TRIM THE TREES.

It has been suggested by several persons, who are good authorities on such matters, that now is the time to trim trees. There is no question about the trees on the streets needing attention along this line, and if the property owners would look after the trees and shrubbery on their own lots, and have the trimming done between now and the 15th of March not only the trees would be greatly benefited but the general appearance of the town would be highly improved. There will be a great many visitors in Lincolnton this summer and it is "up to" all of us to do our best to make the town appear to its very best advantage. First impressions are most lasting, so lets try to have a "city beautiful" to greet the eyes of our visitors when they come in May.

Flay Notes.

The snow, ice, rain and sleet has disappeared and we are having some sunshine now. The roads have been in a desperate condition but are drying off rapidly. Everything is quiet around our village these days.

W. C. Childers has built an addition to his tenant house.

Miss Francis H. Hull will move to her brother, W. M. Hull's, at an early date.

The firm of Beam & Childers has added a shingle mill to their machinery and are now cutting shingles.

Mr. John Childers had the misfortune to get his hand caught in some machinery at Flay last week and got his hand badly cut.

Mr. Tom Baxter got his leg badly hurt at a chopping and wood sawing last week by a tree falling on his thigh, but is doing well now.

Esq. T. M. Foster was in our town Saturday. The 'Squire is an interesting talker.

Clarence, Sallie and Lola Ledford, of Casar, were visitors at C. L. Brown's Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Ceph. Blanton, of the A. Blanton Grocery Co., of Shelby, was in our place Friday.

Mr. Plato Houser is delivering lumber at Bessimer City.

There is plenty of cotton in the hands of the farmers around here. Still holding for more money.

Anna Brown is attending Piedmont High School.

Mr. Will Porter, of Belwood, seems to have a "hankering" about Orleans. Some business transaction we suppose.

Mr. Jackson Wright's family are moving back to the cotton mills at Lincolnton, but he will stay on the farm and raise a crop.

CORRESPONDENT.

If you suffer with indigestion, constipation, feel mean and cross, no strength or appetite, your system is unhealthy. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes the system strong and healthy. 35c, Tea or Tablets. K. L. Lawing.

Mr. Cain Heavner was in town yesterday and told the news man of a grandson who promises to be as big as he is. This is a baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Falls and weighed 18 1-2 lbs at the age of 10 weeks.

Why get up in the morning feeling blue, Worry others and worry you; Here's a secret between you and me, Better take Rocky Mountain Tea. K. L. Lawing.

Mr. D. B. Thompson has moved into his handsome new residence near Mr. Frank Beal's.

Rev. Eugene Heald, who is attending the Episcopal Convocation, is at the North State Hotel, the guest of Mr. Will Sumner.

ASHELEY HORNE'S PLATFORM.

developed so as to furnish remunerative employment and opportunities for advancement at home, our young men would stay at home and build up this great State, instead of going to the South and West. We would then hardly feel the need for foreign immigration.

In conclusion, let me again express my regret at my inability to be with you on the 22nd instant. I hope that I can get to Wadesboro before very long, and have the pleasure of becoming better acquainted with your people.

I trust the Washington Birthday celebration will be a happy occasion, and that you will assure all who attend of my sincere regret at not being permitted to be with you.

With kind personal regards, I remain,

Yours very sincerely,
(Signed) ASHELEY HORNE.

Catawba Clippings.

License was issued Friday to Mr. Carp Sigmon and Miss Vertie Winebarger of this county.

Miss Susie Carroll returned from a visit to Lincolnton yesterday.

Mrs. Ella Carroll went to Lincolnton to visit her mother, Mrs. Bean, who is very sick.

Quite an excitement was created here Saturday at noon for a few minutes when Mr. J. A. Garvin's house caught on fire though it did but little damage.

Mr. J. P. Yount has been chosen by the family to be Administrator of the estate of Mr. E. P. Schrum. This is a good selection as Mr. Yount is a good business man and is familiar with the details of the estate as he has been the life partner of the deceased. The estate is a large one, and estimated at $125,000. Had Mr. Schrum lived the natural term of life he would have been a very wealthy man, as he was a wise manager of all his business interests.—Catawba County News, Feb. 25th.

Items From Pleasant Home.

We have been having some very fine weather for the past few days. The farmers have been busy plowing getting ready for the summer crop.

The second quarterly meeting for the South Fork circuit was held at Zion church Saturday and Sunday. Rev. R. M. Hoyle, of Shelby, did some fine preaching.

Rev. E. H. Kohn filled his regular appointment at Bethpage Sunday, and, after March, he will preach twice a month, on the fourth Sunday morning and the second Sunday evening.

Mr. A. J. Heavner's little son met with an unfortunate accident last week, by getting his arm painfully but not seriously burnt, but is improving now.

Mrs. M. L. Heavner has been quite sick for a few days, but is improving at this writing.

Mr. Burgin Heavner lost a fine milk cow last week by eating too much meal.

Serence Bros. & Co., moved their saw mill this week on Pleasant Home hill.

Mr. Claude Smith has been sick with grippe for the past week; hope he will soon be able to be in school again.

Mr. Griss Heavner had a big chopping last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ritchey, of Catawba county, visited Mrs. Ritchey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Heavner last week.

Misses Flossie Ramsey, Mattie Hoover and Ethel Houser, of Leonards Fork, spent Sunday at Mr. George Heavners.

Our school at Pleasant Home will close the 14th of March with an entertainment. The exercises will open promptly at 10 o'clock. Every body is cordially invited to come.

LITTLE ONES.

Mrs. Jennie Robinson, of Charlotte, came up Wednesday and paid a hurried visit to her parents, returning Wednesday afternoon.

Lowesville Locals.

Feb. 24, 1908.

There seems to be an epidemic of grippe in our neighborhood at present. There is sickness in almost every family.

Our dramatic play, "The Deacon," has been postponed, on account of sickness. We are planning to present it on the evening of the 14th of March.

Those who attended the box supper at Machpelah Friday evening report a nice time.

Miss Lula Kincaid has suspended school a few days on account of sickness at home.

All of our neighborhood were made sad on last Saturday by the death of Mr. David Kincaid. He was taken severely ill with pneumonia last Tuesday and lived till four o'clock Saturday. He was buried at Hill's Chapel Sunday at two o'clock, Brother D. P. Waters conducting the burial services very impressively. Mr. Kincaid was born January 18, 1834, and departed this life at the age of 74 years, 1 month and 4 days. He was a veteran of the Civil war, having enlisted under Capt. Thomas Lowe in Company C, 28th Regiment at the beginning of the war and served four years. He took part in the battle of Gettysburg, receiving a ball in his shoulder, which he carried through life. In 1870, he married a Miss Beatty, of Gaston county, and to them was born one child. The mother lived but a few years. The son preceded his father to the grave a few years. He married again in 1877. His last wife, with one son, survive to mourn his loss, with a host of friends.

Mr. Kincaid served his county in the State Legislature in 1870, and has always been one of the county's noblest and most upright men. He joined the Methodist church when a boy and lived a consistent member all through life. He served as Sunday school superintendent for nearly 30 years and did his most effectual work for the Master in teaching his class. His life was a beautiful life "Among a grove the very straightest." His death was a victory, but he will be sadly missed. Our hearts go out in sympathy to the mother and son.

O sable casket! Thou hast A precious treasure within the fold; Gentle, patient, loving brother, Now so silent and so cold.

Brother, uncle, papa, grandpa, In reply no gentle answer more; No cheerful greeting to Heal our bleeding hearts so sore.

O cruel death! That claims Our loved ones for his own; Why select the choicest treasure, And leave our hearts so torn.

Weep not, O weep not! A gentle voice hath said, Thy brother sleepeth, Only sleepeth and is not dead.

Asleep in Jesus, Folded in the kript of his love, Not cold in death, But gone to the bright home above.

Soul too pure for Its time-worn house of clay, God saw and pitied, Came and kissed his spirit away.

I think when the call from his Master came, He held his breath to listen, Joy filled his heart, It forgot to beat; he answered in heaven.

O modest flower! God's kind of hero, beautiful and fair, Dead in body, But alive in spirit forever there.

Gone to reap The harvest of good seed sown, Gone to inherit the kingdom Christ prepares for his own.

SALADIN.

Dean John S. Moody, of Hickory is the guest of Mrs. W. A. Hoke.
