TRY THIS FOR YOUR COLD

What You Need is this Sensible and Effective Remedy, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey At Once

As a cold is only dangerous when neglected, the prompt use of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will break up and prevent the weakening cough from becoming chronic.

This happy combination of balsam and healing agents soon overcomes the cold germs, loosens the phlegm, relieves congestion and quickly relieves the cold. Search as you will, you will not find a better remedy than Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. Not only recent or lingering coughs, but grippe, bronchitis, or asthma are helped toward speedy recovery by its proper use.

Children take it without coaxing and wise mothers have it handy for dangerous croup. Fear this ad out and take it to your druggist with 25c and he will give you the genuine Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey.

AT PASTIME WEDNESDAY

The special attraction at the Pastime Wednesday, Dec. 5 will be "The Silence Sellers" a Metro Wonder Play in five parts. From the story by Blair Hall, featuring the stately, emotional Mme. Petrova and an excellent cast, including Mahlon Hamilton, Violet Reed and Wyndham Standing.

Being a daughter of a very rich man often lead one into all sorts of unpleasant situations, as "Laura Sutphen" found out to her sorrow when her car broke down in a heavy rain storm and she sought shelter at the deserted home of a friend. A town paper that makes a practice of publishing spicy tales about various members of society compromises with the girl for a favor. Said favor leads to trouble when a blackmailing foreign agent tries to levy his price on a foolish butterfly of society who had yielded to his advances.

AT PASTIME TODAY

The special attraction at the Pastime today will be "The Flower of Faith," a Gold Eagle feature in five parts released by Pathe. Featuring Jane Grey.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

These are economical days and thus the Ford car becomes a more intense necessity than ever before because by reason of its universal service it has become a large part in the "business of living," besides, it takes less money for operation and maintenance than any other motor car. That this is not an idle boast is proven by the fact that there are more than two million Fords in daily service. More conclusive evidence of your need of a Ford car could not be given. Here it is, a daily necessity that is a daily economy. A variety of bodies to meet the variety of demand—from the "snappy" Runabout to the re-luxe Sedan—and buy when you can get delivery, for production is behind the demand all the time. Place your order at once.

The dealer named below will give your order prompt attention and efficient "after service."

Make the acquaintance of this Ford dealer.
