

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. J. L. Bird left for Marion Tuesday.

Miss Lena Statts spent Wednesday night in Cherryville.

Mr. Karl Rudisill went to Cherryville Thursday on business.

Mr. W. A. Bridges is visiting old friends here for several days.

Senator Jack Reinhardt has installed a new needle cotton gin in place of the old fashioned gin.

Mr. C. D. Shrum, of Lenoir, came down Tuesday afternoon for a stay of several days in Lincoln.

The Machpelah school house has recently been given a fresh coat of white paint, with trimmings of green.

Mrs. Susan Barr left yesterday for Monroe to visit her son, Mr. Walter Barr, of the Monroe Enquirer.

Mr. Claude Ramsaur is out again after being confined to his room for several days with the mumps.

Mrs. Sallie Bess, of North Brook township, spent Saturday and Sunday with her grand-daughter, Mrs. J. A. Self.

Mr. J. W. Hinkle, of Lowesville, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Emma Hinkle, were visitors to Lincolnton yesterday.

Asheville has gone dry by a majority of 848. There were 1700 votes cast, 426 being for liquor and 1274 against. The time is not far distant when the entire State will be prohibition.

Mr. Ambrose Costner was showing some friends a Bechtler gold dollar the other day. This was the first coin of this kind the scribe had ever seen. It seems these Carolina gold dollars are worth quite a premium.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Hoyle left this morning for Lincolnton taking their little boy Elgin, to the hospital there for an operation on his feet. Mr. Hoyle will return tomorrow while Mrs. Hoyle will remain with her son for some days. —Gastonia Gazette, 8th.

Preaching At Iron.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church at Iron next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, by Rev. R. Z. Johnston.

Mill Stocks Change Hands.

Mr. D. E. Rhyne and his associates have acquired $25,000 worth of stock in the Indian Creek cotton mill, Messrs. Mauney and Nicoler, of King's Mountain, selling their holdings.

A Sad Death.

Fitzhugh Beam, the bright seven year old son of Dr. J. L. Beam, of Crouse, died at the Lincoln Hospital Wednesday morning after suffering for a number of days with a severe case of peritonitis. The little body was carried to Crouse Wednesday afternoon for burial. Dr. J. L. Beam is himself desperately ill at the Lincoln Hospital and little hopes are entertained of his recovery. His sister Mrs. L. H. J. Houser, of Crouse, has come to Lincolnton to be at the bedside of her brother.

Fair Programme.

Charlotte, Oct. 10th. At a meeting Monday night of the directors of the Mecklenburg Fair Association four days of the week beginning October 21st were set apart in which to hold the seventh annual fair.

The first day, Oct. 22nd, will be "Childrens Day." Every school in the City and county will give holiday and arrangements have been made with the superintendants whereby 8,000 children will march to the exposition grounds in a body.

The second day, Oct. 23rd, will be "Charlotte Day." All banks, depots, places of business and manufacturing concerns will close that afternoon and night in order that employes may have an opportunity to visit the grounds and stay as long as they may desire.

The third day, October 24th, will be "Everybody's Day," and of course this day will take care of itself. The fourth and last day, October 25th, will be "Veterans and College Day."

Funeral of Mrs. W. W. Motz.

The people of Lincolnton were stunned by the sudden passing from their midst of Mrs. W. W. Motz on Sunday afternoon at eighteen minutes after three. For several days Mrs. Motz had been complaining and on Saturday was confined to her bed; but it was not until Sunday morning that any one knew how serious her condition was.

Mrs. Motz was formerly Miss Mary Helen Sherrill, the only daughter of Mr. S. P. Sherrill and Mrs. Barbara Henderson Cobb. She was born in Lincolnton on July 16 1867, and was married to Mr. William Wilson Motz on Nov. 16 1887. Surviving her are her husband, two children, Miss Lee and Carson Motz, her father, S. P. Sherrill, two brothers, Chas. C. Cobb, of Dallas Texas, and Rev. W. L. Sherrill, of Greensboro, a sister Mrs. Bettie Lee Ward, and a sister-in-law Mrs. T. H. Cobb, of Asheville.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. R. M. Courtney on Monday afternoon at five o'clock at the Methodist church where a large number of friends were gathered to pay the last tribute to their beloved friends. A quartette composed of Mrs. John Sain, Mrs. Laben Lineberger, Mr. Elder Love and Mr. I. F. Lineberger sang very softly "Art thou weary," "Lead Kindly Light," and "I would not live always," in the church. Then as the evening shadows were gathering again they sang at the grave "Someday we'll understand" and "Nearer my God to Thee". The pall bearers were Messrs. Edgar Love, A. M. Hoke, B. P. Caldwell, A. L. Quickel, W. A. Duke and W. M. Sherrill. Many beautiful floral offerings were the expressions of the love of her friends.

Mrs. Motz was a woman of rare charm and unselfishness, but only those nearest her knew the richness and exquisite beauty of her life.

A New Court House For Gaston.

Dallas, N. C., Oct. 8th.—At the recent term of Gaston Superior Court the grand jury recommended a new Court House. Today, immediately after this report was read before the board of county commissioners, in session here, the citizens of Dallas made the commissioners a liberable offer, showing thereby that they are greatly interested in a new building here. Their proposition was that they would give one-fourth of any amount up to $40,000, or would give $10,000 in case a building to cost more than that amount was decided on.

They then went further and pledged themselves to raise whatever amount over and above the one-fourth of $10,000 that was needed, in case the amount in the county treasury was not sufficient to build the house, this sum to be loaned to the county at the rate of 6 per cent.

Wife Shooter Jailed.

Gastonia, Oct. 9.—S. Sheehan, who Sunday night at the Clara mill shot his wife three times and then tried to kill himself by cutting his throat, was today carried to the county jail at Dallas, where he will be held for trial at the next term of Gaston Superior Court. Sheehan's wife had not been living with him for some time and when he tried to persuade her to return to him she refused and he opened fire on her. Later he tried his pocket knife on his own throat. His wife is seriously injured, but is expected to recover. Sheehan is himself in good shape again. Both have been in trouble here before, being of a low strata of society.—Charlotte Observer.

Cherryville Clippings.

The house occupied by John Short at Crouse narrowly escaped being destroyed by fire Sunday night while the family was attending preaching. Some of the neighbors discovered the blaze in time to extinguish the fire and little damage was done.

Sidney Anthony and Miss Nancy Hoyle were married just across the line in South Carolina last Thursday night.

The groom is a well-to-do young man and conducts a restaurant at this place, while the bride is an attractive young lady and has a host of friends in this section.

C. C. Coruwell, the popular and efficient clerk of the Superior Court will leave on October 9th for a trip to the Jamestown Exposition and other points of interest. He will be absent about ten days.—Cherryville Eagle.

Death of Mr. Schrum.

Newton, Oct. 7th.—At the solemn hour of midnight last night the angel of death entered the home of Mr. E. P. Schrum, of this place, and laid his icy hand upon the venerable father of the house, Mr. Solomon Schrum. Eighty-three winters' blasts and summers' heat had passed over his head, and until the past month Mr. Schrum was as hale and hearty as a man of 50. Reared a farmer, his delight was in tilling the ground and making it give forth its increase; and he was one of the first and foremost sweet potato raisers in the county, and was noted for the fine quality of his tubers.

Mr. Schrum was born and reared in Lincoln county, but early moved to Crutwba county near Maiden, where he accumulated considerable real estate. He also owned a number of houses and lots in Newton and Maiden and was one of the wealthiest citizens. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Carpenter, by whom he had one son, his only child, Mr. Edward P. Schrum. After her death he married a Mrs. Hass, nee Miss Houser, who died about seventeen years ago.—Charlotte Observer.

High Shoals Items.

Mr. Editor: As it has been quite awhile since I have written to your valuable paper I will now try to send you a few notes.

Mrs. Ila Huss spent Sunday with Mrs. Christy Kaiser.

Messrs. Fayette Kaiser, John Carpenter, and wife, and Miss Venia Carpenter have just returned from Jamestown, Washington, and other points; they report a most pleasant time.

Miss Alice Kaiser spent Saturday night with Miss Lizzie Carpenter.

Miss Emma Lee Carpenter, of Gaston College, spent Saturday night with homefolks.

Mr. John Daniel, of this place, who was recently married to a Miss Webb, of Forest City, have just returned from a tour through the North.

Mrs. P. S. Carpenter spent Sunday with Mrs. M. R. Abernathy. The annual Childrens' Service will be held at Bethel Lutheran church Saturday, October 19th., everyone is invited to come. There will be communion the next day, also the funeral of the deceased Miss Julia Ramsey.

Wishing much success to The News and its many readers, I close.

BETH.

Mrs. C. H. Shope, of Waynesville, is visiting Mrs. John Mallard.

Make The Best of It.

There is scarcely anyone who does not think but that he has been unjustly dealt with, either by nature or fortune. If these individual imperfections can be remedied, strive in every legitimate way to help ourselves. If not, make the best of them. It is not so much our own actual condition of life that breeds happiness as the use which we make of our opportunities. Some people will be cheery and useful anywhere, and under any livable conditions. Others are correspondingly dismal. Therefore, as a matter of self-convenience, make the best of things. A smile and a bright word will lead you to success, when dismal thoughts mean failure.
