Local and Personal

Mr. Luther Long of Newton was a Hickory visitor yesterday.

Miss Margaret Rankin of Mooresville is the guest of Mrs. R. A. Grimes.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church will meet Friday evening at 8 o'clock with Miss Vera Gibbs.

Mrs. C. C. Bost has received the second letter this week from her son Mr. Cecil T. Bost, in which he says that he has shipped a German helmet picked up in the Chateau Thierry battle field, together with a cigar lighter. He was expecting to be transferred to the active front at once.

Miss Alia Pruitt was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Book Review Club with all the members present and Miss Adelyn McCombs as a welcome visitor. The book for the afternoon was "Kitty Canary" by Kate Langley Boshier. Miss Pruitt read a most interesting letter from the author. After a most enjoyable afternoon the guests were served dainty refreshments. The next meeting will be with Miss Lillian Field October 16.

METHODIST PHILATHEAS

We had an unusual treat Sunday. Mr. M. W. Brabham, Y. M. C. A. secretary at Fort Caswell, gave us a most interesting and helpful talk on "Helps and Hindrances of Methodism." We regret so much that a single member was absent. A number of visitors was another welcome attraction and we hope they will come again. We are glad indeed to have Miss Irene Sherrill back in the class.

Miss Lily Hahn extends a cordial invitation to the class to meet with her Friday night for the purpose of filling scrap books for the sick soldiers. This is a pleasure and a privilege that we cannot afford to ignore. Let everyone who can possibly attend, do so.

Mothers who have small children are urged to attend church and let members of our class care for the babies during service. It will be a pleasure.

We will have another interesting speaker next Sunday. Be sure to be there.

WHAT HE NOTED ABROAD

President J. G. Cehurman of Connel University in New York Times.

"While the presence of from one to two million American soldiers in France was certainly an inspiring spectacle, the question remained whether these young men, fresh from rural and urban life and industry and unskilled in war could stand against the veterans of the military nations of Europe.

"That question was answered at the battle of Chateau Thierry and the advance from the Marne to the Vesle. The effect was electric. It was a revelation to France and to the world of the valor, dash and fighting quality, and military effectiveness of the new American army. And the reflex effect on the spirit and morale of our European allies cannot be overestimated.

"Indeed," exclaimed Dr. Schurman, "it is impossible for any one who was not in England or France at the time to form any conception of the way in which that fight at Chateau Thierry stimulated, encouraged and inspired the armies and civilian population of those countries.

"After four years of war all the belligerents can see the end of their reserves of men and materials of war. Hence, the augmentation of the allied armies and the multiplication of their supplies of every kind must be more and more devolved upon America. In this sense, America is called upon to win the war. And I have not met in Europe either an American officer or soldier who does not recognize that the only way of winning the war is a military decision by force.

"They are all of the opinion that Germany must be whipped to her knees. Any other settlement would leave our civilization at the mercy of the brutal, egotistic and autocratic militarism, which the Hohenzollerns have enthroned in Germany."

COMPLETE SURVEY OF EVERY NURSE IN LAND

In response to a recent appeal from the government for a complete survey or census of all women who can render nursing aid to civil and military populations of this country and its allies, the southern division of the American Red Cross, through its recently appointed manager, Mr. Eugene Black of Atlanta, has planned a complete organization to procure this information as soon as possible, and the first step in this direction is the appointment by Mr. Black of Mr. Frank E. Callaway as division supervisor of the nursing survey. Under the direction of Mr. Callaway and in close cooperation with the division bureau of nursing and the chapter committees already established, the work of locating every woman qualified for nursing in any way will be immediately begun in the southern division.

The department of nursing of the American Red Cross up to August 1918 had transferred 10,000 nurses to the surgeon general of the army. The quota required by January 1919 is 25,000.

The southern division has received full instructions from national headquarters at Washington in regard to the methods of carrying on this work and the full cooperation of the public is earnestly solicited in securing lists of nurses. Individuals, such as physicians, clergymen, pharmacists, etc., may each help in furnishing to the local Red Cross chapter the names of nurses in their individual localities, while nurses' clubs, organizations of nurses for registration, hospitals, women's clubs, health societies, boards of health and charity organizations of all kinds are also sources from which information as to nurses in the various territories may be located.

It is most necessary to procure this information as soon as possible, hence the fullest cooperation from every source is earnestly desired and the division supervisor will greatly appreciate any information which may be sent him. Questionnaires will be furnished to nurses and a card index will be compiled from these blanks so that at the completion of the survey it is hoped that the name of every woman in the United States who is fitted for nursing, whether she is at present or has recently been engaged in this work, will be known and the particular fitness of each one will also be fully understood.

TRY IT! SUBSTITUTE FOR NASTY CALOMEL

Starts your liver without making you sick and can not salivate.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place. "Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.
