STATE DEPARTMENT MAY REVOKE ALL PERMITS GIVEN WESTERN UNION

The Department Makes Veiled Threat to Induce Telegraph Company to Come Across Wants Same Treatment as That Accorded Other Governments

Associated Press.
Washington, Nov. 17.—A veiled threat that the permits granted for the use of Western Union cables in this country will be revoked if the company continues to neglect the American government's requests that it provide the British and other governments in hand for the same service was made today.

The state department, by a statement regarding its consideration of the telegraph company's refusal to accept the same standards which are applied to the other telegraph companies that operate in this country, has indicated that it is prepared to revoke the permits granted to the Western Union company if it does not accept the same standards as those which are applied to the other telegraph companies in this country.
