CHARGE TUITION FOR OUTSIDE CHILDREN

City council last night voted to admit to the Hickory schools children residing outside the town limits provided they pay tuition for three months in advance at the rate of $50 for the first three grades, $25 from the fourth to the seventh, and $40 for the high school. It costs about that much now to send a child a year through school. Superintendent Carver was charged with making the collections in advance. Only bona fide residents of Hickory will be permitted to send their children to school without paying tuition. Those who will be excluded are: children of parents who are winter visitors—who come into Hickory for the purpose of benefitting from the schools. Some of the children are guests of grandparents; others stay with aunt or uncle and still others come with their parents during the school term, leaving after the session ends. They get the benefit of the schools, which cost like smoke, coal and other items these days.

TENNESSEE HAS RATIFIED U. S. SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT

House by Majority of Four Follows Senate in Passing Ratification Resolution—Gives Seventeen Million Women Right to Vote in Fall

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 18.—Tennessee today became the 36th state to ratify the Susan B. Anthony federal suffrage amendment. The suffragists however, had the advantage of today's victory and expressed confidence that the speaker's motion would be voted down tomorrow. The next motion then would be the ratification of Tennessee's action to the United States. The senate passed the amendment last Friday by a vote of 25 to 4. Suffrage leaders declare they will not slacken their efforts as they desire to have at least one other state ratify the amendment before November, leaving them with a tight on Tennessee's constitution. A RETORT

New York World.
"No one has yet accused the United States senate of ejecting Senator Reed from the San Francisco convention," said Gov. Coolidge in his speech at the Massachusetts Republican club dinner last night. True; nobody has yet accused the United States senate of ejecting Senator Truman Newberry, who has been convicted in a federal court for his part in the purchase of a senatorship and sentenced to imprisonment. Senator Newberry happens to be the Republican majority. Without his vote the Republicans could not have organized the senate; Lodge could not have become chairman of the committee on foreign relations; the committee could not have been packed; and the treaty would not have been wrecked. Senator Reed was "ejected" from the democratic convention in accordance with rules and traditions that have been in force for three-quarters of a century. Does Gov. Coolidge, as the Republican candidate for vice president, care to assume any of the responsibility or the rules and traditions that keep the convicted Truman H. Newberry in the senate as the Republican majority?

WILSON TO HELP DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Washington, Aug. 18.—President Wilson is not expected to do any speechmaking in behalf of the Democratic ticket this fall, but he is not going to sit idly by during one of the most portentous campaigns of recent years and see his fellow Democrats get all the excitement. And while Governor Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt are jumping from one rostrum to another, the White House will echo to the click of the president's typewriter in the interest of the ticket. It is probable that the chief Wilsonian aid to the campaign will be in the form of letters, and the very weight of his position as chief executive will insure them the widest circulation. It is probable that even now some of his ideas have been put down in a rough draft, but nothing leaves the president's hands until it has been carefully re-read, and every phrase and sentence properly balanced and polished to literary perfection.

They will also be able to vote in special elections.

POLYWOG PHILOSOPHY.

Washington Post.
The tadpoles all sat in the river and said:
"How lucky we are to be all tail and head;
Just think how we'd feel if we were as absurd
As a roggie-eyed fish or a feathery bird!"
"Oh, worse still!" they cried.
"We would wish we had died.
If instead of our being such nice polywogs,
Mother Nature had made us all into green frogs!"
The dignified frogs sat on green lily pads
And said: "How absurd to say we sprang from tadpoles!"
From the little black tadpoles all tail and all head!
Why, if it were true, we would wish we were dead
But it cannot be so!
For could we be so
So beautiful if we were once polywogs?"
No, no! We have always been dignified frogs!"
And the feathery birds high up in the tree,
Sang: "The world is as funny as fun, is it?"
