alto parts to perfection, at the same time playing the accompaniment. He played while he talked or sang and cracked jokes with the audience at the same times.
Two dramatic (if not tragic) instances were related. The Daily Hickory Record was remiss in reporting one, he said. That was the time when John Stephens pushed a tram off the track to rescue a woman. On another occasion when a building six million stories high burned, Donald Menzies threw a lasso to the top, looped it around the neck of a lady, who was about to be burned and pulled her to the ground.
These are just a few of the things he said and did. Becoming serious, Mr. Barzil declared that cooperation means a lot to the town and commended Dr. Sikes' address. With the substitution of Hickory for Tipperary, he sang a song for this town and the Kiwanians and closed. He had drawn applause throughout the evening, but he was given an ovation at the close.
