Peace Activities in Chicago Slump with Small Hope of Peace

By the Associated Press.
Chicago, July 13.—Railway peace activities which loomed large yesterday on the strike horizon slumped perceptibly today while rail executives union leaders and railroad labor board members awaited the next angle of developments.
Chairman Hooper of the board was in private conference with railroad presidents today, however, following the flat refusal of a committee of the carriers yesterday to talk with the strikers so long as they remain away from the shops.

Mr. Hooper refused to discuss the plan, but B. M. Jewell, president of the shophmen's union, still was optimistic.

A telegram to President Harding signed by President Jewell and the six international shop workers union on strike, sought to summarize the shop craft's grievances. The strike was the result of violations of the transportation act, the telegram said.

EARLIER SUMMARY
By the Associated Press.
Chicago, July 13.—Although moves for peace in the rail strike apparently were slowed up somewhat today, the general trend seemed to be in the direction of a settlement despite the flat refusal of the railway executives to meet with B. M. Jewell.

One of the most optimistic notes was sounded by Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the railroad labor board, who fostered the rejected conference. Mr. Hooper announced he had formulated new plans for ending the walkout.

The board's chairman made the announcement without yielding from the position he has maintained, asserting that any proposal from him would be in harmony with the transportation act.

One remaining hope in the peace parley, Mr. Hooper said, was in the fact that the railway executives were not authorized to speak for railway executives generally.

The 13th day of the shophmen's strike thus held considerable promise of important developments.

JEWELL WIRES HARDING ON STRIKE

By the Associated Press.
Chicago, July 13.—B. M. Jewell, head of the railway employes department of the American federation of labor, today sent a telegram to President Harding replying to the president's strike proclamation and opening another phase of the situation.
The telegram, which was also signed by six international presidents, declared that the strikers had walked out because wages fixed by the labor board were in violation of the provisions of the transportation act and because of violations of the labor board's decision by the railroad.
The strikers insisted that they were not violating any law. The telegram laid such interference directly to attempts by the railroads to operate with inferior help.
President Jewell and his associate expressed every desire to maintain peace.

STRIKERS ATTACK CALIFORNIA SHOP

By the Associated Press.
Oroville, Cal., July 13.—Numerous strike breakers and guards were injured, several seriously and one perhaps fatally, when about 75 men speeding into town early today in automobiles charged the Western Pacific round house here. The attacking party rode off in automobiles.
Four guards were missing and it is believed they were kidnapped.
Many of the assailants were masked. They fired about 50 shots, but apparently aimed them at the windows of the round house. All of the injured had been clubbed. All were taken to hospitals.

PROHIBITION HAS ATTACK WOMAN STUDENT IN RALEIGH PROVED GOOD THING

By the Associated Press.
Evangton, Ill., July 13.—Prohibition was declared to be a civic asset by officials of Chambers of Commerce in accounts of the leading cities of the country in statements sent to The Union Signal, the official publication of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and made public by that organ today.
The Union Signal quoted the following officials:
James S. Cady, secretary of the Minneapolis Association: "Prohibition has proved an economic asset in our community. It has promoted thrift and has been beneficial generally to the interests of our city."

Vance C. Criss, secretary of the Springfield, Mo., Association: "Prohibition has been helpful to the community for the reason that the coming generation has not had the access to liquor that was had by young men and boys of four and five years ago. In other words there would seem to be less opportunity by far for the members of the next generation to become addicted to the liquor habit."
Nelson Marshman, associate-secretary, Springfield, Mass., Association: "I believe that prohibition has proved to be economic asset to this community and that it has promoted thrift among our people. A statement from the various savings banks shows that more people have savings accounts and that the balances are larger."

The charitable organizations of the city tell me that taking into consideration the recent business depression, here are fewer people receiving aid than during the time before prohibition. The former saloons in most cases are being used for other lines of business.

"Prohibition has been, I believe very beneficial to the general interests of our city."
William A. Searle, secretary-manager, Camden, N. J., Chamber of Commerce took a poll of representative citizens. (Two hands of clergyman, and insurance man, Salvation Army leader, a Y. M. C. A. secretary, chief of police, a large manufacturer, the director of Bureau of Charities and his own.) The question and answers follow:
Has prohibition proven an economic asset to your community? Yes, 7; No, 2; Uncertain, 2.

Has it promoted thrift among your people, as indicated by an increase in savings banks deposits and deposits? Yes, 6; No, 1; Uncertain, 4.
Are fewer people receiving aid from charity organizations as a result of prohibition? Are there fewer delinquents and dependents in your institutions? Yes, 6; No, 2; Uncertain, 3.
Are the buildings formerly occupied by liquor concerns now used for other lines of business? Yes, 10; No, 0; Uncertain, 1.

In your judgement has prohibition been beneficial generally to the interests of your city? Yes, 9; No, 1; Uncertain, 1.

"Uncertainty in regard to questions 2 and 3 was due to the fact that unemployment and other factors enter into the question in a way too confusing to permit of a satisfactory answer," Mr. Searle said.
O. O. McLeish, acting secretary, Rockford, Ill., Association: "You may place our organization on record as very enthusiastically and energetically favoring both local and national prohibition."
"Rockford was given Camp Grant because it had had a record for many years previous of being a temperate town. Of course, immediately following local prohibition we had several buildings vacated, but only expansion of business."

E. W. Porter, secretary Concord, N. H., Association: "Prohibition has proven an economic asset to our community. It has promoted thrift among our people, and the savings banks depositors are constantly increasing."
"Fewer people are receiving aid from charity organizations and there are fewer delinquents and dependents in our institutions."
"Buildings formerly occupied by liquor concerns are all used for other lines of business."
"It is my judgment that prohibition has been of the greatest benefit generally to the interests of our city."

A successful Chautauque lecturer who is also a lawyer, was presented to his audience as follows: "I am very glad to introduce to you, ladies and gentlemen, Mr. B., who will give his lecture, 'The Trial of Jesus, from a Lawyer's Standpoint.' The clue on which the police are working in an effort to apprehend the culprit is a finger print left on the window.
The young woman could not say whether the man was white or colored.

JOHN W. GUY, JR. IS REPORTED SHOT

By the Associated Press.

C., July 13.—After completing an examination of the books of the First National Bank of Statesville yesterday, a national bank examiner reported the finding of a shortage in the account of Cashier John W. Guy, Sr., of around $85,000. The shortage, it is understood, covers a period of years.
The directors took immediate action to provide against any possible loss to the depositors and the bank is being operated with President R. A. Cooper as cashier.

The report made to the controller of the currency a few days ago of the condition of the bank at the close of business June 30 showed total resources of $954,233.580.
No arrests had been made this afternoon.

WOMAN WINS CONTEST FOR PLACE ON TICKET

Henderson, July 12.—In view of the evidence presented by Mrs. Geo. T. Buchanan's attorneys, A. J. Harris and R. G. Kittrell, the board of elections declared five of the voters cast for P. E. Rowland in the recent Democratic primary illegal, thus giving a majority of three in favor of Mrs. Buchanan.
The basis of the decision as to the illegality of these votes was the fact that four of the votes were cast by professed Republicans and that one was cast by a man who was not registered, according to the affidavits presented.

Mr. Rowland's attorneys will ask from the board an order to certify the votes as originally counted in the primary and not corrected by later evidence, they state.
T. M. Pittman, chairman of the board, stated that he was glad that the many irregularities in the primary had been called to the attention of the public for there had been a growing carelessness for a number of years and that he hoped this would be a forward step toward careful, regular elections in the future.

Mrs. Buchanan is the first woman to be nominated for political office in Vance county and if elected will be the first woman to hold such office. Never before has there been such a close fight in the county, a difference between 1,136 and 1,134 votes in the votes as corrected and accepted by the election board.

POLICE SEARCH FOR ARTILLERY SHELLS

By the Associated Press.
Watertown, N. Y., July 13.—Police are searching this city for artillery shells retained from the world war as a result of the explosion of a dud shell yesterday resulting in the death of eight children. In the intense heat the TNT charge expanded, according to military officials, making the shell liable to explode.
It is believed that one of the children playing croquet struck the shell with a mallet or ball.

SIX CANDIDATES FOR SENATOR IN OHIO

By the Associated Press.
Columbus, Ohio, July 13.—Six candidates including Senator Pomerene himself, want to become United States senator from Ohio at the conclusion of Senator Attee Pomerene's term next March 4th.
Four Republicans and two Democrats have entered for the nomination at the Ohio state-wide primaries on August 8. Senator Pomerene's lone opponent is former Congressman John J. Lentz, of Columbus, president of the American Insurance Union, who was defeated for the nomination by Senator Pomerene six years ago. Pomerene's friends have said they do not take the Lentz candidacy seriously, and that they expect the senior Ohio senator to be renominated by a large vote.

In the Republican camp, the main contest, politicians Simon D. Fess, of Yellow Springs, who is chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee, and Charles Dick, of Akron, formerly United States senator from Ohio and author of the Dick National Guard law. Fess is considered a strong advocate of national prohibition and a supporter of the Harding administration. Dick was defeated for renomination six years ago and his entry into the present campaign caused some surprise in political circles.
Opposed to Fess and Dick are John W. Arnold of Columbus, former lieutenant governor, and David W. Wood, a Civil war veteran and an inmate of the Ohio Soldiers Home at Sandusky.

Although chief interest in the primary appears to be centering in the contest for the Republican nomination for governor the Democratic gubernatorial fight is attracting considerable attention.
Despite the claims of friends that he should have had no opposition because he was the defeated candidate two years ago, former State Auditor A. Vic Donkey, of New Philadelphia, is opposed by three other contestants.

Those opposing him for the nomination are James G. Johnson of Springfield a justice of the Ohio supreme court; Thomas J. Duffy of East Liverpool, head of the state industrial commission, and A. P. Sandle of Ottawa, for several years secretary of the state board of agriculture.

However Sandle's name may not get on the ballots because of an alleged technicality. While his petition filed with the secretary of state bore his name, investigation disclosed that the petition was signed by his secretary while he was out of the state on a speaking tour. His name has been ruled out by the secretary of state but his friends are urging him to appeal to the courts.

Donashey, a former member of the legislature and a delegate to the Ohio constitutional convention in 1912, won the Democratic nomination for governor two years ago, but was defeated for election by Harry L. Davis of Cleveland in the Republican landslide of that year. Both he and Duffy claim strong labor support.

Friends of Judge Johnson claim that he will have much of the organizational support over the state.

JOBS ON FARMS

By the Associated Press.
Washington, July 13.—If you want a job on a farm your chances of getting it are slightly better than 50 percent if you are married, and slightly less than 50 percent if single, says the department of agriculture. If you are married and have children your chances are around 45 percent.
The Department's statistics show that of 1,201 farm jobs advertised in eastern farm papers from 1920 to 1922, single men were wanted in 387 instances, and married men in 416. In addition the social requirements were not stated. Of the advertisements for married men children specifically were not wanted in 54 instances. Children were wanted or permissible in only 14 instances.
Many farmers who hire laborers have no dwellings to let and consequently cannot employ married men, the department found. If the farmer has a dwelling for a laborer's family he prefers that it should be occupied.

JURY DEADLOCKS IN LIPPARD TRIAL

Newton, July 13.—After being out in the case of state against Bud Lippard, well known liquor artist, reported to Judge Ray at 1:15 this afternoon that the members were unable to agree. A mistrial was ordered and the jurors discharged. The jurors stood ten to two in favor of conviction.

Seven five-gallon cans of liquor were found in Bud Lippard's cow pasture by officers, and a witness stated positively that he saw Bud and two other men with or near the liquor. A physician testified that Lippard was crippled and unable to walk.
The case has attracted general interest. It was but another time that Bud Lippard, who is regarded as an old fox, made good his escape.
Sentence has not been passed on James and Rufus Brayan charged with the death of Charles Hefner in the Caffish section of the county. They submitted yesterday, one to assault and the other manslaughter.

SALVATION ARMY CAMPAIGN STARTS

The Salvation army has called upon Hickory to help with their yearly campaign. The amount Hickory has been asked to contribute is $500.
The organization for this campaign is about complete with W. J. Shuford as chairman and L. F. Abernethy as treasurer. Nearly all of the solicitors have been appointed and the campaign will begin Tuesday morning, July 18.
This campaign is for the general work of the Southern division. The southern division consists of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. The general work consists of the rescue home, children's home, hospital, training colleges, industrial schools, etc.

Let us remember that this is the only call for one whole year to this very worthy cause, and the amount asked for is $500.
We cannot forget what the Salvation army has done for our boys while overseas and their wonderful work will continue if we can just make a few sacrifices and help support them.

The Salvation army now has 24 buildings of their own and these buildings have been made possible by a generous public giving of their means.
In these buildings the gospel is preached to hundreds. Homeless men, women and children have been given homes—fallen girls have been rescued and cared for, ex-prisoners are being rescued and given a new start in life, etc.

Let us think of the Salvation army as "The Good Samaritan," then make our donation just as liberal as we possibly can and we will have no trouble in reaching our goal.
W. J. SHUFORD, Chm.

McDUFFEY ON JOB AT HAMPTON, VA.

The "Rev." S. Douglas McDuffey, who made Hickory his headquarters about five years ago, is operating in Hampton, Va., according to a letter received by Chief of Police Lentz today from the Rev. J. W. Patterson, pastor of a colored Presbyterian church there. The letter was turned over to City Clerk Jim Espey, who will supply the information.
McDuffey conducted an orphan asylum in New Jersey when he was collecting money, clothing, bed quilts and chickens and small children in Hickory. He let the children come back, but the other articles were needed in his business.
It seems that McDuffey told colored people here that he had a good thing for them, and he went off in style. The little urchins who accompanied him were used as beggars in Jersey towns and they didn't like it. They dribbled back to Hickory.
Rev. Patterson says the former Hickory man claims to have divine power and is having a big time in Hampton.

Washington, July 13.—Orders may be issued by the war department some time today for the movement of troops to certain localities where outbreaks have occurred, Secretary Weeks indicated at 1 o'clock as he left the white house after a conference with President Harding.

By the Associated Press.
Raleigh, N. C., July 13.—Declaring that there was grave fear that the presence of strike breakers who arrived in Raleigh yesterday to work in the Seaboard Air Line Railroad shops might precipitate an outbreak, Mayor T. B. Eldridge today telegraphed M. H. Cahill, vice-president of the Seaboard at Portsmouth, asking that the imported workmen be removed.

Mayor Eldridge also telegraphed United States Senator Simmons and Overman declaring that the "peace of the city is menaced by the importation strike-breakers by the Seaboard Air Line," and urged the senator to bring their influence to bear on the railroad to remove them.

Union officials say there are 26 strike-breakers here. They are the first to report at any of the railroad shops in the state affected by the strike, according to union officials.
