SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Miss Lovie Miller is spending her vacation with her brother, Rev. L. Summie Miller, in Adamsville, Ohio.

Miss Norma Edmisten has returned from a delightful visit of several weeks in Marion, Va., and Asheville.

Mrs. J. A. Courtney Jr., and daughters are visiting in Lenoir, the guests of Mr. Courtney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Courtney, Sr.

Mrs. T. W. Mixson will leave Saturday for Albany, Ga., to spend some time visiting relatives. Mr. Mixson will join her there for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Cottrell, Mrs. O. D. Heffner and Mr. A. Y. Cottrell of Lenoir were Hickory visitors yesterday.

Mr. D. T. Applegate is in Kings Mountain attending the Lutheran synod as a delegate from St. Andrews Lutheran church.

Mrs. A. A. Whitener will be hostess to the Embroidery club tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at her home on Eleventh avenue.

Rotarians are expected to bear in mind that the luncheon is at 1 o'clock tomorrow with District Governor Carroll Jones as special guest.

Mr. Glen Yoder returned to Winston-Salem today after spending several days with his mother, Mrs. W. B. Yoder.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parrish, after spending some time here visiting relatives and friends, left this morning for their home in California.

A short business meeting will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock by the Business and Professional Women's club at the Buttercup Tea room.

Circle No. 3 of the Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. June Jones on Eighth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Speagle and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Garber of Mt. Jackson, Va., who have been visiting Mrs. J. C. Townsend left today to attend synod.

Mr. K. K. Kennedy left last night for Greensboro where he has accepted a position. Mrs. Kennedy and family will go to Greensboro tomorrow and they will make their future home there.

In the honor roll of the Highland school for October, the names of Harold Sox, James Witherspoon and Theda Hite, seventh grade students, were unintentionally omitted. The Record takes pleasure in making this correction.

MRS. BOST ENTERTAINS

Among the most delightful of the social affairs of the late autumn season was that of yesterday when Mrs. Carroll C. East, Jr., entertained with a party at her home on Tenth avenue.

Delicate hued chrysanthemums with a deft arrangement of potted plants formed pretty decorations in the reception hall, library and living room which were opened ensuite and arranged with six tables for games.

Bridge and hearts dice were the chief diversions of the afternoon and the games progressed with interest for an hour or more. On the final counting of the scores it was found that Mrs. O. H. Hester and Mrs. John Cilley, Jr., had tied for the bridge prize, a hand embroidered guest towel which Mrs. Cilley cut. Mrs. Macon M. Williams and Miss Mabel Miller each held the same score for hearts dice and in cutting for the prize, a pair of gold lingerie clasps, Mrs. Williams was the lucky winner.

Assisted by Mrs. Robert V. Moss, who also assisted in welcoming the guests, the hostess served a delectable luncheon in two courses followed by mints. The refreshments very prettily emphasized the decorating color motif of yellow.

The guests invited to share Mrs. Bost's charming hospitality were Mesdames John Gettner, John N. Bohannon, C. V. Garth, W. N. Martin, Chas. Menzies, Jr., F. B. Ingold, E. A. Herman, John Cilley, Jr., J. O. Hull, Weston Clinard, R. C. Henry, H. P. Williams, T. P. Pruitt, Geo. S. Watson, Macon M. Williams of Lenoir, E. W. Walton, Johnson Suttlemyre, Connolly Gamble, J. A. Courtney, Jr., E. N. Carr, O. H. Hester, Emma Bonner, Gertrude Finger, Millie Kate McComb, Jessie Byrd, Frank Martin and Mabel Miller.

MRS. BALLINGER CLUB HOSTESS

With Mrs. Richard Ballinger as hostess and with three tables arranged for bridge the members of the Limited Bridge club and additional guests enjoyed one of the most interesting of the autumn meetings yesterday afternoon.

A series of spirited games were played with the club high score prize going to Mrs. Alex Hall while Mrs. E. Bryan Jones received the visitors' prize.

At the conclusion of the game the guests were invited into the dining room where a buffet luncheon was served from a beautifully appointed table, gracefully presided over by Mrs. R. A. Grimes. Artistic decorations in which a color motif of yellow was observed, enhanced the attractiveness of the scene.

Those playing were Mesdames George C. Yoder, Walker Lyerly, Alex Hall, E. B. Menzies, Roy Abernethy, T. C. Blackburn, J. H. Dillard, J. L. Murphy, Hugh D'Anna, R. A. Grimes, E. Bryan Jones and E. B. Cline.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

The Parent-Teacher association of the North school will meet Friday afternoon promptly at 2:45 o'clock. Instead of having a program by the children, the mothers of the organization will be in charge.

Mr. Carver is very anxious to have vines planted around the building and requests each one to bring a root with her Friday afternoon.

FUN FEST TOMORROW

LEGION HALL

Tomorrow evening will find a banner crowd at the Community Service get-together program in the Legion hall. Mr. Schubert will present several new games and stunts for the first time on this occasion and it is certain all the regular attendants will be on hand in addition to many new ones. Various programs of social recreation are being held in Hickory as well as in our neighboring communities due to the interest in this phase of community activity.

WITH MRS. MOSTTLER

The November meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mosttler on Twelfth avenue with Mrs. Mosttler and Mrs. A. J. Essex as joint hostesses.

The meeting was unusually interesting and was enjoyed by eighteen members. The opening devotional was in charge of Mrs. A. F. Wagner and at the close of the business session an hour spent in needlework proved very interesting.

At the close of the afternoon the hostesses served delicious hot chocolate and cake.

COMMUNITY SERVICE PROGRAM

BROOKFORD TOMORROW

The regular weekly community gathering at 7:30 o'clock in the hall over the Brookford Mill store, Brookford citizens turn out in full force on these occasions and the large auditorium is capable of taking care of all. The local committee has arranged seats along one side for the hall for mothers, fathers and small children who do not take part in the games. Mr. H. D. Schubert has been in attendance at these affairs and will lead the program this week. A special feature has been added to the former entertainments and a surprise is in store for those who attend on Friday evening.

MISS SPRINGS HOSTESS

The November business and social meeting of the Junior Philathea class of the First Presbyterian church was held last night at 7:30 o'clock with Miss Helen Springs as hostess.

The usual business routine was followed and during this session new officers and committees were elected as follows: President, Miss Katherine Hahn; vice-president Miss Ava Robinson; secretary, Miss Helen Brandon, treasurer, Mrs. Hiram Bolch. Following adjournment the hostess assisted by Miss Kate Gosnold, served delicious sandwiches, hot cocoa and nuts.

MRS. LITTLE HOSTESS

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. J. B. Little was hostess to Circle No. 3 of the First Methodist church at her home on Tenth avenue. At roll call twenty-four members responded and Mrs. R. K. Webb was a pleasant visitor.

The meeting was opened with scripture reading and prayer after which the regular program was taken up. Mrs. R. J. Foster received the collection for the orphan which the four circles are supporting. Mrs. N. J. Wright expressed her deep appreciation of the basket of fruit which the circle sent her as a birthday remembrance.

During the social hour following the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostess' son and grandson, Mr. Byron Little and Master Brevard Goode.

The meeting adjourned to meet the first Tuesday afternoon in December with Mrs. W. W. Bryan as hostess.

Mrs. Josephine Taylor of Maiden, newly elected register of deeds, was a Hickory visitor today.

All four wards of the Philathea class of the First Methodist church will meet with Mrs. R. O. Abernethy Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The many friends here of Mrs. W. P. Huffman, who makes her home in High Point with Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Conrad, will regret very much to learn that she is seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. Grover Huffman and Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Huffman were called to her bedside Monday morning. Mrs. Huffman was taken ill Sunday and an operation was performed Sunday night. News from her bedside this morning stated that her condition remains unchanged.

One of the major attractions of the autumn and one that is being anticipated with interest is the band concert to be held in the auditorium on Thanksgiving night. In addition to the band selections some of Hickory's most popular singers and readers will appear on the program. Popular prices will prevail.

FORSYTH BAR WANTS

NEW JUDICIAL DISTRICT WINSTON-SALEM, Nov. 13.—The Forsyth County Bar association has been called to meet tomorrow to consider plans for securing a separate judicial district for Forsyth and Winston-Salem. The association also will consider the proposal for the erection of a new courthouse.

SEEN FROM THE SIDELINES

The Rotary Minstrels are hard at work every night now and Oscar is rapidly whipping them into shape for the big game next Thursday. Some of the players do not like to obey orders, and some of them don't show up for signal practice as they should, but Oscar says he has a line that will be hard to penetrate. He was trying to prove to O My Hester that he had no sense the other night, when O My said, "You needn't waste your breath that way, Kate proved it to me before I left home." Speaking of stars Henry Holbrook didn't like to be put with the lesser lights. He wanted to be a moon or one of the larger planets, and is causing a good deal of trouble to the management and may have to be put out of the show altogether. In the second act where he is making love to, but that would be telling and his wife doesn't know about it yet.

The Rotary minstrel which is for the benefit of boys work, is merely a money making effort. It brings to our city once a year, an opportunity to those of an aesthetic turn of mind, who know how to appreciate the classical in music to fill their souls with raptures sentimentalities and makes it possible to wing one's soul upwards from the innocuous disquietude which causes one to sigh and sigh and sigh. Jo Cilley and Edgar Fox will give an exhibition of singing at Lutz Drug store on Saturday afternoon and the public school teachers will be the judges. Some of them are good judges too and a fine meeting is assured. Get your tickets before three o'clock and you will be admitted to this show free of charge. The leaves are falling from the trees, whose limbs are bare. The leaves are falling from the trees, whose limbs are bare? The leaves are falling from the trees—

A free ticket will be given to the one who completes this piece of poetry correctly and sends it in by Saturday afternoon. Address Rotary Minstrels.

WHAT IT MEANS TO BE "RUN DOWN"

Is Calvin Coolidge, who says the Fordney Emergency Tariff Bill aided the American farmer, trying to grab the laurels of the end man at the minstrel show, or does he look upon the American farmer as a one-galloned, cuss who is too ignorant to believe facts and figures as against the declarations of high-tariff whoopers?—Louisville Courier-Journal.
