

Mr. Luther Pickard of Lexington N. C. was in town a few days ago. Luther is a son of the late Robert Pickard who lived at the old Long place some years. Luther looks natural and his many friends were glad to see him.

We are sorry to record the death of uncle Stanly Coble. He was buried at Rock Creek Church one day last week. He was a useful citizen and a good neighbor and leaves behind him friends who remember him for what he has done. We extend to the family our sympathy.

Mr. John Kimrey's little child was brought from Lexington Monday and buried at Richland Church Monday evening. It's illness we learn was very severe and its suffering intense.

It was our privilege to attend the protracted services at Mt. Pleasant church last Sunday and Tuesday. The services Sunday were conducted in the morning by Prof. T. C. Amick and in the afternoon by Rev. John Bowman. The pastor Rev. Milloway was not able to be present on account of the illness of his wife as noted in these columns last week. She is better and we are glad the pastor is able to attend some of the services. Rev. Wm. Borter of Asheboro is assisting in the meeting.

We hope the readers of the Register will excuse all mistakes this week in the make up of the paper. The printer has gone to Va. and left the office in the hands of his "devil" and two others helped him make up the paper this week.

Rev. D. I. Offman and Miss Lora Jones are attending the Lutheran Synod at New Market Va. this week.

The protracted services begin next Sunday at Smithwood, Low's, Rock Creek and Bethlehem. Some we know are very much puzzled to decide where to go.

Mrs. Alpheus Teague and a few of her friends will tent at Bethlehem during the coming week.

Our clever liveryman Mr. Hardin is a hustler. He is selling buggies, wagons and harness every day and is doing all the livery he can with the number of horses he has. When you need anything in his line don't fail to call on him. He will buy your horses and mules also. Watch for his ad. next week.

We are glad to receive a copy of the Patent Record published at Baltimore. It is full of interesting reading matter and engravings. We will gladly accept publishers kind offers to exchange.

Miss Lora Jones has quit the Post Office and Miss Cora Miller has taken her place. We are sorry to have Miss Lora leave us but then if we are correctly informed we do not blame her for we have been told that the assistant P.M. at Julian is very much overworked and needs help.

The Inventive Age of Washington D. C. is another one of our very interesting exchanges. It is always full of good reading matter. The subscription price is one dollar per year. We have made special arrangements with the Pub. whereby we are enabled to offer our subscribers the Inventive Age and the Register both for $1.25. We hope a great many will take advantage of this offer.

Remember we give you our paper, the Atlanta Constitution and the Home and Farm one year for $1.40. Or the Thrice a week World and the Register for $1.35.

Dr. B. W. Hatcher visited his family Sunday. Leaving Monday for Thomasville.
