Mr. Bob Parker of Birmingham, Ala., is the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Henry Ricard, Jr.

With Mrs. Shuford

Mrs. W. J. Shuford was hostess this week to the Wednesday Afternoon Book Club. Eight members were present at this meeting. The book for the afternoon was, "Branding Iron," by Mrs. Katherine Burt. The hostess read a most interesting letter from Mrs. Burt. New officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: Mrs. J. L. Riddle, president; and Mrs. Ed Menzies secretary. At the close of this enjoyable meeting an elegant two course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Yoder Hostess

Mrs. George Yoder beautifully entertained the Limited Bridge Club on Tuesday afternoon. The home was decorated with a profusion of spring flowers. Six tables were attractively arranged for the game, table prizes for the highest score were won by Miss Julia Wheeler, Mrs. Wesley Martin, Mrs. Geo. Hutton, Miss Virginia Allen, Mrs. Blackwelder and Mrs. Bolick.

A delectable two course luncheon was served. Mrs. Yoder's guests were: Mesdames E. B. Cline, Walker Lyerly, A. A. Shuford, Jr., Blacklock, Frank Henderson, John Gilley, E. B. Jones, T. C. Blackburn, Ed Shuford, W. N. Martin, C. M. Sherrill, Blackwelder, H. C. Lutz, S. H. Farabee, E. A. Taylor, Loy Bolick, Fred Abernethy, Geo. Hutton, H. C. Menzies, J. L. Riddle, Misses Amy Wheeler, Emily Wheeler and Virginia Allen.

The Travelers' Club

Thursday afternoon a full attendance of the Travelers' Club enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. C. M. Shuford. Miss A. McComb gave a clear presentation of the first topic: "Labor Unions: Their Growth and Influence." Then Mrs. G. N. Hutton showed with effect in the next paper: "The Definitions and Principles of Socialism. Anarchism, Communism, Bolshevism and its Relation to Labor, Capital and Wealth." Mrs. Walker Lyerly ended the program with her subject: "The Burden of Wealth and the Responsibility of Leisure," in which many fine ideas were brought out. Current events then followed, and one of the most interesting facts was that Winston-Salem is the largest town in North Carolina. Of great interest was the hearing of this year's program of the Book Club of Wilson, N. C.

Angel cake and ice cream with coffee and bon bons were served before adjourning.

The next meeting will be April 22, with Mrs. J. L. Gilley.

CITY CELEBRATES ITS TAKING FIRST PLACE IN THE STATE

Winston-Salem, April 15.—Winston-Salem last night celebrated its formal introduction by the federal census director to the world as "North Carolina's King City." With the sounding of the fire alarm, signaling "48," the "great noise" started with the blowing of factory whistles, ringing of bells, sounding of horns, sounding of bugle calls by boy scouts and music by the scout drum corps. A great bonfire lighted on the square shed a glorious light over a multitude of jovous people. Following the exercises at the square a torchlight procession wound its way through the streets of the center of the city.

Some of the city's achievements are briefly stated as follows, indicating the developments of the city during the past 10 years; first figures being for 1939, second for 1929:

Population, 22,700—48,395; manufactured products, $13,778,000—$250,000,000; value manufactured products per capita, $5,000; capital invested, $12,856,283—$75,000,000; paid tobacco planters, $2,399,772.85—$16,206,806.37; paid internal revenue, $3,139,391.19—$72,061,099.23; customs, $7,032,956.61 in 1919; taxable values, $4,169,362—$27,169,000.

HOW SOLDIERS DISPERSED ATTACKS

"For two years my stomach trouble was very bad, my doctor had to inject morphine on several occasions when I was stricken with these attacks. Since taking 4 bottles of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy I have been entirely well and am serving in the artillery, having been pronounced in perfect health by government physicians." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

A "CONSTRUCTIVE" SUNDAY.

The Churchman.
What has the church to offer for a sunny Sunday afternoon? Nothing but a closed office from 1 o'clock on to many a village and city. Nothing takes place within the edifice or outside of it to attract the passer-by. The lawn or the porch that might be utilized for a gospel meeting or a community musical service is deserted. Most of the church people are following their own bent, doing the things that interest them. A few are playing tennis or golf. Many are taking long automobile rides.

If church people insist that no "silly" games shall be played on Sunday afternoon, they are all the more under obligation to find out what the boys, young men and young women are doing, and put within their reach opportunities that will interest and elevate them. On the other hand, those church people who sanction baseball in the interests of fairness and as a barrier against a wholly commercialized Sunday school, as in Holyoke, see to it that the games are properly supervised and that the resultant of more liberal legislation be not evaded or defeated.

The spirit that looks toward guidance and control calls for far more courage, self-sacrifice and persistence on the part of Christians than the attitude of protest and repression. It is much easier to vote aye with others when a resolution is passed by a religious body which goes on record in favor of the old-time Sabbath than it is to square one's own practices with that same Puritan Sabbath, or to help one's community toward a rational use of the day of rest and worship. But the church must act constructively. That ideal was splendidly championed by Rev. Austin W. Rice, of Wakefield, in his recent address before the Boston Congregational Club. An Iowa school teacher, writing to the Congregationalist, says: "Is not this a field for the specialized community worker, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. secretaries, the Campfire and Boy Scout leaders, and some new, perhaps, yet unnamed, leader whose work shall help to make the day one of joy and gladness?"

Here is common ground for those who have been conscientiously forced to take differing positions with regard to what the state should or should not permit on Sunday afternoon. The old New England Sabbath has broken down. Christians by their own altered practices have had some claim to do with breaking it down but the Christian Lord's day has not perished. It will not, it was made for man to benefit his physical, intellectual and spiritual life. It never ought never to be just like any other day in the week. Let us take hold together and make it for ourselves and others so far as we can influence them "a day of rest and gladness," a day of growth and service.

"CHECKERS" PICTURE A SENSATIONAL HIT

"Checkers," the spectacular picture made by William Fox, which opened at the Pastime Theatre yesterday is even better as a picture than it was as a stage play.

As a stage play, "Checkers" was a classic. There are many like spectacular scenes in the film, such as an actual race at one of the horse tracks, a thrilling train wreck in which a freight car containing several persons and a race horse tumbles into a river, and a sensational scene in New York's Chinatown.

If you missed seeing this big production yesterday you have one more chance to see it today.

HIGHS WIN AGAIN.

With a score of 4 to 3 in the ninth inning, Bolch, the home run king, lost the ball in left field and Startown forfeited the game to Hickory high school with a score of 4 to 3.

PLANT THIS SPRING

By planting this spring you save a whole season's growth. Yes, you can still plant this spring, IF. It so happens that we have several car loads of stock, personally selected, coming in now soon, and you can plant it and make it live just as good as we can; if it is too late as some might think, then where would we be? The other day, just for fun, we counted up the list of stock we expect to plant out between now and end of the month, and the total was over ninety thousand plants, of various sorts. Some of this stock is already large enough to go to your lawn and show that it is there this summer; others of the plants are very small and shall have to be nursed along for several years. And by the way, this stock has been selected from various places, some of it coming from Texas, Florida, Alabama, Tennessee, the North Carolina mountains, from Virginia, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. We just took the pick. But it took work to get it all coming here, and it is for your benefit and pleasure. Phone 213-L, or 213-J if no answer
