

VALUE

It's not extravagance to put your money into items or ornaments that have imperishable value. It's your duty to look your best—It's thrift to invest your money in jewels of convertible value and elegance.

SOCIETY

With Mrs. Allen.
The Woman's Missionary Society of Corinth Reformed church met Monday afternoon with Mrs. J. F. Allen. Seventeen members were present. After the usual business, Mrs. L. F. Abernethy, who was a delegate to the Woman's Missionary Society of North Carolina Classis at China Grove-Landis last week, gave a very interesting account of the meeting. Mrs. C. C. Bost gave the second reading from "A Crusade of Compassion for the Healing of the Nation" and Mrs. C. H. Geitner read a chapter from "Mook," a true story of a Chinese boy. The mission study period, "Yehoker," the subject, concluded the program.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Joe Abernethy, May 3.

WITH MRS. HENRY.
Mrs. R. G. Henry was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the Book Review Club at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Johnston. Spring flowers were used lavishly in the living room and presented an attractive appearance. As the hostess had not selected a book the usual program was dispensed with and the time given over current events. An appetizing two course luncheon was served before the club adjourned to meet next with Miss Gertrude Finger.

Mr. George S. Watson has returned from a business trip to Salisbury.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sledge left this morning for Greensboro to attend the recital tonight at the Greensboro Female College of their niece, Miss Louise Elliott. Miss Elliott finishes in piano. Mrs. Henry Elliott of Catawba, is also attending the recital.

Rev. W. W. Rowe spent yesterday in Lexington in conference with Mr. P. Hedrick, State director of the Forward Movement of the Reformed Church.

Chautauqua guarantors are expected to remember that they may secure their tickets Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce.

Sheriff Isenhour will be at the city manager's office Saturday from 1 to 5 with the Hickory township tax books. As all polls must be paid by May 1, those in arrears would do well to attend to this matter Saturday if they expect to vote in November.

Mrs. A. A. Whitener and sons, Manly and Julian, who attended the musical recital of Miss Miriam Whitener at Flora McDonald College, Monday evening, have returned home.

Miss Myrtle Wagner is indisposed at her home on Twelfth avenue. Friends will regret to learn.

Mrs. H. S. Leonard and little daughter, Mary, are spending several days in Granite Falls with relatives and friends.

Mrs. P. A. Sigmon has returned from a visit to relatives in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. A. F. Wagner and little Miss Barbara Rector Wagner, who spent several days in Drexel with Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Rector, have returned home.

Mr. Clyde left this morning for Asheville to enter a hospital for treatment.

PLANT THIS SPRING

By planting this spring you save a whole season's growth. Yes, you can still plant this spring, IF. It so happens that we have several car loads of stock, personally selected, coming in now soon, and you can plant it and make it live just as good as we can; if it is too late as some might think, then where would we be? The other day, just for fun, we counted up the list of stock we expect to plant out between now and end of the month, and the total was over ninety thousand plants, of various sorts. Some of this stock is already large enough to go to your lawn and show that it is there this summer; others of the plants are very small and shall have to be nursed along for several years. And by the way, this stock has been selected from various places, some of it coming from Texas, Florida, Alabama, Tennessee, the North Carolina mountains, from Virginia, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. We just took the pick. But it took work to get it all coming here, and it is for your benefit and pleasure. Phone 213-L, or 213-J if no answer.

Clothes That Give You Lasting Service

That's The Economy in Buying a Kirschbaum Suit

Real clothes economy is just this: Buy good clothes—then get full service out of them. Be sure the fabrics are all-wool. Be sure the inner structure is of high grade linen canvas and haircloth. Be sure the shapeliness is the result of honest, stitch-by-stitch tailoring—not of mere surface pressing.

Kirschbaum suits are clothes of this character. They look better, last longer and are therefore most economical.

Spring Styles at $40. to $65.
