"While government regulation of the carriers is expanded to the most ainute details," he said, "the employes are left to exercise their own sweet will, which they often do in a most autocratic way. Wage demands have absorbed already the $1,000,000,000 rate increase, which was granted by the director general," he said.

"in view of the reckless extravagance of the government in all its business," Mr. Robinson said, "the demand for railroad economy was ridiculous." He denounced the claim of $18,000,000 saved in the first year as
