

Later from Honduras. THE REVOLUTION—FIGHT WITH ROBBERS—MEETING OF AMERICAN CITIZENS.

Boston, Oct. 8, 1855. By the brig Helen Jane, Nickerson, arrived at this port, we have Truxillo dates to the 7th of September.

Business in that city and Omea was exceedingly dull, on account of the revolution throughout the State of Honduras. The different departments which had declared against the President, Cabanos, had all, however, yielded, except the Departments of Olancha and Yoro, which still held out, and General Alvarez, at the head of 500 government troops, was marching against the rebels.

On the 3d of September news arrived in Truxillo that a party of robbers under Albino Pena, numbering about 60 men, were marching on the town, and intending making a midnight attack. The commandant of Truxillo sent out a small party to reconnoiter, but they were surprised in the night by robbers, disarmed, and allowed to return. On their arrival in Truxillo the alarm became general, and about 300 citizens offered their services to the commandant. Arms and ammunition was distributed to the volunteers, and Truxillo presented quite a warlike appearance.

The United States Consular agent sent his family on board the Helen Jane, then lying in the port, and was followed by the families of the principal part of the inhabitants, to the number of 100 persons, with their movable property, where they remained three days. On the 15th, news came of the near approach of the robbers, when a party of 60 men were sent to attack them. The two parties met on the following day, and the robbers were defeated with considerable loss. The leader, Pena, was taken prisoner, and immediately shot, and afterwards had his head and right hand cut off. The alarm in Truxillo was such that a number of the inhabitants sent their families and much of their property to the Isle of Rattery. When the Helen Jane left, the town was more quiet, but apprehension was felt of more difficulties.

The leader and head of the revolutionists in Honduras had been killed in battle. Capt. Nickerson states that a meeting of the American residents of Truxillo was held previous to his leaving, at which resolutions were passed soliciting the United States government to have a man-of-war occasionally touch there for their protection.

Later from Mexico. NEW ORLEANS, October 12. The Steamer Orixaba has arrived with Mexican dates of the 8th. Alvarez had been elected by the college at Cuernavaca. It was first thought that General La Vega would oppose his entrance into the Capital and that hard fighting would ensue.—The latter had overthrown the civil powers and had refused to obey the orders of Alvarez to arrest the fugitive ministers of Santa Anna. Minnow who was superseded by La Vega had repaired to Alvarez and returned with orders to resume the civil supremacy. The latest advices state that the troops had sworn allegiance to Alvarez and that General Conde had been appointed Commander in place of La Vega removed. Alvarez had formed a Ministry with O'Campo as Minister of Foreign Affairs, Comonfort Minister of War and Ivarez Minister of the Interior and Justice.

Pennsylvania Election. PHILADELPHIA, October 13. The Democratic majorities continue to pour in and there is no doubt of a large Democratic majority in the State.

Ohio Election. CINCINNATI, October 12. Chase, Republican, is elected Governor by 20,000 majority over Meddell, Democrat, and Trimble, American. The Legislature is largely Republican.

Markets. NEW ORLEANS, October 12. Sales of cotton during the week 50,000 bales. Receipts ahead of last year 94,000 bales. Stock 155,000. Sugar has declined 51-6d. Coffee higher.

NEW YORK, October 13. There is nothing doing in Cotton. Flour slightly lower.—Ohio $8.62. Wheat unsettled.—Corn buoyant. Provisions unchanged. Turpentine drooping. Rice unchanged.

Indiana Election. NEW YORK, October 11. A despatch from Indianapolis says that the Democratic majority in Marion county is 500. Last year the county gave nearly 700 majority for the Fusionists. Vanderburg county gives 400 Democratic majority. Last year it gave 136 majority for Fusion.

Ohio Elections. CINCINNATI, October 10. The returns of the election held yesterday in this State come forward slowly.—Trimble, the American candidate for Governor, has received a larger vote than was generally expected, but the contest lies chiefly between Chase, Republican, and Meddell Democrat. Thus far the return favors Mr. Chase.

CINCINNATI, October 11. It is conceded here that Chase, Republican and Know Nothing, is elected by 10,000 majority. The Democratic majority in Hamilton county is about 8,000.

CINCINNATI, October 11—noon. Returns from 53 counties give Chase, the Republican candidate for Governor, 9700 majority. Thirty seven counties are yet to hear from, which will probably increase his majority some 3000 more.

From the Montgomery Alabama Mail. LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP CANADA. DECLINE IN COTTON.

30,000 Allies Landed in the Crimea. RUSSIANS FORTIFYING THE NORTH SIDE.

NEW YORK, October 10, 1855. The steamship Canada has arrived at this port. Cotton has declined 1/4. Breadstuffs are unchanged.

The money market is stringent. The Bank of England has raised its rate of interest to five per cent. Consols 88 1/2 to 88 1/4.

THE WAR. The Allies have landed 300,000 men at Eupatoria to act against the Russian flank. The Russians are strongly fortifying the North side of Sebastopol.

There have been heavy storms in the Crimea. The Allies will raze the fortifications of Sebastopol.

From the Columbia (S. C.) Times. Further from California—Arrival of the Philadelphia. NEW ORLEANS, October 15.

The steamer Philadelphia has arrived bringing the California mails of the 20th. The Know Nothings had carried the State by three thousand to five thousand majority, with majorities in both branches of the Legislature. The prohibitory liquor law had been defeated.

Destructive fires had occurred at Weaverville and Grass Valley, involving a loss of $800,000. The United States Consul at Panama had struck his flag on account of an insult from the Government.

Japan dates of June 23d state that the Russian treaty had been forfeited. Arrival of the Northern Light. NEW YORK, October 14.

The Steamer Northern Light has arrived, with California dates to September 20th, and $460,000 in gold. Governor Kinney has resigned the governorship of Nicaragua.

The Steamer Uncle Sam had lost a hundred and six passengers from cholera going up. The Yellow Fever. NEW ORLEANS, October 15.

The deaths from yellow fever last week amounted to only twenty-four, including nineteen at the hospital. Markets. NEW YORK, October 13.

Cotton is unsettled, with sales of 700 bales at 9 1/2 cents for Middling Orleans, and 9 1/4 for Uplands. Flour firm: Southern $9.37, Red $2.05. Corn tending downward: mixed 94 1/2; Turpentine buoyant. Rosin steady. Freight steady. Exchange dull.

A Strong Kiss.—Pennyson, in his poem of "Fatima," relates the strongest case of suction within our knowledge at present. Speaking of a lover's kiss, he says, or rather she says: "Last night when some one spoke his name, From my swift blood that went and came, A thousand little shafts of flame Were shivered in my narrow frame: O love! O fire! Once he drew, With one long kiss my whole soul through My lips, as sunlight drinketh dew."

She leaves a devoted husband, a deeply afflicted father, and three small children, besides a large circle of friends, to mourn the loss of one who filled her place well in all the relations of life.
