THE BEST IMMIGRANT AGENT

Down in the sandhills section one of the finest highways in the State runs from Biscoe in the direction of Carthage through an undeveloped country. One may travel miles without seeing house of any kind. But it is a direct route and besides opening some of the finest farming lands in the State, shortens distance for through travel. In Moore County as we see in the The Vass Pilot, new opportunities are being opened for cotton and tobacco farmers as well as for orchardists. Two highways running out of Vass and Lakewood penetrate the finest cotton and tobacco belt and the finest orchard lands in that part of the state. The possibilities are forecast by The Pilot when it says that "we ought to have a hundred families down in that section where the McNeil lands are" and "all around the tract in question is other land that will be available when the good roads are opened." It is a truth that Moore County "has proved to be one of the best tobacco belts in the United States, that tobacco lands are cheap and that marketing facilities are good."

There is a great wilderness of idle land in that part of the state of the very sort which developed is not to be had for less than $200 and $300 an acre. The Giles bill for assisting in bringing in new population and in providing homes for farmers, goes over to the next session of the Legislature, but meantime the good roads that are being opened will "be on the job". The good road is the most potent immigration agent the States will ever know. —Charlotte Observer.

DR. ALEXANDER BOWING OUT

Dr. H. Q. Alexander's six years term as member of the State Board of Agriculture went out with the passing of the Legislature. He was not re-appointed by the Governor.
It was O. Max Gardner who was selected to succeed him, and the Doctor contributes a few remarks on his Farmer's Union page in The Charlotte Herald, this week, one the incident. The Herald submits his article as one coming from "a good sport," but the retiring Commissioner makes modification to a certain extent. He reviews the circumstances of his previous appointment and the pressure brought to bear to induce him to offer again, and he thinks the appointment of Mr. Gardner "may be a disappointment, as well as a surprise to many farmers." He has already heard expressions from union men indicating belief that it "was a slap at the organization" but admission is made that while Gardner is "a city man, a lawyer and a leading politician in the State," he is also "a large farmer", and one who has "the education and the intellect to render great service to the farmers of the State." While Doctor Alexander does not bring himself to an admitted hope or belief that Gardner will, in fact, render this service, he is generous enough to bespeak for him "all due consideration and support from the farmers, and the withholding of all criticism except that which is really constructive and in promotion of the common good." On the whole, Doctor Alexander bows himself out with a minimum of grunting and in manner that we could call benefiting.—Charlotte Observer.

RADIO FOR MARKET NEWS

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 9.—Farmers are making use of the radio in obtaining market reports. Nationwide, practical use of these reports sent broadcast by the United States Department of Agriculture is indicated in a survey just completed.
Nearly 50 percent of the hundreds of returns to an inquiry sent out by radio were from farmers who had receiving equipment. The remainder of the returns were from grain dealers, mills, elevators, banks, telephone companies, cooperative organizations, farm bureaus, and other, agencies which disseminate the reports among large groups of farmers.

Greatest interest was shown in the grain market reports, which inform farmers of wheat, corn and oats prices at the leading grain markets. Next in importance comes the live-stock reports of prices and movements at the principal livestock markets of the country. The weather reports came next, followed by reports on poultry products, fruits and vegetables, dairy products, hay, cotton, and other farm crops.

FACISTI ARE NOW UNITED WITH NATIONALISTS

(By Associated Press)
ROME, Mar. 10.—The factional strife between the militant and vigorous Fascisti party, which now rules Italy, and the Nationalists, the moderate organization which sought to realize its aims by parliamentary methods, has come to an end. The political purposes of both parties long have been similar; they differed only in ways of accomplishment.

An executive committee composed of six Fascisti and three Nationalists, and presided over by Premier Mussolini, has been formed for the purpose of uniting the activities of the two parties.
