WITH MRS. CLINE
The Travelers Club held its regular meeting with Mrs. E. B. Cline on Thursday afternoon. Seventeen members were present. The quotations were from Milton as the great exponent of puritan ideals. Mrs. Galt presented the first topic, "Puritan Ideals in the Old World" showing that as the renaissance was in Italy of art in England it was the Bible. Dantes little poems by Robert Herrick were read, contrasting the cavalier with the puritan.

Miss Seagle gave the second paper an interesting account of the puritans in New England. Discussion of current events followed by a salad course with cake and coffee, concluded a most pleasant meeting. The next will be November fourth with Mrs. F. A. Abernethy.

WITH MRS. HESTER
The Do As You Please Club was most delightfully entertained this week by Mrs. O. H. Hester. Other guests were Miss Sadie Menzies and Mrs. Chas. Menzies, Jr. Books for the year were discussed as were other matters of interest. Current events were exchanged and late in the afternoon the hostess served a salad course. Favors were Halloween boxes filled with salted nuts. The next meeting will be held with Miss Frances Geitner.

CLUB ENTERTAINED
A delightful event of the Halloween season was the entertaining of the Do As You Please Club yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Edgar Yoder at her home on Fifteenth street. Special guests were Mrs. B. M. Pogue, Miss Elizabeth Kilian, Mrs. J. K. Campbell, houseguests of Mrs. B. M. Soratt, Jr. and Mrs. Hugh P. Williams, Mrs. C. Joe Howard was cordially welcomed as a new member. Halloween decorations adorned the home and were beautifully arranged. Regular routine business was carried out, the book for the afternoon discussed and comments on a spelling contest in which Mrs. B. M. Pogue excelled.

Refreshments were served consisting of chicken salad, tomato jelly, olives, pickles, crackers, coffee and marshmallows. Favors were small pumpkins filled with nuts and each bearing the name of a guest and a verse appropriate to the person.

One of the delightful features of the afternoon was a visit to the hostess' lettuce garden which is filled with thousands of plants in various stages of growth.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. E. M. Craig.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Halloween season was ushered in last night in a most fitting manner when the Philathea class of the Reformed church entertained a large number of friends. The guests came masked and in costume. They passed the sentinels at the door by giving the magic password "cabbage" and descended to the crooked stair and were introduced to Bluebeard's wives, shaking the clammy hand of a spook as they passed.

The entire lower floor of the church was decorated most artistically with variegated foliage and other Halloween ideas. Ghoulish pumpkins and the eye on every side and the light gave forth an eerie glow.

Numerous Halloween games were enjoyed. In a dark and spooky witches den the spooks peered into the future and a Gypsy in a brilliant tent also shed some light on the future course of the guests.

The Reformed church quartet sang a number of selections and Mrs. C. R. Wardick sang, "The Goblins Get You If You Don't Watch Out."

At 9:15 the cafe was opened and refreshments appropriate to the occasion were served.

It was one of the most delightful affairs ever given by the young people of the church and their efforts at entertaining met with huge success.

TICKETS ARE SHORT FOR AMENDMENT

Although there may not be enough income tax amendment ballots at the polls on Tuesday, the county board of elections has held that the voter can scratch the word "Against" and substitute "For" in the against ballots and the vote will be counted as legal. The number of ballots favoring the income tax is limited, but friends of the amendment will see to it that every voter is helped to get the right ballot.

HEN LAYS AN EGG WITH C ON IT

The Halloween party at the Windy City school house last night proved a complete success from every standpoint, the financial exhibit showing $85.15. The boxes, which were auctioned off by Mr. Oscar Pitts, averaged about $2 each, the large crowd showing much interest.

Mr. Dolph Carpenter brought an egg to the party that indicated, he thought, that Cox would be elected and Mr. Pitts paid $1.25 for it. The egg had a large "C" formed on the sharp end, and it was so unmistakable that Mr. Carpenter said he did not want it at all. It looked good to Mr. Pitts and he brought it to Hickory this morning.

DOROTHY GISH PASTIME TODAY

Dorothy Gish, the funniest girl on the screen in "Mary Ellen Comes to Town" will be the attraction at the Pastime theatre Monday. Mary Ellen is a small town girl, but she's too big for her town. Now, if you know Dorothy Gish, you know that she could start a lot of excitement and then get out. That's what happened in this picture.

Mary Ellen goes to the big city, and there's some more excitement, culminating in a series of amazing occurrences and ending in a romance. It's funny all the way through.

WOMEN NEED NOT STAND IT

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Surely Removes Suffering and Pain. Here is Proof.

St. Paul, Neb.—I suffered with periodical pain for about four years so that I was unable to do my work at times. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it. It soon stopped all my suffering so that I am now feeling fine in every way. I recommend your medicine to my friends who have similar troubles. You may publish this letter for the benefit of other women.—Mrs. Will Thomas, St. Paul, Neb.

ELECTION RETURNS ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Election returns will be received at three places in Hickory on Tuesday night—at the Record office, in front of Lutz's drug store and at the Hub Theatre. The Record will receive the Associated Press election news, its leased wire starting about 7:45 and continuing with intermissions until near 1 o'clock. As the returns begin coming in more rapidly, the number of calls will be increased and the public is sure to get the best the Associated Press can deliver.

Lutz Drug Store as usual will flash the returns on a screen across the street, the Western Union bulletins being used.

The Hickory Township Republican club has leased the Hub theatre for Tuesday night and will receive the returns there. Ladies who expect hand early in order to obtain seats. The Republicans also will get the Western Union returns.
