Closing Out Sale.

My goods must all be sold by the 1st day of August, and in order to do so every article will be sold at cost and some even below cost. I still have on hand a lot of nice trimmed hats, for ladies and children, sailors white and black, also a lot of ribbon, veiling, chiffons, plain and pleated, velvets, misses hose size 7, 7½ fans, handkerchiefs, ladies white collars and cuffs, and just a lot of other nice things. Don't miss this opportunity, these goods must go.

Respectfully,
Mrs. A. P. Staley.

Wade Siler reports a fine wheat crop.

A Delightful Lawn Party.

A number of Liberty's young people enjoyed a most delightful evening at the home of Mr. E. D. Patterson, July the 7th from 8:30 to 11:30. The lawn was beautifully decorated with numerous lights and tables which were covered with snowy white spreads, decorated with flowers and luscious fruits. At ten o'clock refreshments consisting of ice-cream, sherbert and different kinds of cakes were served to the couples assembled to the different tables.

Those present were:

Miss Annie Lewis	Dr. R. D. Patterson
Miss Stena Reitzel	John W. Ward
Miss Myn Reitzel	W. M. Hanner
Miss Mayme Patterson	W. H. Griffin
Miss Josie Love	Walter Smith
Miss Edna Teague	Herbert Smith

Miss Lula Patterson Ed Waltz
Mr. & Mrs. Elliott, Messrs. McDonald,
Fogleman, Thomas and Thomas

When the hour for departure arrived every one expressed their much appreciation of a most enjoyable evening, thanking the hostess, Miss Mayme Patterson for her exceeding kindness.

Poultry & Eggs.

When you bring chickens to Liberty don't sell them until you see John Caveness. He pays the highest market price for them and settles the bill in hard cash. Don't forget him. tf

The Sunday School Convention was carried out according to the programme given in last week's issue, and was quite a success. A large crowd was present, and the weather was pleasant.

IF you have good judgment, you can realize at once that we can sell you money than others, who sell their goods on credit. We do strictly a cash business, and have only ONE PRICE. Give us a call and examine some of those Wool suits at $2.75.

CLOTHING FOR LESS
