New Order Given Cowards.

"The Order of the Running Hare" is a new mock decoration which is conferred by the Royal Belgian national committee upon their well-to-do compatriots of military age, who, after fleeing from the German invader, have since preferred safety and ease abroad to the hardships of trench life on the Yser. Many Belgians in neutral countries have received such an order, which consists of a medal showing a flying hare, with an uncomplimentary inscription. It is accompanied by an artistically illuminated charter, by which "We, King of the Tribe of Cowards, bestow this decoration upon our trusty and well-beloved friend, on his attack of the old shivers, which is hereby certified as incurable."

What Then?
"Here's a doctor says you shouldn't eat when you're worried."
"But suppose you are continually worried for fear you won't be able to get anything to eat?"

A Peace Appetite.
Mrs. Jones—As a patriotic duty we should eat the perishable things.
Mrs. Nelson—Everything is perishable when Jack sits down at the table.

Its Effect.
"What on earth is Amelia in such a stew about and fussing so?"
"She's afraid she'll be late to the meeting of the Don't Worry club."

ARMY SERVICE RIBBONS

Each Stands for Medal Bearer May Wear

Official Bulletin.
The little strips of parti-colored ribbons worn on the left breast, each of a prescribed length of one and three-eighths inches are army service ribbons, each ribbon having its own particular significance. The stripes are symbols standing for medals which the bearer is entitled to wear. There are ten of these honors recognized in the army. Two are medals of honor, one a certificate of merit, and the others are badges of historic campaigns. Obviously it would be impossible for possessor to wear his medals and badges on his service-uniform and so he wears the little ribbons instead. The ribbons are as follows:

Congressional Medal of Honor—White stars on a field of light blue silk. This medal is awarded only by congress for some particular deed of gallantry in action. It is the most coveted of all army honors and is the most difficult badge in the world to obtain.

Certificate of Merit Badge—Two red, white and blue bands separated by a thin band of white, the blue being outermost in each instance. This honor is conferred by the president.

Philippines Congressional Medal—Blue band in center, flanked by stripes of white, red, white and blue, the blue being on the outermost edges of the ribbon. This ribbon is worn by the men who stayed in the service after the Spanish-American war to put down the insurrection in the Philippines.

Civil War—Equal size bands of blue and gray.

Indian Wars—Bright red, with narrow edges of deeper red.

Spanish Campaign—Alternating stripes of yellow and blue. This is the most familiar of all campaign ribbons.

Philippine Campaign—Blue band in center, flanked by narrower bands of red; blue edges.

Cuban Occupation (time of Spanish war and several years after)—Blue in center, flanked by narrow yellow stripes, then broad red stripes, and, finally, blue borders.

Cuban pacification (indicating service in Cuba during the period 1906-09 when the United States straightened our governmental affairs for the new republic)—Broad olive drab center, flanked by three narrow stripes of red, white and blue, the red on the outermost edge.

China campaign (indicating service on the march to Peking)—Broad band of yellow, with narrow borders of blue.

Ribbons for gallantry in action are worn farthest to the left, followed by campaign ribbons in chronological order.

Bevo

A BEVERAGE

Bevo is a great favorite in the Army Canteens, where none but pure, soft drinks may be sold. After drill or march, you are sure to see a long line of hot and dusty-throated soldier boys making a bee line for Bevo. They know that there lies complete satisfaction, full refreshment and pure wholesomeness.

At home or abroad—at work or play—between meals or with meals, you will appreciate what we have done for you in making this triumph in soft drinks. You will find Bevo at inns, restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, picnic grounds, baseball parks, soda fountains, dining cars, in the navy, at canteens, at mobilization camps and other places where refreshing beverages are sold.

Bevo—the all-year-round soft drink

Guard against substitutes. Have the bottle opened in front of you, first seeing that the seal is unbroken and that the crown top bears the Fox. Sold in bottles only, and bottled exclusively by

AMUSEMENTS

PEARL WHITE AT PASTIME TODAY

The following is a short synopsis of the 16th chapter of the "Fatal Ring", featuring your favorite star, which will be shown at the Pastime this afternoon and tonight.

This episode has two very big thrills. The first is when Pearl is thrown by Carslake and his adherents into quicksand and narrowly escape death. The other is at the end of the story when after many fights and much fast action, she takes refuge under a pile of driver without realizing that the immense weight of the hammer is just above her. As the picture fades out, Carslake pulls the lever and the huge piece of iron begins to fall.

SPECIAL AT HUB SATURDAY

The special attraction at the Hub Theatre Saturday will be "William Gourtenay and Marguerite Snow in "Hunting the Hawk" a Gold Rooster play in five parts. The following is the story:

Those who saw William Court-enay in "Kick In" considered it not only one of the best roles accorded him, but one of the best photoplays of its sort produced. Here he is again in a criminal mystery story, in the character of Mr. Desselway, whose identity is unknown until the very end. Opposite him is Margaret Snow, leading woman also for George Cohan in his first appearance on the screen. Such principal players, a splendid supporting cast and a story that is tantalizing in its inscrutability until the very end make an unusually attractive entertainment.
