MARSHALS READY GREEK ARMY IS TO ENFORCE ORDERS DESTROYED BY TURKS

By the Associated Press. London, Sept. 5.—General opinion in well informed quarters today was that the disaster to the Greek army in Asia Minor was complete. There seemed little hope that the armies could be saved. The Greek government has appealed to the powers to obtain an armistice with the Turkish armistice nationalists, who have virtually driven the Greeks from the battlefields and as a result of interchanges among the diplomats at London, Paris and Rome, instructions have been sent to the allied high commissioners of the three powers in Constantinople to discuss joint measures for bringing about a suspension of hostilities. It is hoped here that a meeting between representatives of the belligerents can be arranged within the next two or three days in a neutral zone in Asia Minor to arrange an armistice.

Doolittle landed at San Antonio at 7:10 this morning on his one-stop flight to San Diego, Cal., and hopped off again at 8:23 after replenishing his gasoline and oil supplies. Lieutenant Andrews, with whom Doolittle flew some time ago, hooped off with Doolittle and will accompany him to El Paso. This is being done so that in the event something happens to his plane he may continue his flight. A large crowd saw Doolittle leave here. Only one time was he drowsy, he said during the night's flight and that was when he was leaving Florida.

JAPANESE TO SEND STUDENTS TO AMERICA

Tokio, Aug. 16.—The minister of education on behalf of the Japanese government has accepted an invitation from Doctor George E. Vincent, president of the Rockefeller Foundation of New York, to name and send a commission of Japanese medical scientists to visit the medical institutions of the United States and Canada as the guests of the Rockefeller foundation. The idea originated with Dr. Vincent who was in the Far East some time ago in connection with the activities of the success that attended the visits to America of similar commissions from Great Britain, Brazil and Belgium. The invitation, transmitted by Baron Shidehara, Japanese Ambassador in Washington suggests that the commission should consist of four or five men, well-known as representative of the important branches of medical science and of the principal medical universities and institutes of the country; that this commission would be the guests of the Rockefeller Foundation from the time it leaves Japan until it returns again to these shores; and that these eight of 1923 would be the most suitable time for this visit, which should last for about three months. The minister of education, in accepting the invitation, expressed his approval of the suggestions and undertook to select a commission that could claim to be truly representative of Japanese medical science.

TEN TRAINS ARE TO GO OFF THURSDAY

Effective Thursday, ten Southern Railway passenger trains, two of them important to Hickory and this division, two on the main line between Charlotte and Danville, two between Asheville and Waynesville and two between Asheville and Columbia, will be taken off. Nos. 15 and 16 west and eastbound trains, the first due here at 8 a. m. and the second at 8 p. m., are the trains to be removed from service. The strike is the cause. Railroad men say that the long idleness of the Southern's Spencer shops, when the company was hoping the men would return to their jobs, is responsible for the bad condition of many locomotives. Trains have been running off schedule a little more each day and No. 12, due here last night at 6 o'clock, was delayed at Morganton several hours when the locomotive went dead. Nos. 21 and 22 will be taken off between Asheville and Waynesville and two summer trains between Asheville and Columbia also will be removed. Trains Nos. 13 and 18, between Greensboro and Goldsboro, now leave those stations at 8 a. m. and 8 p. m. The annulling of these ten passenger trains was made necessary in order to conserve motive power. They will be returned to service as soon as conditions permit, it was announced.

Whether Poulin will have a hearing in this court apparently had not been determined this morning. Information indicated that if Poulin does not waive a hearing sensational evidence will be disclosed and Mrs. Tiernan will be chief witness.

SUSPENSION OF SUPERIOR COURT COTTON CROP IN SOUTH CONVENES IN NEWTON

By the Associated Press. Newton, Sept. 5.—Catawba county superior court convened here yesterday morning with Judge James L. Webb, of Shelby, presiding, and Solicitor R. L. Huffman, of Morganton, prosecuting the criminal docket. The judge's charge to the grand jury consumed the entire morning and much favorable comment was heard on every side as it was a very able charge and instructive to the citizens generally. Several cases were tried in the afternoon, among them was state against Obe Poole, who pleaded guilty to assault with deadly weapon and the case against Carr Shook, who was convicted of assault with deadly weapon. Will Brown pleaded guilty of carrying concealed weapon and was fined $10 and the costs. Vernon Robbins waived a bill of indictment and pleaded guilty to disposing of a pistol without a permit. The case against George Norwood, a young white man, charged with an assault with intent to commit rape, was called and the jury selected late in the evening. He will be tried today. The county commissioners were in session yesterday all day transacting the business of the county. Two resignations from the road board were received. J. U. Long, of Catawba, resigned and R. K. Boggs, of Catawba, was appointed in his place. G. E. Mauney of Maiden, also resigned, and it was not known at a late hour who the commissioners would name in his stead. The Catawba county highway commission was in session also yesterday, hearing various road matters from different parts of the county and strange to say the road force at work in the eastern part of the county reported that they had been held up by a land owner who forbid them to build a road over his land. Evidently this citizen had not heard of the case in the western part of the county where Mr. L. E. Klutz, attorney for the highway commission, collected the sum of five hundred dollars out of two women who undertook to stop the road work in their section. It seems that these two women thought that they could take the law in their own hands and each of them with an apron full of rocks proceeded to rock the road force and their teams. Fortunately no one was hurt but the women were very glad to pay five hundred dollars and permit the road to be built over their premises. Before any one else undertakes to hold up the road work in Catawba county it will be well for them to first consult with these two ladies. Catawba county is getting to be well covered with splendid roads and the highway commission is to be congratulated on the fine record they have made, their reports showing more than fifty miles of new roads and the roads of the county maintained with an expenditure of about $75,000.00. There remains plenty of money to build all the leading roads of the county. Superior court and the various boards in session brought an immense crowd to Newton and one could go from the court room to the meeting places of the different boards and at all times during the day would find a tremendous crowd.

GIVE SPECIAL RATES TO BIG EXPOSITION

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 5.—It has been officially announced that all of the railroads throughout the southeastern territory have granted a fare and a return for the round trip to Charlotte from September 25th through October 8th, on account of the Made-in-Carolinas Exposition which will be held between those dates. This announcement is particularly gratifying according to a statement made by the officers of the Carolinas Exposition Company, inasmuch as it means greater facility offered the public of the Piedmont Carolinas for attending the Exposition. Last year it was considered that the railroads gave the Exposition favorable treatment beyond the ordinary, when the same rate was granted for special days only. The fact that the rate will obtain for the full two weeks of the Exposition indicates in the opinion of officials interested that the idea behind the Exposition movement is winning the kindest and most effective sort of cooperation.

PARENTS ARE URGED TO EXERT CAUTION

Dr. C. L. Hunsucker, city physician, reports that at the present time there are thirty cases of scarlet fever in Hickory. I wish to ask that any children who have been exposed to scarlet fever or any other contagious disease be kept out of school until all danger is past. Children from homes in which there is a case of scarlet fever should certainly not be sent to school. If the patrons are careful concerning the attendance of children who are not well or those who have been exposed epidemics can be avoided. R. C. CARVER.

Twenty-two good men will be in the employ of the company before night, it was said. Five came in during the day and two others were expected later.
