SHARP CLASH IN SENATE COMMITTEE OVER REPORT

Senator Kenyon and Moore Pass Warm Remarks Over Interview—Democrat Names Men Who He Says Can Give Information of Republican Expenditures

By the Associated Press. (Special, Sept. 7.)—The senatorial committee investigating campaign expenditures is "not seeking the best evidence to prove Governor Cox's charges," Senator H. Moore of Ohio declared today.

Moore told Senator Kenyon that when men better able to tell of the Republican plans than either he or Kenyon, he and asked why Col. and William Boyce Thompson, of New York, chairman of the Republican state and national committees, and Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the national committee, had not been called.

"Governor Cox sent him to Chicago," Mr. Moore said, "to give the committee the list from whom the money could get the information to support the governor's charges." Republican H. Blair, first assistant to Fred W. Upham, Republican national treasurer, and several other employees of the national committee.

"Have you all the leads Governor Cox has?" Senator Kenyon asked. "I could not say as to that."

"He didn't ask you to give us just part of the information?" Kenyon asked.

"I wouldn't say that," Moore replied.

"You can question him in your own way when you time comes," returned the Iowa senator, and he then read charges in Governor Cox's Wholesome speech to the effect that "four whole interest was subsiding to buy government control" and in another speech that so far as Republican contributions were concerned, the "sky is the limit." He also read a Cox statement that $500,000 had been raised in Ohio "in a twinkling of an eye."

In answering Senator Kenyon's direct question for names of men who knew about the fund, Mr. Moore went into a long statement of his understanding of the campaign fund organization. He said it was headed by Colonel Thompson and men whom the Republican bulletin describes as "commanding influences."

He said Fred Miller of Columbus was chairman of Ohio and like other state chairmen he had appointed chairmen of local ways and means committees. "I found like other chairmen, these chairmen were manufacturers," said Moore.

EASTERN CAROLINA FARMERS PROTEST VIGOROUSLY SMALL PRICES PAID FOR TOBACCO

By the Associated Press. (Special, Sept. 7.)—The opening of the Wilson tobacco market, the largest bright leaf market in the world, resulted in a mass meeting at the court house at noon today to protest against the low prices paid for the initial offerings and the adoption of resolutions by the gathering urging farmers to hold their crop from the market.

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 7.—The opening of the Wilson tobacco market, the largest bright leaf market in the world, resulted in a mass meeting at the court house at noon today to protest against the low prices paid for the initial offerings and the adoption of resolutions by the gathering urging farmers to hold their crop from the market.

At Greenville, it is reported, the low prices brought such a wave of dissatisfaction that the farmers refused to sell.

At Rocky Mount the initial offerings were about 250,000 pounds with prices far under last year's average.

The opening at Goldsboro saw nearly a million pounds offered at prices which caused much dissatisfaction among farmers, merchants and citizens generally.

At Smithfield it is reported the dissatisfaction was so marked that 99 per cent of the farmers refused to accept the prices paid.

NEW DEMONSTRATION AGENT IN COUNTY

Newton, Sept. 7.—Mrs. R. A. Harris of Durham has arrived in the county to take up her work as home demonstration agent, succeeding Mrs. Lammie Peagram, who resigned to complete her course in nursing at Battle Creek, Michigan. Mrs. Harris comes to Catawba slightly recommended, having had considerable experience along this line of work.

Under the direction of J. W. Hendricks, county agent, three community fairs have been organized and each community is working to make their fair the very best in the county. Each of these fairs will exhibit at the county fair and is working the farmers to make an exhibit and especially he is trying to interest the farmers to exhibit at the county fair. For the past few years the field crops exhibit at our county fair has not been what they should have been and this year it is hoped that this department will be greatly improved.

It is up to the farmers of each community to make their community fair a success. The dates for the community fairs are as follows: Char. Sept. 30th; Killian's Oct. 1st; Southern Grove Oct. 2nd. Our county fair will be held in Hickory October 5, 6, 7 and 8.

ENORMOUS CROWD ATTENDS REUNION

Newton, Sept. 7.—A crowd estimated at more than two thousand attended the reunion services which are being held in open air in North Newton Sunday night. The crowd reminded one of the crowd at Ball's Creek on Sunday. Three services were held Sunday. At 11 a. m. 3:30 and 7:45 p. m. About forty persons were converted during the day. Several young men were converted. Saturday night and Sunday morning and these were doing personal work at night. The meeting will continue perhaps throughout this week. Rev. Mr. Wilburn, who is doing the preaching, had planned to leave Thursday of this week for a visit to relatives in Alabama before going to his new field of labor in Texas, but he has decided to stay here a few days longer as the interest in the meeting is such that it was thought not wise to close it last night.

One hundred and fifty persons have been converted since the meetings began. Your correspondent was told this morning that the policemen of the town has had practically nothing to do since the revival started.

LEAGUE IS URGED TO ARBITRATE DISPUTE

By the Associated Press. London, Sept. 7.—The Polish government has addressed an appeal to the league of nations requesting mediation in the Polish-Lithuanian dispute. Unless an improvement occurs in the situation Poland will be compelled to declare war on Lithuania, the appeal states. The communication declares an unprovoked attack had been made by Lithuanians upon Polish territory.

The league of nations is considering the appeal.

The Polish demand is, the note indicates, that the Lithuanian troops evacuate Polish territory within a few days.

INTERESTING MEETING OF SOCIETY

The Y. W. A. of the Reformed church met with the president, Mrs. W. J. Shuford, last night at her home on Fifteenth avenue. Roll call was answered by eighteen members and two new members, Miss Elizabeth Holbrook and Mrs. D. M. Boyd, were added to the roll. Miss Stricker of Washington, D. C., guest of the hostess, was a visitor during the social hour.

The president led the devotional exercises and presided over the meeting. After the minutes were read and approved reports from the different committees were heard and matters of business disposed of.

It was decided by the society to hold a fancy work sale and supper the first week in December, the proceeds to go for the benefit of the society. The treasurer's report was particularly gratifying and showed a goodly sum paid into the mission budget. Mrs. T. M. Johnston, chairman of the committee which looks after the needs of Josephine Hendley, an orphan at the Nazareth Orphan's Home at Crescent, which the society has adopted, reported that fall and winter clothes were needed and the society voted to begin sewing about these at once. A box will be packed and sent and any member of the church desiring to donate money, clothing second hand clothing or any article may communicate with any member of the society. All donations will be gladly received.

A short reading was given by Mrs. J. D. Thomason and Mrs. W. W. Rowe gave a brief outline of the book for mission study during the incoming year. The new program will be taken up at the next meeting.

Refreshments consisting of block cream and cake were greatly enjoyed by the guests.

The next meeting will be held in October with Mrs. Charles Hunter.
