represented. She wishes her neighbors to know. She publicly recommends them. No need to look further for a tested kidney remedy.

The proof of merit is here and can be investigated.

Profit by the statement of Mrs. D. M. Hill, 508 Eighth St. She says: "I suffered terribly from kidney trouble and never expected to do my household work again. I had dizzy spells and my sight was affected. I did not sleep well and mornings I could hardly get about. My back was lame and stiff and my joints pained me. Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of the trouble and as it hasn't returned, I give them the credit for my present good health."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hill had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y. adv

THE HONORS OF ATROCITY

The Sultan of Turkey has graciously conferred on the German kaiser the diamond star of the Ittihar Order, Turkey's highest war decoration, and the kaiser has decorated the Sultan with the star and chain of the Hohenzollern Order with diamonds.

The honors are even—the hero of the Belgian and Lusitania murders honors and is honored by the hero of Armenian massacres. No one will question the deserving of the honors or the respective fitness of the mutual donors and recipients.

UPHOLD PROHIBITION

Christian Science Monitor.

That every newspaper in Wyoming will stand solidly for the passage of the statewide prohibition amendment to be voted upon in that state in 1918 was the assertion made by Superintendent F. L. Crabbe of the Anti-Saloon League of Wyoming, on his return from a detailed canvass of the state.

Already the larger newspapers of the state have come out for prohibition. The Wyoming Times, the Cheyenne State Leader and the Laramie Republican being the first to do so.

President and Democracy

Springfield Republican.

The president's address to the New York delegation of women suffragists was developed in a style to make its thought cover the underlying political issues of the world struggle now in progress in its broadest and most far-reaching aspect. The outcome of the war is sure to involve a political reconstruction and no country is likely to escape its influence. The president's address is most timely and heartening because it reveals him as no less the great international champion of democracy than the man when he delivered his celebrated war message to congress.

The actual progress of a war may easily play disconcerting tricks with one's aims and ideals; the fury and passion of strife may cause reactions entirely subversive of the principles for which one began to fight. The head of a government at war may be obliged for the sake of military success to curtail the liberties of individuals that are regarded as the most commonplace usage of a free state in time of peace. Lincoln did things which were condemned by his critics and opponents as the acts of usurper and tyrant, but the world in the end came to recognize that through all the turmoil of civil war the guiding star, America was more a democracy than ever when Lincoln's war had been finished and the crown of his immortality had been won.

It would be foolish to suppose that every one who is allied against Germany in the war is devoted to democratic ideals. In England and France as well as in this country there are still antidemocratic forces. Aristocratic, militaristic and imperialistic, they are at heart wholly out of sympathy with the ideal of "making the world safe for democracy." They were much stronger, influential and articulate before the United States entered the struggle than they have been since, yet their power is not to be underestimated particularly in the peace making, which must bring the war to an end and prepare the ground for the reconstruction of western civilization.

THE BUSY HARDWARE

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY

An Ambition and a Record

THE needs of the South are identical with the needs of the Southern Railway; the growth and success of one means the upbuilding of the other.

The Southern Railway asks no favors--no special privileges but accords to others.

The ambition of the Southern Railway Company is to see that unity of interest that is born of co-operation between the public and the railroad; to see perfected that fair and frank policy in the management of railroads which invites the confidence of governmental agencies; to realize that liberality of treatment which will enable it to obtain the additional capital needed for the acquisition of better and enlarged facilities incident to the demand for increased and better service; and, finally--

To take its niche in the busy traffic of the South along with other great industries, with no more, but with equal liberties, equal rights and equal opportunities.
