WILSON DID NOT ASSERT AMERICA WOULD GET OUT

White House Corrects Interpretation Placed in Wilson's Note to Allied Premiers Regarding Fiume Settlement--Would Have Nothing to Do With Adriatic

By the Associated Press
Washington, Feb. 16.—President Wilson, it was learned today at the white house, did not say in his note to the allied premiers regarding the Fiume question, that the United States would no longer be able to remain itself in European affairs if the Adriatic question was settled according to the views of allied premiers.

ONE REASON WHY HINDENBURG WANTED

By the Associated Press
London, Feb. 16.—The German press, as reported in an Exchange Telegram dispatch to Copenhagen, declares that Field Marshal Hindenburg is wanted by the allies for his declaration: "The most cruel war is the most humane, because it leads to an end, and because of his responsibility for the destruction of property during the German retreat."

SECOND COLDEST PEACE TREATY IS NO BASIS FOR CHARGE OF SECRET AGREEMENT

WAVE STRIKES HICKORY AGAIN

Accompanied by a howling wind, on which was fastened whiskers that appeared to have been fashioned from snow-clad mountains, the temperature ran down to 20 degrees above zero Sunday morning, remained about 30 degrees most of the day, and proceeded to fall to 10 degrees during the night. Thanks awfully for the falling of the wind during the night. Otherwise Sunday night would have seemed 10 or 15 degrees below. During the early morning hours, however, the wind again rose to some occasion and swept around corners and tickled one's ears, chin and face and almost fetched tears.

By the Associated Press
Washington, Feb. 16.—With ratification or rejection depending almost wholly on whether 61 senators can reach an agreement on reservations to article 10 of the League of Nations covenant, the peace treaty today drew nearer to a final opinion. Opinion differed as to the possibility of a compromise on this issue, but as to the other points of dispute, belief was general that no serious objections would be found to them.

INTERN FORMER EMPEROR IN HOLLAND

By the Associated Press
The Hague, Feb. 16.—The allied note to Holland with regard to the extradition of the former German emperor, reverses the former demands for his surrender and only asks for his internment, with the suggestion that the former German monarch be sent to one of the Dutch east India islands for safe keeping.

WILSON INFORMS SENATE BRITISH INTERESTS NOT CONCERNED IN SALE OF FORMER GERMAN LINERS BY SHIPPING BOARD--MANY BIDDERS APPEAR, BUT SALE IS CONDITIONAL

By the Associated Press
Washington, Feb. 16.—Despite protests voiced in the senate and elsewhere and court proceedings designed to stay the action, the shipping board today received bids for the 30 former German liners.

TREATED AS SENSATION

By the Associated Press
London, Feb. 16.—Up to noon today the reality of the allied supreme council to President Wilson's note relative to Adriatic compromise had not been dispatched.

AUTO BANDIT KILLED NEAR ROCKINGHAM

By the Associated Press
Amsterdam, Sunday, Feb. 16.—A central communist propaganda bureau will be established in Mexico, according to a resolution passed at a secret international communist conference held here early in September, according to a local newspaper. The newspaper adds that the initiative was taken by an American delegate to the conference.

TO ESTABLISH RED BUREAU IN MEXICO

By the Associated Press
Amsterdam, Sunday, Feb. 16.—A central communist propaganda bureau will be established in Mexico, according to a resolution passed at a secret international communist conference held here early in September, according to a local newspaper. The newspaper adds that the initiative was taken by an American delegate to the conference.

POLLARD IS NAMED ON FEDERAL BOARD

By the Associated Press
Washington, Feb. 16.—John Garland Pollard of Virginia has been selected by President Wilson as a member of the federal trade commission.

ALLIES STAND PAT

By the Associated Press
Paris, Feb. 16.—Prompt objection to President Wilson's rejection of the compromise agreement by which England, France and Italy hoped to settle the Jugo-Slavia question relative to the future status of the eastern coast of the Adriatic is reported in the Echo de Paris.

It is likely that the celebration of Thrift stamp week in the schools will culminate on Friday, March 5, with an entertainment featuring the number of Thrift stamps each child has bought during the week and the presentation of a program based on those prepared by the Treasury department for this purpose.

Markets

COTTON
By the Associated Press
New York, Feb. 16.—The continued strength of Liverpool led to further advances in the cotton market at the opening here today. First prices were four to 34 points higher. Sentiment was more or less unsettled by the early irregularity and easier tone of foreign exchange, however, and the advance met realization by recent buyers which caused reactions right after the call.

READING "RED" LITERATURE IN PUBLIC BAD MEDICINE

New York, Feb. 16.—Reading "red" literature in public, even in the Russian language, is no longer safe in New York. Jacob Wausonless was perusing a pamphlet entitled "What is Anarchy?" in an East Side restaurant when detectives who were born in Russia saw him. They followed him home, arrested him and sent him to Ellis Island to await deportation proceedings. They said he was one of those for whom deportation warrants had been issued by the bureau of immigration.

New York, Feb. 16.—William Fox, the moving picture and theatrical man said that he had received a cable message from M. Desamps, manager of the French night champion, according to a cable for Carpenter to engage in a world's championship contest with Jack Dempsey in America on July 4 or Labor day.

Madrid, Feb. 16.—El Inmarrcal in an editorial today draws attention to the serious shortage of houses in Madrid which is causing much inconvenience to residents and visitors and a great increase in rents. The newspapers say the situation is daily growing worse, and suggest a municipal committee to make a housing plan in the suburbs. At present there are 300 applicants for every vacant apartment and large premiums are offered tenants to give up their homes.

LESS COTTON IN SOUTH THIS YEAR

By the Associated Press
Washington, Feb. 16.—An increase of acreage in cotton this year is out of the question, Dr. Bradford Kinnapp, who recently resigned, and became dean of the Arkansas University, says. "The experiences of 1919 ought to teach southern cotton farmers that they cannot handle a large acreage with their present supply of labor; the labor is not there."
