By the Associated Press Shanghai, Jan. 20.—While Americans have been buying British pound sterling in New York for $3.70 or less. Americans here have been paying $160 in American gold for 76 Mexican dollars which are in current use here. This unprecedented advance in the rate of exchange in Shanghai has been due to the acute rise in the price of silver. Probably no country in the world has been more sharply affected of exchange, the foreign trade through this city, China's most principal commercial center, became more or less disorganized. Exporters ceased to look for new business and confined their activities wholly to filling old contracts from the terms of which they would have been glad to escape. Shanghai bankers held frequent conferences day and night in an effort to determine what might be done to stabilize the exchange rates. For one day all but one of the lead-New Ark, N. J., Jan. 21.—Abolition ing banks in the city deckined to is-
