MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1921.

A woman in New York writes a note saying "the pace is too fast and the liquor has driven me crazy," and then shot her former chum, a woman, and committed suicide. Another flash from high life in the great cities.

If this hot weather keeps up frost will hardly bite the Lincoln County Fair exhibits in November.

A CROWD EXPECTED FRIDAY
Lincolnton is expecting a big crowd here next Friday at 2 p. m. for the cornerstone laying of Lincoln county's new temple of justice, which is now in course of construction. Not only people from this county but from adjoining counties will be here, the auto making it easy for a crowd to assemble from a distance all in a day.

CHOSE TO SERVE THE PEOPLE
The death of Mr. Walter Thompson, the head of the children's home is a sad blow to that institution and to the state, for he was one of God's noblemen. Discussing his departure the Hickory Record says:
"It was not the Record's pleasure to know Walter Thompson, who died at Winston-Salem yesterday following a long illness, but like thousands of others in the state it had known and appreciated his good work as head of the Children's home. Mr. Thompson took charge of this institution at a time when it needed a

DR. HENDERLITE TO MAKE ADDRESS AT CORNERSTONE LAYING FRIDAY

Cornerstone Laying of the New Court House At 2 P. M. Friday of This Week — Many Visitors Expected From County and Other Counties in This Section.

Rev. J. H. Henderlite, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Gastonia, and the Grand Chaplin of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, has been secured by the cornerstones laying committee of Lincoln Lodge No. 137, A. F. & A. M. to deliver the principal address on the occasion of the cornerstone laying of Lincoln's new courthouse next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The committee in charge of the cornerstone laying ceremonies, composed of Dr. I. R. Self, Messrs. T. C. Abernethy and Herbert Miller, are shaping up the various matters for the big occasion in the life of Lincoln county, and expect a great crowd here on Friday for the exercises. As already stated in these columns, the ceremonies incident to the cornerstone laying will be in charge of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, and Grand Master J. Bailey Owen, of Henderson, and other Grand Lodge officials are expected to be present and take part.

The entire public throughout this section of the state has been invited and an unusually large crowd is expected in Lincolnton Friday.

strong head, gave it new life and enthused Methodists everywhere in his work. He was well qualified for the position.

There can be no nobler calling than that of training orphan children. Mr. Thompson could have made a name for himself in many other fields, but he chose to serve the people in the capacity of guiding young children who need more than a shelter, clothes and food. That he and the institution he presided over have been a protecting and guiding home for the youngsters committed to them is a matter of pride.

The state will miss this splendid leader.

These high life parties like the Arbuckle affair seem to be getting results. Too much liquor and conversation, and loafing around is playing the dickens in high life. Too often liquor and high life stuff ends with coroner's jury on the job.

JUDGE BOND TIGHTENS UP IN DIVORCE RULING
Raleigh, Sept. 23.—Judge W. M. Bond, holding court in Wake County today, startled local and visiting lawyers when he held that in divorce summons the officers who serves the process must inform the summoned party that he has 20 days in which to answer the complaint. That means of course, that the summons must embody this provision in accordance with the consolidated statutes, with Judge Bond construes to make mandatory the 20 days notice.

The Judge declared this ruling during a hotly contested trial case in Wake court. His purpose, he said, was to make sure that no divorce may be invalidated by defective summons. He declared it possible that divorces and remarriages involving property rights to the children by each marriage are possible, in his opinion, by reason of these imperfect instruments of summons.

He admitted that hundreds of such summons had been issued. He doubtless had done as others, but hereafter he will hold to the ruling of today.

It seems that Harding early acquired the G. O. P. habit of saying a great deal and meaning very little.—The Hornet.

NEGRO MURDERER IN LINCOLN JAIL

The man hunt ended in Iredell county Sunday when Bob Benson, murderer of a white man named Robert Dishman, gave himself up at a farm house in Iredell county. The negro was very nervous, and was naked, he having torn all of his clothing from his body running through the woods from the searching parties. The negro was turned over to the officers of Statesville, and fearing a mob the negro was brought to Lincolnton Sunday night by a Statesville officer and placed in the county jail. The sheriff of Iredell phoned Sheriff Abernethy in this city that a mob was alleged to be forming in Iredell to come to Lincolnton to get the negro, and it was then that the negro was removed to Charlotte jail. Sheriff Abernethy, Policeman Howard Leonard and Jaile Summey secured a car and started for the Charlotte jail shortly after midnight and delivered the prisoner safely in Charlotte where he is being held to await a hearing on the murder charge. The negro is charged with clubbing Dishman to death Sunday a week ago.

AUGICULTURAL MEETING
Special meeting of the Boys and Girls Agricultural clubs, and of committees will be held as follows:
Thursday night, Oak Grove 7:30 P. M.
Friday night Macpelah 7:30 P. M.
Saturday night, Gainesville, 7:30 P. M.

We are anxious for every member of the agricultural club to be present as well as the people of the community. A community singing will be held in connection with the Oak Grove meeting. Jerry Mundy has been invited to attend meeting at Macpelah.

There will be a meeting at Dorothy Yount's Saturday 3 p. m. in interest of demonstration team in poultry work. Public invited.

That Arbuckle affair in San Francisco is so rotten that the natural desire of decent people, aside from that hope that those guilty of crime may be punished, is to turn away and forget it. But one feature appears which, while common enough, is and will always be a matter for concern. Immediately following the death of the girl Arbuckle's friends were busy tampering with witnesses, bribing them to hide the truth or getting them out of the way. The district attorney stated that one witness who had been summoned was on his way to Chicago "and no legal means exists to bring him back." It would seem that lack of legal means to compel an absentee witness to report and testify is a serious defect that would call for prompt remedy.—Statesville Landmark.

GOVERNOR DECLINES TO COMMIT HARRIS SENTENCE

Last week in Raleigh Ex-Governor Craig, Judge Carter, and Jude Jones, three mighty lawyers appearing before Governor Morrison in behalf of commutation for T. J. Harris, well-do Redgecrest merchant, who is under death sentence for slaying a wealthy Alabama churchman, F. W. Monnish, failed to move Governor Morrison today, and Harris must pay the supreme penalty for his crime on October 20.

NATION TO STAND AT PAUSE TWO MINUTES ARMISTICE DAY

To Pay Honor to Unknown Dead of World War While Soldier's Body From France Will Be Buried in Arlington.

Washington, Sept. 23.—The nation will stand at pause for two minutes on Armistice Day to pay honor to the unknown dead of the great war.

Detailed plans for the ceremony at Arlington cemetery on that day, when the body brought back from France is to be buried, were made public today by the war department and include a proclamation by President Harding calling the two-minute halt at noon throughout the nation to be devoted to prayer and reverent memories for the dead.

The body, returned from France on the cruiser Olympia, will reach Washington after night-fall November 9 and will lie in state in the Capitol building until Armistice Day morning, November 11. It will then be escorted by a great mourning party to Arlington cemetery, the line of march being guarded throughout its length by troops stationed along the way.

The mourning party will include all living holders of the congressional medal of honor who may desire to come; one war veteran out of every 10,000 who served from each state in the great war; an officer and an enlisted man from each unit of the army and navy; and representatives of the congressional medal of honor who may desire to come; one war veteran out of every 10,000 who served from from each state in the great war; an officer and an enlisted man from each unit of the army and navy, and representatives of the American legion and other veterans' organizations and the various patriotic societies.

From American military posts everywhere in the world minute guns of mourning will sound from sunrise until after the burial ceremonies in Washington have been completed.

Plans for the ceremony were made public by Major General Harbord, acting secretary of war and chief of staff, today in the absence of Secretary Weeks and General Pershing. They were drawn up under General Harbord's personal supervision and provide, with the detailed completeness of army orders in the field, for every phase of the solemn ceremony with which nation will pay tribute to the men whose identity as well as those whose lives lost on the battle-fields of France.

Salisbury, N. C., Sept. 22.—Two cents in damages were awarded to Mrs. Melissa J. Woodington, by a Rowan county superior court jury here yesterday in a suit for $10,000 against W. A. Roseman, a grocer, whom Mrs. Woodington alleged sold her husband flavoring extracts which he drank, causing him to mistreat her. The husband was a witness for the plaintiff. Roseman also was burdened with the costs in the case.

BRINGING OUT THE MONEY
(From The Moore County News.)
From the number of black and dirty coins seen nowadays, it is evident that much money is being put into circulation that has been hoarded and some of it has probably been buried. The banks also report that much torn paper money is being presented for redemption.
