

(AFTER A ZEPPELIN RAID)
 "—but Daddy, mother didn't do anything wrong!"

(From "Raemaker's Cartoons" published by The Century Co.)

That's what a little girl said to her father after one of the Huns' Zeppelin Raids.

The little girl was sitting on her father's knee in a London Hospital.

The dead body of mother was on a cot beside them.

And oh, how that little girl loved that mother!

If the Huns get the chance, they will drop bombs on the homes in your town.

If the Huns get the chance, they will drop bombs on the school houses of your town.

If the Huns get the chance, they will drop bombs that will kill defenseless women and children, and among the defenseless women and children may be your mother or your little boy or little girl.

"But the Huns will never get to this town," you say

You are right, they won't get there if you do your share—if you buy your share of LIBERTY BONDS.

No one can tell you what your share may be, but you know.

You know how many Bonds you can and should buy

Are you buying your share? Are you telling your friends you have bought the Bonds you ought to buy? Are you asking your friends to buy Bonds?

Are you doing these things, or are you apologizing in your thoughts and words for what you haven't done?

Are you saying "I am going to" or "I have"

To buy LIBERTY BONDS is your duty to the World, America, your home, your Mother, your Children, Yourself.

"—but, Daddy, mother didn't do anything wrong"

might. They first appealed to the army, later writers bringing the doctrine of the super-man and the super-nation before the whole German people, who endorsed it. They carried the German speaking world back to Mohammedanism. These writers described the decadence of England, referred to the French as weak and powerless, and preached the greatness of future Germany. The shot at Serajevo was not the cause of the war; it was the pretext.

Then this great super-nation strangled Belgium and caused all the world to shudder. That act prevented Americans from being neutral in feeling. Then Germany interfered with our commerce, attacked our right to trade. Germany had sold munitions to Spain and to the Boers, but it was wrong for the United States to sell to England and France—though it was not wrong to sell to Germany. Americans are not in the fight for humanitarian and commercial reasons alone. They are in it for political reasons too. Our soil has been invaded, for our ships are the same as our soil. He referred to the diabolical acts of the German ambassador and his spies and told how they had abused the hospitality of the United States. Giving a fourth reason for our participation in the war, Dr. Clark said he verily believed that Jesus himself would fight on the side of the allies if he were on earth.

The speaker went to college at Princeton and knew Woodrow Wilson. He told of an incident in the president's life there that showed his patience and firmness and proved that he was no coward. He was long-suffering and exhibited the same quality at Princeton that later made him the foremost figure of the world. This American army, the grand chancellor said, will never sound the retreat. It is in the war to win and the speaker urged every man, woman and child to stand back of it by buying bonds and stamps.

Dr. Clark received a tremendous ovation at the conclusion of his address, a fragmentary report of which cannot do it partial justice.

Mr. Hugh M. Miller, who is just out of the base hospital at Camp Sevier, has been appointed sergeant in the quartermasters' corps, with which he has been serving most of the time since going to camp. He has been seriously ill, but his friends will be glad to know that he is well again.

HICKORY RESIDENT HAS AWFUL EXPERIENCE

"I was twice confined in hospitals, in the last one nothing but gruel water was injected into me 4 times a day, as my stomach would not retain any food. I suffered terribly; was reduced to a skeleton. My folks saw an ad of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it has surely saved my life. I weigh 180 lbs. now." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. All druggists.

ENJOYED VIOLIN CONCERT

Granite Falls people last night turned out in force to hear Mr. Frederick McMurray, the violinist, and the program was enjoyed thoroughly.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Certificate of Dissolution. To All to Whom These Presents May Come—Greeting:

Whereas, it appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the Farmers Union Co-operative Merchandise and Hardware Company, a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated in the town of Hickory, County of Catawba, State of North Carolina (L. P. Huffmaier being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served), has complied with the requirements of Chapter 21, Revision of 1905, entitled "Corporations," preliminary to the issuance of this Certificate of Dissolution;

Now, therefore, I, J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 11th day of March, 1918, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the record of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal at Raleigh, this 11th day of March, A. D., 1918.
 (SEAL) J. BRYAN GRIMES, Secretary of State.

AT PASTIME TODAY

Fatty Arbuckle will be at the Pastime today in a two reel comedy "Out West." Playing the reformer in a film is a rather new role for Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, but he can do it—oh, yes he can and he does. But of course, he hadn't counted on being pursued by a band of red-skins, or of being shot up by the bad man of Mad Dog Gulch. However, had there been no terrors for Fatty, with the help of a little Salvation Army girl he starts to clean up the town. Built for laughing purposes only. Another one of those interesting Lincoln pictures will also be on the program today. "My Father:" A

WHY AMERICANS SHOULD SUPPORT THEIR COUNTRY

Patrons of Hickory Post Office, Hickory, North Carolina. Dear Friends:

For more than fifty years I have enjoyed the unflinching protection of my government. Never, until this crisis, has it asked of me a favor. If I heed not the call, I stand condemned as a selfish ingrate. Other men, by the hundred thousand, are fighting and facing death, that I may be safe. If I shirk my plain duty to aid them as best I can, I am not worth saving.

I have always professed to love my country. If, in this hour of opportunity, I fail to square the deed with the word, my neighbors may justly brand me as a four-flusher and a hypocrite.

In this awful death-grapple between tyranny and liberty, between might and right, between the powers of darkness and the legions of light, other men, having no more at stake than I have, fearless and uncomplaining, are "going across." If I do not "come across" in a reasonably decent measure, I may expect now and hereafter to be pilloried as a "slacker" one hundred per centum plus.

If I did not occasionally buy a

Thrift Stamp or a War Savings Stamp, I would be unwilling to see any man or woman who had not peace, had ever heard me speak of my loyalty to the flag or the nation to the principles and maxims that derive their justness from the consent of the governed.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MARTIN

The funeral of Mrs. Dora E. Haley Martin was held at the home of her son, Mr. Robert Martin, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. W. Rowe and internment was at the burial ground. Mrs. Martin was somewhat unwell. The funeral on which she died she had made a visit to the home of Mrs. Martin who also died in the same way and her return to her own home was away in just a few days. A large number of friends and relatives were in attendance at the funeral. Mrs. Martin was 70 years of age. Her age was 70 years, 10 months and ten days.
