

HICKORY DAILY RECORD

V. NO. 107

HICKORY, N. C., WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 12, 1920

PRICE FIVE CENTS

ARRANZA LEFT CAPITAL OF MEXICO LAST FRIDAY

His Army of 4,000 Is Surrounded by Rebels Vera Cruz—Many Trains of Records and Supplies Precede Him—More Gains Reported by Revolutionary Forces

Washington, May 12.—President Wilson's cabinet members today received a confidential telegram from General Carranza, commander of the Mexican revolutionary forces, reporting that he had left Mexico City last Friday for Vera Cruz, according to the state department.

CONTINUE SECOND CLASS RATES YEAR

Washington, May 12.—Existing second class rates would be continued until July, 1921, under a bill favorably reported today by the house railroad committee.

SUB-COMMITTEE RULES PALMER IS DUE GEORGIA'S DELEGATES

Atlanta, May 12.—Resolutions declaring that Attorney General Palmer was a plurality of delegates to the Democratic state convention in the recent Georgia presidential primary and that under the rules of the primary he is entitled to the Georgia delegates to the national convention, were adopted here yesterday by the sub-committee of the state Democratic executive committee which authorized the primary.

RALEIGH MAN BUYS ANOTHER NEWSPAPER

New Bern, N. C., May 12.—The New Bern Sun Journal, daily newspaper, has been purchased by John A. Park, of Raleigh, from Owen G. Dunn. It was announced here today. Many improvements will be made in the paper.

CLANG OF MOTORMAN'S GONG COSTS AUCTIONEER $12,500

New York, May 12.—The sudden clang of a motorman's gong cost David Gerstein, an auctioneer, $12,500 in cash today. Gerstein, who had just withdrawn the money to invest in stock for the "going, going" and then gong. The money was gone. A peevish motorman's clang of his bell startled Gerstein into doing a hasty one step to safety and in his excitement the package containing the money was jerked from his overcoat pocket along with his hand. When Gerstein discovered his loss on reaching the sidewalk, he fell in a faint. He was revived at a hospital where he made known the cause of his collapse. Detectives are now searching for the person who picked up the package.

UNDERWOOD WINS OUT IN PRIMARY

Birmingham, Ala., May 12.—Incomplete official returns to the Birmingham News from 35 out of the 67 counties in the state early this afternoon gave Senator Underwood a lead of 6,750 votes over M. E. Musgrove, the union labor candidate, in the race for the United States senate. Estimates from 21 counties gave J. Thomas Hefflin a lead of about 5,000 over his nearest opponent, Emmett O'Neal.

SON RECEIVES FOREIGN DIPLOMATS

Greenfield, N. H., May 12.—President Wilson's son receiving foreign diplomats who have been waiting in his health in Washington, according to reports.

SPECIAL AGENT RESIGNS.

Washington, May 12.—Joseph M. Nye, chief special agent of the state department and for many years an active figure in the secret service of the federal government, has resigned because of a desire to accept better financial opportunities in private life. The resignation has been accepted by Secretary Colby, effective June 1.

MATERNITY BILL SPOILED BY WOMEN

By the Associated Press.
Washington, May 12.—Federal maternity aid was frankly sponsored today by the senate health committee today by several prominent women who urged adoption of the bill presented by Senator Sheppard, Democrat of Texas, providing for the appropriation of $1,000,000 through the state governments.

"I'm here as a monument to the will of physicians who cared me from kidney trouble with my first child," Mrs. Josephine Daniels said. "I'm here to send out a cry for the mothers of the country who often in their body and blood for the children they bring into the world."

PINAFORE PLEAS LARGE AUDIENCE

H. M. S. Pinafore, a good old ship, by the way, anchored here last night and again showed its olden qualities still appeal. It was a splendid company that held the decks and the staging was even better than could be expected, several voices being particularly good. The large audience enjoyed every minute of it. Tonight's attraction will be "Nothing but the Truth," a rollicking comedy that is declared to be better than "It Pays to Advertise," which triumphed here last season. Tomorrow night the Swiss Singers and Yellens Ralph Parlette, lecturer, will join the Chautauqua.

M'LONDON COMES HERE ON MAY 22

Rev. Baxter F. McLondon, of Bennettsville, "Cyclone" Mack, will be in his tent meetings in Hickory, Saturday, May 22, and continue them for one month under the auspices of several Hickory churches, according to a letter received from him by Rev. W. O. Goode. The evangelist will bring a party of workers with him and Prof. and Mrs. J. A. Carroll will be here a week ahead of the meeting to arrange for the services. Professor Carroll is advance man and soloist. The tent will seat 5,000 persons comfortably and Mr. McLondon is accustomed to having it filled. The seats are equipped with backs.

POLES CONTINUE TO MAKE ADVANCE

Warsaw, May 12.—Polish troops have struck a mighty blow at the Russian bolshevik front north of Kiev and have driven the enemy back along the Beresina river. An important Diester river crossing has been captured and seven losses have been inflicted on the soviet army. Fighting is now going on over a front of approximately 400 miles.

HOLY TRINITY LUTHERAN

15th Ave. and 15th Street.
Church services as usual today. The children's service and their report on the canvass at 7 P. M. The "church service" with short sermon on "The Duties of Church Officers and Church Workers," the hour to be 7:30 p. m. The pastor, Rev. C. R. W. Kegley, invites the public. Special baptismal service with a sermon on the Ascension next Sunday morning and on Sunday night a memorial missionary service to be held for Sergt. Huffman, Public invited.

RUSSIAN REDS TO SPARE POLES ALSO

London, May 12.—Russian red authorities have agreed to spare the lives of soldiers captured from General Denekine's army in southern Russia and those of other anti-soviet troops who in future may be taken prisoner. A note to this effect was today received by British officials in answer to appeals from Moscow.

Markets

COTTON.
By the Associated Press.
New York, May 12.—There was some selling on relatively easy cables and unfavorable reports from the goods trade at the opening of the cotton market today. First prices generally were 10 to 20 lower on all months. More May notices were reported in circulation and after opening at 40.25, May reacted to 40.05, but later months firmed up before the end of the first hour.

Weather

For North Carolina: West portion showers probably late tonight or Thursday. East portion fair to night, Thursday partly cloudy; showers in interior moderate winds, mostly southwest.

HINES TO LEAVE ON SPECIAL MISSION

By the Associated Press.
Washington, May 11.—Walker D. Hines, who retires Saturday as director general of the railroad administration, will leave this month as arbitrator to determine the ownership of a number of vessels under the German flag operating on the Danube, Rhine and other rivers.

PAGE TO SPEAK HERE TOMORROW NIGHT AT 8

Hickory and Catawba county voters will have the privilege of hearing one of the three candidates for governor in his own behalf when Robert S. Page of Besse, former congressman from the seventh district, invades the county tomorrow night. Mr. Page will speak in the Chamber of Commerce here tomorrow night at 8 o'clock and in the court house at Newton tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

MARGIN OF PROFIT ON SUGAR IS SET

Poston, May 12.—Attorney General Palmer today set the margin of profit to be allowed wholesalers at one cent a pound and for retailers at two cents. In a telegram today he instructed the district attorney to bring prosecutions for violations of the order in regard to sugar.

POST BREAKS JAIL AT NEWTON LAST NIGHT

Newton, May 12.—Robert Esst, an alleged deranged white man of Hickory broke jail last night by cutting his way through the ceiling with a pocket knife. He had been working on the job for a week and concealed the hole with the bed. He left a note for Jailor Gilbert saying he hated to take that means of escape. Post was out in jail two weeks ago awaiting admission to the asylum at Morganton.

MT. AIRY CENSUS FIGURES.

Washington, May 12.—Census figures announced today included: Mount Airy, N. C., 4,752, increase 988, or 23.6 per cent.

PROFITTEERING IN SUGAR IS CHARGED IN 12 INDICTMENTS

Pensacola, Fla., May 12.—Twelve indictments were returned by the federal grand jury here yesterday against the defendants held in $3,000 bond each.

MORE RECRUITS FOR UNITED STATES ARMY

The following named men applied for enlistment at the local army recruiting station the past week and were accepted:
Bynum C. Holtzclaw, Hendersonville for infantry, Fort Thomas, Ky.; Camp Taylor, Ky.; Ray Sechorn, Le Roy, for Fifth cavalry, Marfa, Tex.; E. W. Ritchie, Keysville, Va., for field artillery, Camp Bagg, Arthur T. Parley, Moravian Falls, for field artillery, Camp Taylor.

LUTHERAN SYNOD MEETS.

China Grove, N. C., May 11.—A sermon by Rev. J. L. Morgan and Holy communion will feature the opening here tonight of the annual convention of the Evangelical Lutheran synod and ministerium of North Carolina.

WILSON URGED SIMS TO PUT PEP INTO BRITISH

Cabled American Commander That English Admiralty Was Afraid to Take Risks—Sims Replied, Says Daniels, in a Long Message of Generalities—Wilson After Action

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS HOLD CONVENTION

Washington, May 12.—A confidential telegram from President Wilson to Rear Admiral Sims in London sent during the war was read to the senate investigating committee today by Secretary Scovel.

WARNING IS ISSUED FOR BOGUS STAMPS

Postmaster Bagby today issued a warning to thrifty persons hereabouts to be on their guard against buying counterfeit War Savings Stamps, Fraudulent like stamps of the 1919 series have been made by counterfeiters, the postmaster has been advised, and are being sold to the unwary.

DELEGATES ARRIVE FOR BIG CONVENTION

Washington, May 12.—Delegates from all parts of the south are here to attend the 75th Southern Baptist convention, which opened today.

DELEGATES ARRIVE FOR BIG CONVENTION

Dr. G. E. Flowers, who spent several months in Florida, has returned to Hickory very much improved in health and sure that "Hickory's the town." The doctor was in Florida after the first of last year. He stated that he came back in time for the Catawba variety. His friends will be glad to welcome him home.