ANCIENT EGYPT IS BROUGHT INTO EYE OVER TUTS. TOMB

Swivel handle barbers razor Found and also bronze Mirrors

ALSO GROUP OF FISH HOOKS ARE FOUND

(By Associated Press)

PITTSBURGH, March, 9.—Douglas Stewart, director of the Museum of the Carnegie Institute, reports the liveliest interest on the part of the public in the life of ancient Egypt. The discoveries in the tomb of Tutankhamun at Luxor have, he says, made the history of 35 centuries ago present day news. Public curiosity has been aroused in a civilization of which most people had never heard, and the visitors are fascinated by the physical mementoes of a long gone race.

The largest exhibit in the museum is the remains of a Nile boat of an armiral, buried with him according to the custom of interring the tools of trade with the dead. There is not a nail in this boat. It is fastened together by wooden pins dove tailed into the timbers, and by thongs. It dates from 4000 B. C., 500 years before Tutankhamun's time, or 600 years before Abraham went to Ur of the Chaldees.

Even older is one of several kohl pots, made about 5000 B. C. which were used to contain eye paint for the Egyptian beauties of the court. It is covered with a very thin layer of pure gold, similar to the gold found in Tutankhamun's tomb by Lord Carnarvon.

Bronze mirrors appropriately find a place beside the eye paint pots. Nearby a razor of the eighteenth dynasty is seen to be of precisely the same model as the old style razor of today, working on a swivel handle, and proving that barbers shaved their customers 2500 years ago just as they do today. A group of fish hooks of 1580 B. C. constitutes another exhibit where the design has not changed in 35 centuries.

LONDON DOG SHOW HAS RECORD ENTRY LIST

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, March, 9.—There was a world's record entry of 5,766 dogs at this winter's annual show at the Agricultural Hall, Islington. They came from all parts of the country, and included enormous Great Danes and Alsatians down to the tiniest Pekinese.

King George exhibited some fine Labrador retrievers and won first prize with one of them. The entries indicate that the breeding and keeping of Alsatians is on the increase there being over 500 of this breed as compared with 20 in 1918. Of the terrier class, Sealyhams appear to be most popular, but were run close by Kerry Blues, which have come into favor very quickly, since their first appearance at the Crufts show last year.

St. Bernards, mastiffs, bloodhounds and other big dogs were numerous, but perhaps the dog which attracted most attention was a long-haired Dachshund, a variety hitherto practically unknown in England.

THE KING AND QUEEN EAT WITH LABOR MEN

British Royalty Guests at banquet Given by Viscount And Lady Astor.

COL. HARVEY IS THERE

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, March, 9.—The king and queen for the first time in their lives broke bread with labor members of parliament tonight in the home of one of their subjects. The occasion was a dinner given by Viscount and Lady Astor, at which their majesties met among others James Henry Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, John Robert Clynes, president of the National Union of General Workers and former labor leader in the house, and Philip Snowden, and their wives.

Labor came in silken knee breeches which was jocosely described as a concession, and there also were present those who wear the cherished garter. Balfour, Salisbury and Grey of Falloden.

The affair, unique in British social history, was arranged as much to permit the king and queen to meet in social intercourse with the laborites as to allow the laborites to come into social contact with their rulers. It was said that the king had made known his desire to meet the leaders of the labor party in such a manner.

Lady Astor, whose campaign for political honors was characterized by much banter, greeted the laborites when they appeared in knee breeches with joking remarks. She whispered "pull up your stockings" in the ear of Mr. Thomas and even inquired of the Canadian high commissioner, Mr. Larken, if his stockings were on straight.

The American ambassador escaped remark on his black knickerbockers because he has frequently appeared in them and has become a familiar figure in the customary court dress.

Before the arrival of the king and queen Lady Astor was heard jokingly telling the laborites how to receive his majesty, advising them to say "Yes sir" and "No Sir" or "yes your Majesty," or "No Your Majesty."

Viscount Astor escorted the queen to the banquet hall while Lady Astor entered on the arm of the king. Once she looked back and urged her guests to hurry, for the labor members were apparently expecting that the usual precedence by rank would be in order, while the others, of the nobility, seemed anxious to hold back.

The guests sat at two large round tables amid the fragrance of pink tulips and other blossoms. The diners included in addition to those (Continued on page four)

RICHMOND HAS CITY WIDE CLEAN UP

(By Associated Press)

RICHMOND, March, 9.—A city-wide round-up of bootleggers by federal prohibition enforcement officers here, resulted in arrests of more than twenty persons and warrants for as many more were in the hands of agents who were bringing in prisoners in quick succession. A feature of the raid was the remarkably small amount of liquor captured, less than one gallon being taken in more than twenty places visited. This will not retard the prosecution, Director Fulwider declared as evidence obtained in advance, by operatives from other sections of the state.

SPANISH TRAIL MAY BECOME GOOD HIGHWAY

(By Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, Mar. 9.—The Old Spanish Trail, a national highway from Jacksonville, Fla., to Los Angeles, California along the Gulf Coast and through the territory immediately north of the Mexican border, is destined to include several sections of road the equal of which will not be found in the United States, if plans of good roads enthusiasts interested in the project in that section are carried out.

Secretary of War Weeks recently notified the New Orleans Association of Commerce that the War Department and the Department of Agriculture had reached an agreement whereby that section of the highway from New Orleans through the Louisiana marshes to the Mississippi coast had been placed on first priority as a federal aid project.

The War Department is deeply interested in the highway from a military standpoint.

It is estimated that a road through the marshes strong enough to withstand any gulf storm and to bear the weight of artillery would cost from $300,000 to $400,000 a mile including the necessary bridges. This would make the cost of the twenty miles to the Rigolets, one of the outlets of Lake Ponchartrain, approximately $8,000,000. It would necessarily be of special construction and so heavy as to require a minimum of repair.

Construction of the marsh road would provide New Orleans with a highway to the north and east. The only way of entering the city now, if motorists do not drive west to Baton Rouge and from there to New Orleans, is to ferry across Lake Ponchartrain, a water journey requiring at least two hours by the shortest route.

It is said she drew $700 of her husband's pension money from the bank and carried it off when she left, and it is said, spent it on the trip.

They will have their hearing Saturday.

ISADORA DUNCAN IS NOT AMERICAN CITIZEN

(By Associated Press)

The Department of Labor announced. She lost her citizenship the Department held through her marriage to Serge Essanine, a Russian on April 1 1922.

RADIO FOR MARKET NEWS

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 9.—Farmers are making use of the radio in obtaining market reports. Nationwide, practical use of these reports sent broadcast by the United States Department of Agriculture is indicated in a survey just completed. Nearly 50 percent of the hundreds of returns to an inquiry sent out by radio were from farmers who had receiving equipment. The remainder of the returns were from grain dealers, mills, elevators, banks, telephone companies, cooperative organizations, farm bureaus, and other agencies which disseminate the reports among large groups of farmers.

Greatest interest was shown in the grain market reports, which inform farmers of wheat, corn and oats prices at the leading grain markets. Next in importance comes the live-stock reports of prices and movements at the principal live-stock markets of the country. The weather reports came next, followed by reports on poultry products, fruits and vegetables, dairy products, hay, cotton, and other farm crops.

THREE CENT TAX ON GASOLINE PROBABLE

(By Associated Press)

RICHMOND, Mar. 9.—The State Finance committee favorably reported the bill authorizing the Governor to borrow money to finance emergency needs of the state highway department, pending action by the legislature on a permanent road financing policy. The committee action is regarded as a victory for the three cent gasoline tax advocates, who are opposed to a bond issue.

Miss Kathleen Walker has returned home from the Legislature, at Raleigh, where she has been for several weeks.

SPRAY GIRLS WORK DIRECTOR MARY ANN ABEL

Day by day in every way we are getting better and better. Thursday night Gymnasium Class meets at seven thirty. We cordially invite visitors and mothers of the girls to every class.

The following groups have voted on their colors: The Bleachery has taken red and white, the Lily Mill has voted for pink and green, the Leaksville Cotton decided on blue and white, the Nantucket mill on purple and white, the Carolina office on purple and gold, the Spray Cotton on red and blue. Those rosettes of the colors look beautiful up on the panel and we should have all the others up in a few days. Hurry up and decide before all the desirable combinations are taken.

Now the next thing to go up on the panels after the colors is a kodak picture of every member. Some of the girls have already sent us their pictures but we want every member in place. Let us see which group will complete their panel first.

We need badly about one dozen pillows to make our reading room look home like and inviting. There is plenty of stuffing for the pillows down at the Club Rooms and they can be made up quickly down here if some one will make the covers and donate them to the club.

And speaking of donations, we are receiving gifts every day to help in equipping us for the work we are trying to do. The men at the Wood Yard made us a very fine gong for the gymnasium and we certainly do appreciate it. A woman greatly interested in the girls sent us word yesterday that she had ordered one year subscription to a magazine for us and a man brought us three fine books to begin our library for the reading room. If that is not progress and interest we need another definition for the same.

Our calendar has the Mothers Party on it for the next event in our social life. Then on April the seventh comes the "Spray Products Evening" which we hope to make the very finest event the Girls Work has yet undertaken.

Rev. W. L. Sherrill, formerly pastor of the Methodist church at Mocksville, and now pastor of the Leaksville charge, was in the city for a few hours Monday afternoon on his way to Elkin to attend a district conference. He has many friends in Winston-Salem and was kept busy during his short stay here renewing old acquaintances.

Rev. Mr. Sherrill is delighted with his new pastorate at Leaksville. He says the church and community are making substantial progress and that the future for both seems to be exceedingly bright.

"Leaksville-Spray Drapper," said Mr. Sherrill, "have a combined population of about 15,000 people. The immense Marshall Field interests, operating a number of mills, employ a large number of people and their plants are being expanded from time to time.

"The community has other enterprises of importance; good banks and stores and other establishments essential to a modern city. There are a number of churches which are doing excellent work."

Rev. Mr. Sherrill stated that the Marshall Field company, in addition to its plants at Spray and Draper, is operating a large hosiery factory in Leaksville and has recently opened in connection therewith a carpet plant at which are being manufactured seamless druggets of high quality.

The carpet plant was opened only a few weeks ago but it is already turning out a large product.

HOME OF ALICE AND PHOEBE CARY SOLD

(By Associated Press)

Cincinnati, Mar. 9.—The Cary Homestead has been sold.

The home, famous as the birthplace of the Cary sisters—Alice and Phoebe—who attained recognition for their verse and prose, will be renovated and opened as a tea shop.

The old home was but one and a half stories high and without the slightest pretensions of architectural beauty. It was situated on a 24 acre tract of land—just part of the original holdings of the Cary family, whose lineage dates to members of the Pilgrims expedition. The homestead has for years been the gathering place of those who admired the works of the two sisters.

Alice, in the early part of her career wrote the verse "homestead" the first stanza of which follows: Our old brown Homestead reared its wall

From the wayside dust aloof,
Where the apple boughs could at most cast

Their fruits upon its roof;
And the cherry tree so near it grew
That when awake I've lain

In the lonesome nights, I've heard the limbs

As they creaked against the pane;
And those orchard trees, O! those orchard trees.

I've seen my little brothers rocked in their tops by summer breeze.

The sisters were constant companions and never married. They died in 1871, Alice at the age of 51 and Phoebe at 47. They are buried in New York.

WHITE CHILD FOUND IN SHOE BOX IN PARK

The body of a white child was found today in a shoe box in the upper end of the Spray Park. Officer Vernon and DeHart said the child had evidently been placed in the box at birth wrapped only in a torn sheet not washed. They thought it would weigh about nine pounds and had a nice growth of hair on its head.

Mr. Vernon says that this park is getting to be a regular graveyard for unwelcome babies several having been found there in the last few years. An examination will be made of the births reported with a view of finding a clue to the mother.

Mr. C. P. Robertson is in Winston-Salem on business today.
