JERS. TAYLOR HOSTESS

Mrs. Walter S. Taylor was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Traveler's Club at a very delightful meeting. Three papers were read during the program, the first being read by Mrs. E. M. Craig and the subject being "From Syria to America," Miss Amelia McComb read a paper entitled "From Denmark to America" and Mrs. Taylor concluded the readings by giving one entitled "From Russia to America," each of these being given in a manner that was highly pleasing and all containing facts of interest. Mrs. George Craig, a guest of the club, gave much pleasure by playing a piano selection.

Current events were exchanged and a delicious luncheon served in two courses was enjoyed very much, this part of the meeting emphasizing the social hour. Mrs. Taylor's home was very pretty with its artistic decorations of spruce and spirea. Special guests at the meeting were Mrs. George Craig, Miss Fannie Dixon and Mrs. Walter C. Taylor.

The club adjourned to meet on the following Thursday with Miss Essie Seagle and Mrs. J. L. Ciley as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stroud and children and Mrs. J. F. Click went to Iredell county today to attend the funeral of Pinckney Stroud, grandfather of Mr. Stroud.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stroud of Mocksville will arrive this evening to spend Easter with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Click.

WITH MRS. GARTH

The Do As You Please Club met with Mrs. C. V. Garth yesterday afternoon and held a most interesting meeting. Mrs. Robert V. Moss, who recently returned with Mr. Moss to Hickory to live, was given a cordial welcome back into the club and Mrs. Carl D. Moore, also a former member of the club was welcomed. No outside visitors were present.

After roll call and minutes of the last meeting a very important business meeting was held. The hostess' book was "Sister Sue," a charming delightful story.

The social hour, coming after the business session, was very pleasant and many bright topics of the day were discussed. Adding to the delight of the meeting were the attractive decorations of tulips and spirea which were artistically used.

A salad course, followed by an ice course was served. Favors of candy rabbits were suggestive of the approaching Easter.

WITH MRS. UMSTEAD

With Mrs. E. H. Umstead as hostess circle No. 4 of the Missionary Society of the First Baptist church held a very interesting meeting last Friday afternoon.

Eight members were present. Mrs. Umstead led in the devotional exercises which opened the meeting. Reports were heard from the personal service committee which were very fine. The mission study book was then taken up and a continuation of its study was made.

After adjournment to meet on April 21 with Mrs. G. B. Everette, the hostess served delicious cream and pound cake.

KINDERGARTEN CHILDREN VISIT SOUTH SCHOOL

The children of the Hickory Kindergarten attended the opening exercises of the South school yesterday morning. A special feature of the exercise was a play "The Dance of the seasons" given by the first grade pupils and originated by their teacher, Miss Helen Brandon. The play was so impressive that even the kindergarten children tried to dramatize it at their recess time.

Miss Henderson gave an Easter hunt to her kindergarten pupils this morning in the park. Each child had made his own Easter basket and it was a happy occasion when the time came to fill them.

HARRIS-LITTLE

Quite a pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Little Thursday at 4:30 o'clock, April 13 when their daughter, Sarah Louise became the bride of Mr. Raymond L. Harris.

The home was beautifully decorated in green and white.

In a darkened room the soft candle light added to the beauty of the costumes and decorations. Miss Annie Belle Goode, gowned in yellow organdy trimmed in black net and ribbon, presided at the piano. Miss Winnie Davis dressed in white satin trimmed in gold sang "I Love you, and 'Because," just before the bride couple entered to the strains of Lohengrin. They stood under a festoon of green and white and the wedding bell of white flowers and satin in ribbon while the Rev. W. O. Goode rendered the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony.

The groom is a popular young man of Atlanta, Ga. now at the head of the Regal Marble Plant in Murphy, N. C. He was a volunteer in the recent world war and served overseas, ranking as a lieutenant.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Little, a former student of Catawba college, also of Cox and the Conservatory of Music, Atlanta. She is an accomplished musician, a beautiful and attractive young lady of great popularity. She was attired in a suit of dark blue and blouse of flame, with a corsage of Killarney roses and maiden hair fern. Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held.

The happy couple left on an afternoon train for Asheville from which place they leave by motor for Florida and other southern points and will be at home after May 1 at Murphy, N. C.

Those attending the wedding from out of town were Messrs. Manley and Henry Harris of Hampton, Ga., brothers of the groom, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Little of Asheville, Mrs. Dan F. Little of Page, S. C., Mrs. Georgia Goode, Miss Annie Bell Goode, Miss Winnie Davis, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Rutherford and Mrs. Harley Goode of Rutherford College.

LAST SHOWING MAY

MAY McAVOY GRAND TODAY
May McAvoy, who will be seen for the last time today at the Grand theatre in "A Homespun Vamp," shows girls one sure way to test a man's love, and that is by placing themselves in danger and seeing how the men react. The heroine of this pretty romance made the man she loved believe that the house was on fire, and when he rushed to rescue her, ignoring his fiancée, who was in equal danger, she knew she had won his heart. Added attraction "Be Reasonable" a two reel new Mack Sennett comedy.

FOUR GOOD SEASONS IN SONG

The world's best music was inspired by a glad joy could not keep silent. We who can't write music do the next best thing when thrilled with a great joy—we sing. Israel in Ancient times, went up to Jerusalem to worship with Psalms of joy and praise.

On the other hand, gloom dries up the fountains of song. The rejected and down-cast hang their harps on the willows, not because they will not sing, but because they cannot. Lost spirits do not sing, but the redeemed join together in singing the song of Moses and the Lamb.

A service of song entitled "Four Good Seasons in Song" will be given Sunday evening, April 16 at 7:30 at the First Methodist Church. Many feel it a pity that we get to use our best sacred music, for Christmas for example, but once a year. This service will hope to show that the best songs cluster about July, and Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. The Methodist male quartette will sing "Silent Night." A mixed quartette will sing "The Midnight and on Olines' brow." A double quartette will sing beautiful Easter anthems, etc. The congregational singing will be led by a large choir. The public is invited.

ARE YOU THIN AND SCRAWNY

The Bones of the Body Were Not Intended to Show. Cover Them With Flesh

Nobody wants to be called "fat", but even fat people are better off than those unfortunates who are so painfully thin that they have that "scrawny" look. Especially is this true of women. The rounded figure is the figure of health and beauty. If you are too thin you can add solid firm flesh by taking Gude's Pepto-Mangan with your meals for a few weeks. It will put you in better health and Nature will restore you to your normal weight. Pepto-Mangan itself does not add weight but it does build up health. You won't be thin and scrawny if you are well. Get it of your druggist. He sells it in both liquid and tablet form. Adv.
