MONDAY, MARCH 28, 1921
The bond campaign is over. Vote your sentiments "for school bonds."

Tuesday, March 29th is the big day in Lincoln. $200,000 is involved.
Polls opened at 8 a. m. have you voted "For School Bonds." Vote. It is your privilege and duty.
Almost everybody you see favors education. Some favor it stronger than others.
Last Call. If you have not already done so, vote "for school bonds" and give your school trustees something with which to improve your schools.

The week of April 4-9 has been proclaimed as clean-up week in North Carolina. Many here in this town have already done considerable towards getting rid of back yard rubbish, and others will perhaps now join in the movement.

Very little has been said thus far as to the city election for mayor and aldermen. The Democrats will perhaps begin to look about for candidates for the Democratic municipal ticket now that the school bond campaign is over. It is supposed that there will be two tickets as usual.

Every voter in Lincoln has the privilege of expressing themselves at the polls "for school bonds" or "against school bonds. Which is your Let it be "for school bonds" and back of your school trustees, who need your encouragement in their problems.

VOTE—by all means vote. Settle it with the white slip.
Whatever the verdict, it is about over; if you have voted. There are about 785 who put their names on the books.

THE FLY MENACE.
The unusually mild winter presages say the authorities, a season that will be favorable to the development of the house fly, which is such an active agent in the spread of disease. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty from disease brought in this way.
Now is the time to kill the fly. He multiplies with astonishing rapidity. It is said that to kill one now means fewer flies by millions later on.
But unless every family was watchful to slay the fly the main safeguard against the fly at present is not to depend on all being killed but jealously to guard against contamination of food by the fly. Housewives who want to protect their children from disease and save the expense of sickness and the grief and expense entailed by death cannot adopt a better plan of defense than to keep everlastingly watchful of the fly. Take any sort of pains necessary to keep him off the food. The results will be worth many times the trouble.

Rutherfordton Cor. Charlotte Observer: The 14th annual meeting of the Kings Mountain Presbyterial will meet here Thursday and Friday, March 31 and April 1, with Miss Corinne Puett presiding. Rev. C. M. Caldwell, of Graham, a returned missionary, will deliver an address on foreign missions. Rev. R. C. Long, of Gastonia, is expected to deliver an address. The presbyterial is composed of the five counties of Gaston, Cleveland, Lincoln, Polk and Rutherford. A large crowd is expected to attend.

ORGANIZE DOMESTIC SCIENCE CLUB
The girls of the Oak Groves Community met and organized a "Domestic Science Club." They elected the following officers:
Elsie Haynes, President, Annie Ramsey, Vice President, Fay Biggerstaff Secretary.
They named their club "The Sunshine Workers."
The following are members: Annie Ramsey, Elsie Haynes, Fay Biggerstaff, Dama Biggerstaff, Ruth Philmon, Annie Huns, Helen Biggerstaff, Pauline Biggerstaff, Aileen Mitchum, Typhonia Costner, Lucile Heedick, Pauline Propst and Mary Willie Whittener.
We have already had three lessons in cooking, making Hot Chocolate, Brown Bread and Nut Bread.
Our aim is to make the best better. Our regular time for meeting is Thursday 10 a. m.
Fay Biggerstaff Secretary.

THE NEGRO AND HIS AUTO
Tom Stanton, Cropper on Mr. R. B. Riddle's Farm in Bethel Township Has $1,000 Automobile Standing Up In The Shed—No Money To Buy Gas.
(Views and Interviews in Yorkville Enquirer.)
Made a trip to Ridleville, with Albert Riddle Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Riddle was going up there to help his brothers R. S. and T. Howard get started their Fordsons which had been standing up unused since last fall, and Views and Interviews went along for the pleasure of the trip. Stopped at R. B. Riddle's a few minutes to say "howdy," and incidentally ran upon some facts that furnished a typical confirmation of the truth of the editorial comment in The Yorkville Enquirer of Tuesday concerning the relations between farmer-owner and farmer-renter and laborer.
Over in a field near by, a young negro man was breaking up corn land with a two horse plow. Observing the work and the workman, Mr. Albert Riddle inquired of his father:
"What's Tom doing with his automobile now?"
"Nothing," replied the father. "It is just standing in the garage. He did not have the money to get a license tag, and he has no gas."
The Tom, referred to was Tom Stanton, twenty-four, who, is explained had been born and raised on the place and had never been off it more than a few weeks at a time.

Both the Riddles seemed amused about the automobile and Views and Interviews wanted to know the joke. This is the story as told by Mr. R. B. Riddle:
"Tom had been saving up his money until he had about a thousand dollars when he took a notion that he wanted an automobile. I advised him against the purchase, telling him that he had better keep his money in the bank; but nothing else would do him, so of course I did not insist any further. He bought his car and had a good time with it until his money ran out and then he had to run the car in.
"Along about the latter part of December, I called Tom's attention to the fact that he would have to get a new license tag for 1921. He had no money and I knew it. He replied:
"They can't bother me if I let my car stay in the house, can they?"
"I told him they couldn't and then I went on to tease him a little with the question as to whether he was sorry now that he had not left his money in the bank and done without an automobile.
"Rather have my automobile than all the money there is," he declared. He don't talk much but that is just what he meant.
"Not long ago I observed that Tom was almost barefooted, and suggested that he should have some shoes.
"Got no money," he replied, "and will do without shoes," but when I told him what this spring weather might do to him in the way of pneumonia on account of his bare feet, he was glad enough to accept my offer to get him a pair of shoes which I did."

WAR RISK INSURANCE TO STOP LAST OF NEXT JULY
Washington, March 25.—Military allotments or allowances under the war risk insurance act will expire automatically on July 31. Controller Warwick of the treasury holds in a ruling made public today.
The ruling was based on the resolution adopted by the last congress repealing most of the wartime acts. War risk insurance bureau officials were unable today to give accurate figures concerning the number of sailor, soldier and marine allotments that would be affected, but it was said that the men in the service at home and abroad are still sending allotments which are duplicated by the government, to their relatives at home.
Mr. Warwick holds that the resolution repealed the war risk insurance act within four calendar months after its adoption by congress and that consequently the allotments made to the military forces must cease on that date.

Oh How Glorious to Be Free From Rheumatism's Tortures!
Just suppose you could be free from your deep-seated, agonizing rheumatic aches and pains, your stiff joints and unsightly swellings! Wouldn't you give anything to get rid of them?
You have doubtless rubbed on outside treatments; most rheumatism sufferers have. Some of these take the edge off the terrible pains for a few hours, but they do not strike at the cause, which nearly always lies in the poisoned, impoverished blood. When this is so, you need an internal remedy, one that will take out the impurities that are torturing you, one like famous S.S.S., which has relieved thousands of cases of rheumatism all over the country just this way.
Get S.S.S. from your druggist today, and after starting with it write us a history of your case, addressing Chief Medical Advisor, 877 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia.
