Look Out Neighbors.

If some of our esteemed contemporaries don't quit throwing off on us about our egg and comet discoveries we will turn loose on them with Mr. L. B. Wetmore's nub of a howitzer which graces the Court Square.

Locals Down Hickory.

In an interesting ball game here last Friday the home boys defeated Hickory by the decisive score of 8 to 0. Heim was in the box for Lincolnton and only one measly hit was secured off his delivery. Lyrly for the visitors gave up only five bingles, but his support was not very good. Only one Hickory man reached second. Features were the pitching of Heims, catching of James, fielding of Shuford, batting of Nixon and all-round work of Padgett for the locals, while Lyrly's pitching and the routing of "fatty" Warlick were the features for the visitors.

Orphans Well Treated.

The Orphans from the Oxford Home gave a very delightful concert Saturday night to a packed house, the Court House being inadequate to accommodate the crowd. The programme consisted of songs, recitations, dialogues, etc. and the audience was very appreciative.

There were fifteen children in the class, which was in charge of Mr. J. S. Burch, Manager, and Miss Sattie Marler, Teacher. The Orphans arrived Saturday afternoon and left yesterday forenoon for Cherryville where they gave a concert last night. The receipts from the Lincolnton visit netted the orphans $100.

They were entertained as follows: With Mrs. J. S. Carter, Georgia Renno, Annie May Hudson; Mrs. J. W. Sain, Grace Ransom, Mary Holden; J. E. Love, Lucile Pike, Myrtle Rayfield; C. E. Childs, Bessie Fleming, Ivey Holden; Dr. I. R. Self, Virginia Hight, Bessie Oast; Dr. J. B. Wright, Alonzo Trueblood, Reuben Young; J. A. Abernethy, Junius Young, Frank Copps; M. C. Padgett, Rufus Owen, Glenn Owen; Mrs. R. C. Costner, Miss Sattie Marler; North State Hotel, J. S. Burch.

Lincolnton Union Depot.

Corporation Commissioner Sam L. Rogers returned yesterday morning from Lincolnton, where on Friday he heard the evidence of the town of Lincolnton and of the Seaboard Air Line Railway in the case on petition for the establishment of a union depot at that town by the Carolina and North Western Railway and the Seaboard.

The Carolina and North Western representatives missed connection en route and were not present. If that company insists upon being heard the Corporation Commission will hear their argument later.

The Seaboard Air Line was represented by Division Superintendent Gore and Major John D. Shaw, of Rockingham. The town of Lincolnton was represented by Capt. C. E. Childs.

The stenographic copies of the evidence will be in the hands of the commission in a few days and soon thereafter an opinion in the case will be written.

Mr. Rogers, seen in his office yesterday, was enthusiastic in his praise of the beautiful scenery about Lincolnton. He says the land is fertile, the crops of corn etc., luxuriant and the farmers and business men seem prosperous, contented and happy. Lincolnton, he says, has made remarkable progress in recent years.—News & Observer.

Ball's Creek Meeting.

The annual camp meeting at Ball's Creek, which closes this week, is reported to be the largest in the history of the camp ground. A large crowd attended from Lincolnton Sunday. The News was informed, by a gentleman who never misses these occasions, that the people were too numerous to number by hundreds and thousands, but there were acres and acres of men, women and children present Sunday. The order was good, the preaching excellent, and all had a good time.

Miss Hattie Caldwell, of Due West, who has been visiting Mesdames Shields and Roseman, has returned home.

A Happy House-Party.

Miss Josephine Murphy, of Hickory, has been visiting Miss Neal Roseman for several days, and the following young ladies will arrive Thursday to complete a jolly house-party at the delightful Roseman home on Battle Hill: Misses Jennie Bridges, of Birmingham, Mary and Annie McMillan, of Parkton, N. C., and Catherine Anderson, of Morganton.

The News is indebted to Capt. W. R. Edwards for a basket of very handsome tomatoes, raised in his own garden. The Captain evidently knows our weakness, for he could not have sent anything more acceptable.
