BUD LIPPARD IS HENRY FORD NOW SURRENDERED TO COURT

This morning's Charlotte Observer contains the following news story that will be of interest here, where Bud Lippard is well known:
T. E. (Bud) Lippard, reputed to be one of the most successful and audacious bootleggers in North Carolina, and for whom authorities in this section have been waiting to serve warrants charging him with transporting liquor for some weeks, yesterday morning, in company with his son Carl, and their lawyers, Wilson Warlick, of Newton and Judge Council of Hickory walked into superior court and surrendered themselves upon the presentation of a capias instanter for their arrest by Deputy Sheriff Howard Wilson of this county. The Lippards live in Catawba county near Newton.

Bud Lippard has for many months furnished considerable cause for watchfulness on the part of Mecklenburg county officers due to his reputation as a liquor runner, which has been gained through his many escapades in this section. He has served a term on the roads after being found guilty of transporting whiskey in the past and this time his son Carl is under indictment on a similar charge, as well as being charged with the theft of an automobile. It is said that the son came in answer to a warrant charging him with the automobile theft and that neither he nor his father knew that he was also going to be served with papers charging him with violating the prohibition laws. Bond in the sum of $1,500 was soon arranged and the father and son left the courtroom in company with their lawyers, J. D. McCall of Charlotte, Judge Council and Mr. Warlick. Bud Lippard had already filed bond before he came into the courtroom and gave himself up to the authorities.

The suddenness of the surrender came as a surprise to many in the courtroom when they learned that the two men whom Deputy Sheriff Wilson had served the papers on were none other than "Bud" and Carl Lippard. Bud Lippard though the father of Carl, is a young appearing man himself and his son is a big strapping youth of 19. Both were neatly dressed and wore natty cravat overcoats. The elder Lippard carried a cane as a result of a recent injury to his foot it was learned. Carl was to have been tried here this week on the alleged automobile theft, the case being originally docketed for the special term of court which was held here all last week, but due to the illness of a material witness the case was postponed until this week.

Bud Lippard is the owner of a costly high-powered car and is known to be a driver of skill and nerve. He is credited with having been able for months to drive in and out of Charlotte and other cities in this section, and be able to elude the most alert officers who were watching at different points to apprehend him on warrants charging him with trafficking in liquor.

COUNCIL STANDS BY ACTS AT CANNES

By the Associated Press.

IS HENRY FORD NOW READY TO SEE WEEKS

By the Associated Press.
Washington, Jan. 13.—Henry Ford, accompanied by William B. Mayo, engineer advisor, arrived here early today from Detroit prepared to confer this afternoon with Secretary Weeks on the proposal he has made for the purchase of the Muscle Shoals, Ala., nitrates and power plant.

Mr. Ford talking to newspaper men said:
"If I can't prove to the people that my lease on Muscle Shoals won't cost them anything, I don't want anything to do with it."

He added that somebody had been "spending money to prevent his getting it."

The Detroit manufacturer said if his offer is accepted he would make Muscle Shoals an object lesson to the people, proving to them that tremendous economies could be effected in harnessing water now going to waste.

Twenty dams could be constructed on the Mississippi between St. Louis and Delta, Mr. Ford said, which would heat, light and cook for millions of families, the power sold paying for the dams.
