AN ELABORATION.

To the Editor of The Record: Under the caption, Missouri Synod Has Good Meeting, in issue of the 12th, is a paragraph by Rev. Menner that for truth's sake needs elaborating. It reads as follows: "The divorce question was also brought out. The Bible admits of only one cause for divorce, and that is when husband or wife becomes guilty of the sin of adultery, for then the marriage vow is already broken." This statement we heartily approve; for it is founded upon God's Holy Word. It is stamped with the Divine criterion, "it is written." But we have difficulty with his next statement, namely, "A second cause which in reality is the same as the first, is when one party to the marriage contract breaks that vow by wilfully deserting the other, desertion being considered consummated when one party leaves the other with the intention never to return." Now, the brother is speaking, ex cathedra, and his message is presumed to have a scriptural foundation. Now is this cause the same as the first? If so, it, too, has the Divine criterion, "it is written." But we fail to find where it is written either literally or substantially. Will the brother cite the scripture in question?

Wilful and permanent desertion is no doubt a very grievous offense, but, due to the infinite fickleness of the human mind, who, save Almighty God, would be competent to pass upon this offense? Does this brother feel competent to pass upon it? I know his view harmonizes with the Civil Law in many states, but he is not an advocate of the Divine Law, and where does the Divine Law dissolve the holy estate of matrimony for any cause whatever save that of adultery?

Our statistics reveal to us the appalling fact that sixty millions of America's citizenship are Infidels, and if this fact is not kept constantly in mind, the Church will fail to realize the gravity of the situation that confronts her. America never had a more urgent call to save her soul than she has today. The heaven of Christian truth must work as it has never worked to save America; for the heaven of Satan was never more active than now in the destruction of human souls. To my mind, there is no nearer approach to playing with the fires of hell than to tamper with Almighty God's unalterable law which he laid down for the government and protection of the holy bond of matrimony.

What I found out about overalls

"I USED to think that it didn't matter much what sort of overalls I bought. They all seemed the same to me.

"Sometimes they wore well and sometimes they didn't. Likely as not they would pull and bind. I thought that it was all luck—that you couldn't help some overalls being good and others bad.

"Then one day I got a pair that was big and roomy and comfortable. I noticed that they looked right, too. They fitted easy all the time I had them and they wore like iron. Next time I bought a pair like them—and they were just as good.

"The name of those overalls is Blue Buckles. I always buy them now, because I know they'll give me good service."

"I've tried a lot of overalls, but of all I've worn, give me Blue Buckles every time. They always give long wear."
