

WATCH YOUR LABEL
Subscribers should renew at least two weeks before their subscriptions expire.

PUBLISHED SEPTEMBER 11, 1915.

HICKORY, N. C., WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 15, 1922.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

CELEBRATE LARGE GIFT TO LENOIR COLLEGE

Mr. Rhyne Makes Big Gift To Lenoir College

Lincoln Capitalist and Philanthropist Donates $300,000 to Lutheran Institution Here—Makes Total of $400,000—Church to Raise Large Sum for Building.

In celebration of the $300,000 gift of Daniel Rhyne, 300 students of Lenoir College paraded the streets of Hickory at noon today after the city, on receiving the good news, had declared a special holiday. The college band headed the parade and many of the students in the procession over the principal streets of Hickory.

DANIEL E. RHYNE

GREAT BUILDING PROGRAM FOR WINTER

Chicago, Nov. 15.—More than the usual amount of winter activity in building with residential work taking a prominent part, is indicated in a survey of activities made by the American Contractor, in twenty-seven states forming the main northeastern part of the United States.

BRITAIN STANDS OPPOSED TO TURKS

London, Nov. 15.—The British foreign office, it was stated in an authoritative quarter today, has telegraphed to the French and Italian governments a memorandum in which Great Britain declares that the main Turkish demands which are to come before the peace conference at Lausanne are not regarded favorably by the British government.

RESPECT ARMISTICE

Constantinople, Nov. 15.—The Turkish nationalist government has given formal assurances to the allies that the stipulations of the Mudania armistice agreement will be respected.

WORKMAN IS VICTIM OF DYNAMITE BOMB

Rocky Mount, N. C., Nov. 15.—An explosion which the police declare was undoubtedly caused by a dynamite bomb hurled under the home of D. T. Taylor, blew the floor from the room in which W. B. Jones was sleeping, demolished the bed, hurling him to the floor, shattering windows in the house and shook the windows throughout the city shortly before 11 o'clock last night.

CONGRATULATIONS

Conclusion of a story on the children's page in a magazine says, "And they were married and lived happily even after."—Kansas City Star.

JAPANESE LEARN ENGLISH PEOPLE HIGH COURT'S DECISION BUSY VOTING TODAY

Tokio, Nov. 15.—Japanese newspapers this evening printed the decision of the United States supreme court holding Japanese ineligible for naturalization as American citizens. No comment was made except by one paper which said it was impossible for Japan to do anything because that would be interfering with domestic affairs.

BERLIN CABINET FORCED OUT OF OFFICE

Berlin, Nov. 15.—The German cabinet headed by Chancellor Wirth has fallen. The ministerial resignations filed last night were precipitated by the decision of the united socialists not to participate in a coalition ministry, which included members of the German people's party.

TWO AMERICANS KIDNAPPED IN CHINA

Peking, Nov. 15.—Einar Borg-Breen of Minneapolis, an American Lutheran missionary and his son have been kidnapped by the army of bandits in Honan province, according to a report from Hankow. Altogether eight foreigners, including two Americans, now are held captive.

THREE BIG MILLS PLAN TO APPEAL

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 15.—Three of the 50 cotton mills which originally resisted the raise in rates by the Southern Power Company will take to the supreme court their appeal from the action of the corporation in fixing the rates, it was learned here today.

WORLD PROHIBITION SOON ON THE WAY

Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—With messages of encouragement pouring in from every quarter of the globe, delegates of the world convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union expressed confidence today that international prohibition would be achieved not many years hence.

PLAN CELEBRATION CENTRAL HIGHWAY

Hickory Organizations Move to Commemorate Building of Permanent Road Between Hickory and Newton—Extend Use of Auditorium—Chamber Appoints Committee.

GIVE REPORTS AT BIG A. D. C. MEETING

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 15.—Mrs. Livingstone Rowe Schuyler, president general, delivered her report to the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the second session of the confederation here today. Reports also were heard from other national officers.

MR. ALLRED TELLS HOW CORD IS REELED

J. M. Allred, popular Hickory citizen, burst into print in New York the other day in the Pennsylvania Register, a hotel proprietor, invited and distributed especially for his guests. Record readers will agree that the story is unique. Here it is:

WILL PUSH ROAD TO MOUNTAIN SECTION

At the regular semi-monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night, a resolution was adopted instructing President J. A. Moretz to extend an invitation to the special legislative committee now investigating the proposition of constructing a railroad in the extreme northeastern part of the state, to visit Hickory and permit the citizens of this section to present the claims of a route through this section.

BRING BIG SUIT FOR BACK INJURY

Winston-Salem, N. C., Nov. 15.—The complaint was filed here today in a $50,000 damage suit against the Harris Construction Company of Salisbury, which is building a hard surfaced road from that city to the Yadkin river. The plaintiff is Dan Massengale of this city who alleges that while in the employ of the defendant company he was struck by a 2,000 pound bucket and sustained permanent injuries to his back.

BULWINKLE FILES EXPENSE ACCOUNT

Washington, Nov. 15.—Representatives Pou and Bulwinkle, Democrats, of North Carolina, successful candidates for reelection spent $1,390 and $1,075 respectively in their campaigns, according to statements filed today with the clerk of the house.

WHERE "SINGE" MEANS "MONKEY"

American (in his effort to ask for a singe in a perfect French accent)—"Singe."
French Barber (who is rather sensitive about his personal appearance)—"Comment?"
American—"Je dis singe."
Barber—"Va-t'en, dairy peeg!"
Punch (London.)