Rad Russia remained in the war, the British and Russian armies soon would be in position to enter Constantinople by the back door, to cut off Bulgaria and Turkey from the central powers and bring the Teutons' dream of world empire to naught. Now, however, the British are accomplishing little except giving the Turks the mauling they deserve.

When everybody else was going about as if the world was lost, Frank Allen was telling the boys everything was all right, and pretty soon news of what had happened in northern France circulated through the business district. Friend Allen always is an optimist, and that sort of man is right more often than he is wrong.

Governor McCall of Massachusetts refused to grant the request of the governor of West Virginia for a negro wanted in that state on a serious charge. The reason of course was because the Massachusetts governor feared violence. Mr. McCall drew forth the toast he deserved from his brother governor.

The schoolmasters seem to be in demand these days. M. Clemenceau taught French in a Connecticut school and we have heard of other professors on whom the world is looking with a great deal of interest—indeed if the world is not actually depending on them.

As long as the Italians hold, there is hope not only of stopping the Austro-Germans on the Piave, but sending them back where they came from. The danger to the Italians is not from a front attack, but from the mountains north of the Piave. There is the rub.

Any woman who wrestles with three cases of whooping cough after battling to a standstill diphtheria, scarlet fever, colitis, measles and a few greater or lesser evils to which children are heir to deserve some diadems.

The Record has been an interested spectator of the women's fight for suffrage, but it does hope that none of the thoughtless gang that is pestering the president will ever have an opportunity to cast a ballot.

Dr. Hen says he will have a postum supper one of these nights. He believes in laying sweet taters around the marsupial and washing the animal down with simon beer. Aint he a good diagnostician?

English militants ceased their foolishness the minute their country became involved in war, but this sensible action was lost on certain suffragettes in this country.

Now is the time to plant English peas for spring delivery, the farm journals say. Plant the seed about five or six inches deep and await results.

The Texas gentleman who has offered his two sons $500 for every German they kill might give them the choice of going to France or Chicago.

Evidently those westbound Germans were not sent to northern France.

General Haig struck just when we needed it most of all.

The capture of Jerusalem is to be expected within the next few days.

And don't forget the Red Cross meeting tonight.

Lloyd George was everlastingly right in his position in favor of unity of action, and no amount of criticism can change that fact.

There are some 15,000 or 20,000 rumors in circulation all the time, but believe none of them.

The British may kill Turkey by Thanksgiving.

What this climate needs is a good rain.

WE ARE WINNING

Fresno Republican. Superficially, the news from Europe seems as discouraging as could be, and actually it is of course bad enough. But all this should not blind us to the fact that after all we are winning the war. It is on the west that the war must be won, and we are winning it there. The submarines are not starving England, and the allies are battering through the German line. If the submarine can do so still less next year, when there will be more ships, and when methods and equipment against the submarines are even better than now. England's reserve line on the sea is more than holding, and will grow permanently stronger. Germany's reserve line on land on the other hand, is no longer invulnerable, and grows constantly weaker. By German acknowledgment the allies have at last solved the problem of trench warfare. By spending power and metal enough, they can blast through and render untenable any possible defense. It is a slow process and it gains only a little at a time, but it does not stop, and the Germans, who understand it perfectly, can not use it in the reverse direction. It takes more powder and metal than they have, which means that on the western front they are slowly but surely yielding. They can not force a quick peace, and a deferred peace is their defeat. Russia, for the present, is out of it, but not enough out for the Germans to withdraw their lines, or to be able to get supplies. Italy is reforming for another stand, and the strategic situation is such that Germany can not win enough of Italy to accomplish any objective toward winning the war. This war is not won yet, by any means, and will not be until after we get fully in. But meantime, in spite of spectacular reverses elsewhere, our side is winning in the one place where the winning must be done.

THE REASON

The Atlanta Constitution says: "England is reported to be making standard shoes of real leather at $1.88 to $2.95 a pair. Americans who find it useless to grumble at paying from $6 to $12 a pair would be interested to know how England does it." The answer is simple enough. England makes more shoes and less money.—Columbia State.

HAIG'S REPORT SHOWS GREAT PROGRESS MADE IN DRIVE

The report from Field Marshal Haig's headquarters last night on the British drive in the Cambrai sector reads: "Important progress was again made west and southwest of Cambrai, though rain has fallen continuously. Reinforcements which the enemy hurried up to the battle field to oppose our advance have been driven out of a further series of villages and other fortified positions and many additional prisoners have been taken. The tanks have again given great assistance to the advance. On our right we made progress in the direction of Crevecoeur Sur L'Escaut. Northeast of Masnières we captured the enemy's double line of trenches on the east bank of the Scheldt canal. Sharp fighting occurred in this neighborhood and hostile counter-attacks were driven on. North of Maroing the village of Noyelles Sur L'Escaut was captured early in the morning. Here also heavy fighting occurred and the hostile counter attacks were successfully repulsed. During the morning Scottish troops moving northeast from Flesqueres captured the German defensive lines southeast of Cantaining, and the village itself, together with 500 prisoners. Later in the day they continued their advance and established themselves in positions more than five miles behind the former German front lines. North of Anneux West Riding battalions have been engaged with the enemy south and southwest of Boulou wood. Further west Ulster regiments crossed the Bapaume-Cambrai road and entered Moeuvres. During the day strong hostile counter-attacks against our new positions in the neighborhood of Bullecourt have been defeated. The number of prisoners who have passed through our collecting stations exceed 8,000, including 180 officers. The number of guns captured has not yet been ascertained."

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY An Ambition and a Record THE needs of the South are identical with the needs of the Southern Railway's growth and success of one means the upbuilding of the other. The Southern Railway asks no favors—no special privileges not accorded to others. The ambition of the Southern Railway Company is to see that unity of interest that is born of co-operation between the public and the railroads; to see perfected that fair and frank policy in the management of railroads which invites the confidence of governmental agencies; to realize that liberality of treatment which will enable it to obtain the additional capital needed for the acquisition of better and enlarged facilities incident to the demand for increased and better service; and, finally— To take its niche in the body politic of the South alongside of other great industries, with no more, but with equal liberties, equal rights and equal opportunities. "The Southern Serves the South."
