

THE TRUMPET

Local Items.

—Big Basket Picnic at Brevard's Mills, on Saturday, July 28th. Everybody invited. You must not forget to bring a basket, filled with good things.

—Mr. G. W. Stubbs has accepted a position in Wilkes' Machine Shop, in Charlotte.

—Don't forget that the Teachers' Institute begins here on Monday, the 30th inst,

—The new cotton Factory will be in operation in a short time.

—There will be a total eclipse of the moon on next Sunday(22,) night. It will be visible here. The moon enters penumbra at 9:29, p. m.; enters shadow at 10:28. Total eclipse begins at 11:25, p. m., and ends at 1:10 a. m. The moon leaves penumbra at 3:07. Don't forget to look at it, and a smoked glass is not necessary to see it with, as some one in South Carolina thought at the last eclipse of the moon.

—A gentleman told us the other day of a home in the backwoods of South Carolina where dried persimmons were used in the place of sugar. A persimmon was put in a cup of coffee, instead of sugar.

—Mr. Oliver Ramsaur and son Flemming spent a short time at their home in Lincolnton this week.

—A Leap Year party was given by the young ladies of Lincolnton on last Friday night, at the residence of Mr. Saml. Lander, Please accept our thanks for the very pleasant hours we spent there.

—Mrs. McCoy and little daughter, Maggie, of Wilmington, are visiting at Mrs. Curtis'.

—Mr. W. T. Walker, the prohibition candidate for Governor, will address the people at the Court House to-morrow.

—See the change of schedule of the Narrow Gauge Ry. When you wish to see the correct schedule of either the Narrow Gauge or the Carolina Central railroads, look on the fourth page of the TRUMPET.

—Misses Sudie and May Johnson, of Charlotte, spent a short time with Mrs. Curtis, last week.

—The "Southern Stars" left on the special train this morning, to be at the Encampment, —The State Normal is now in Session at Newton. A good many teachers from this county are attending.

—It is almost time for the melons to begin to come in, and it is said that we will have a lot of them.

—We went up the N. G. Ry. a few miles, last Saturday, and noticed that the corn and cotton is very fine all along the road. The bottom corn is especially fine.

—The "Lantern Brigade" is composed of twenty-five or thirty children with different colored lanterns. They make a very pretty spectacle as they march along the streets at night, with their lanterns lighted.

To The Young Ladies of Lincolnton. Thanks,

INASMUCH as some of the young men who accepted the hospitality of the Young Ladies of Lincolnton, on last Friday night, have seen fit to be guilty of ingratitude, we who feel ourselves grateful desire, in this way, to make known to the Ladies our deep appreciation of their kindness, and tender them our most sincere thanks for the Entertainment, the success of which is due their grace, amiability and goodness.

We are Respectfully,

THE APPRECIATING YOUNG MEN.
