Local Items.

Mrs. W. S. Bynum and children, who have been visiting at Mrs. M. A. Curtis's for some time, left this morning for their home at Fletcher, N. C.

Miss Annie Crowder, of Wadesboro, is visiting Mrs. P. J. Pate.

The "Little Daisy" is the name of a very little paper just started in Lincolnton, published by two little girls.

Miss Minnie Creighton, who has been visiting her aunt Mrs. Pharr, returned to her home near Charlotte, yesterday.

We stated a few weeks ago that Envelopes had risen in price, and that we were obliged to raise our price for them (printed,) to $3.00 per 1,000. Since then we have been able to get them much cheaper, by buying in large quantities, and have put the price back to $2.50 per 1,000. These Envelopes are of Excellent quality. Send in your orders.

COMPANY ORGANIZED.

We are now certain of having another Cotton Factory. The Company was organized on last Wednesday, and the following officers were elected: President, Mr. Martin Shuford; Secretary, Mr. L. Kistler; Treasurer, Mr. Blair Jenkins. The name of the company is "The Willow Brook Manufacturing Company." In a short time work will be begun on the Factory. Lincolnton is surely waking out of its years' sleep.

The Racket Store of Messrs Massey & Kistler was opened on last, and has been crowded nearly ever since. They have only received a part of their goods.

A party was given at Mr. Oliver Ramsaur's last Tuesday night. We learn that it was a very pleasant affair.

Mr. Alex. Hoke is attending Court in Charlotte.

The people of Lincolnton, who have been nearly starved during the past few weeks for the want of fresh meat, can now get fresh beef, as Mr. Robt. Sowers has opened a beef market.

Forgiving is divine, and some people can forgive anything: but nobody would forgive a man that will not take advantage of the low prices J. Thos. McLean is asking for RUBBER STAMPS, at the Lincoln Marble Works.

Dr. Howard Reedy and family, of Stanley Creek, were visiting at Dr. J. A. Reedy's this week.

Dr. Joe Davidson, of Mt. Holly, spent a short time in Lincolnton this week with his brother, Col. Wm. Davidson.

Mr. T. H. Hoke has been very sick during the past few days, but now, we are glad to state, he is much better.

A red X on your paper means that you have not paid your subscription. Hope you will pardon us for reminding you of it and that you will remit 40 cents immediately.

Applicant — "Please, ma'am, will you help a poor man who is out of work?"

Woman — "I guess I can find something for you to do."

Applicant (gratefully) — "Thank you. If you can get me some washing to do I'll take it home to my wife." — Epoch.

Magistrate (to prisoner) — You say, Uncle Rastus, that you took the ham because you are out of work and your family are starving. And yet I understand that you have four dogs about the house.

Uncle Rastus — Yas, sah, but I wuddent arsk my family to eat dorgs, yo' Honah! — N.Y. Sun.

A Georgia farmer made $1,000 off an acre planted in watermelons, and a neighboring doctor made $200 off the same acre. — Medical and Surgical Journal.
