

COMMUNIST HOLD MUELHEIM BUT LOSE IT AGAIN

City Hall surrounded by Communist and rifle fire keep officers penned up

MAKE ESCAPE AND ATTACK REDS REAR

(By Associated Press)
Berlin, April 20.—Eight persons are so far reported dead and more than 30 wounded as the result of disturbances in Mulheim, according to dispatches this noon which state that although the city had been freed from the Communist grip, armed bands are still causing trouble in the outskirts.

Cologne, April, 20.—Communist mobs were holding Mulheim completely in their power, at least as late as 8:30 last evening and a steady rifle fire was being maintained on the city hall in which city officials and a band of Dustburg Security police had taken refuge, according to an Essen dispatch timed at that hour. The reports add all city exits were barricaded, rioters were armed with regulation infantry rifles as well as with such firearms as flintlocks.

A LATER MESSAGE

Mulheim, April 20.—After being terrorized for three days by Communist mobs which held it, Mulheim is again under control of constituted German authorities. Forces of 300 police and city officials which had been besieged in Rathaus made a sortie from the building through the lines of the besiegers, caught them in the rear and arrested many and again took control of the city.

BOILER EXPLOSION KILLS FOUR WORKMEN

(By Associated Press)
Tampa, Fla., April 20.—Four men were instantly killed and several were injured near Seffner, 10 miles from here when the boiler at a sawmill exploded. All were employed about the mill.

STREETS ENJOY FIRST BATH

Leaksville streets were treated to a much needed dose of city water yesterday. It is not at all unlikely that they were surprised at receiving their first bath from the effects of this new water system. Let's hope they will not experience any bad effects—a cold, gripe or flu.

Several noted local characters told us a few years ago that we would never live to see this. They evidently had not taken into account our sticking qualities. At any rate their efforts to block progress failed in this one instant at least.

HAITI VOTES $300,000 TO BUILD NEW ROADS

Port-Au-Prince, April, 20.—The Haitian council of state has voted the extraordinary credit of $120,000 for road and bridge construction in addition to the extraordinary credit of $300,000 authorized last December for similar purposes. With this total of nearly a half million dollars, the public works program for the physical rehabilitation of Haiti will not only outstrip former estimates but the problem of unemployment in the districts affected will be greatly ameliorated and the money put in circulation will stimulate the island's improving economic conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Downs and two daughters of Wentworth were dinner guest of Mr. A. W. Setliff yesterday.

Mrs. W. R. Walker had as her guest today her mother, Mrs. Fayette, Sisters, Mrs. W. M. Morgan, and Mrs. Janie Reid, of Fayetteville and brother Mr. E. W. Faucets of Tennessee.

IMPORTANCE OF PRAYER ITS HELPFULNESS

I. Jesus at the Mount of Olives (v. 89). He went from the upper room under cover of night to the garden of Gethsemane. Gethsemane means oil press. It is a place where the oil was crushed out of the olives. There is a striking significance in Jesus' coming to this place. Olive oil was precious, being used both for food and lighting. The bruising and crushing of Christ in this garden has yielded the largest blessings in the world. It has provided food for men's souls and light for their lives.

II. His Companions (vv. 30, 40). Peter, James and John, who had been with Him on the Mount of Transfiguration, were permitted to go with Him into the deep shadows of the garden. He took those who were best able to apprehend the meaning of the tragic hour to be His sympathizing companions. This was needed to prepare them as His witnesses. Then, too, as a human being He craved sympathy.

Jesus Praying (vv. 41-44).
1. He Withdrew From the Disciples (v. 41). Even these disciples of the "inner circle" could not go with Him. He tore himself away from them for He must be alone in this darkest hour. He knelt down and prayed.

2. What He Said (vv. 42-44). "If thou be willing remove this cup from me." The cup did not mean the physical sufferings of the cross, though they were very great. He did not now desire to escape from the cross and thus stop short of His redemptive work, for this was the supreme purpose of His coming into the world (Heb. 2:14). It was rather the revelation to Him by the cross which loomed before Him, of His identification with sin in becoming the world's Redeemer. By virtue of the holiness and perfection of His nature, He could do nothing else than shrink from it. He saw in this bearing of the sins of the world the turning away of His Father's face. Knowing what was before Him, He came to Gethsemane for this hour, and in it, He consciously brought His human will into accord with the divine will. Though the cup was bitter He bowed in submission to the Father's will. So great was this agony that His sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. In this crucial hour an angel from heaven strengthened Him.

IV. The Disciples Sleeping (vv. 45, 46). They had boasted of their fidelity, but could not watch with Him for an hour. He had issued a word of warning to them, but they were so benumbed with sorrow that they failed. He gently rebuked them, and commanded that they rise and pray lest they enter into temptation.

V. Jesus Betrayed (vv. 47, 48).
1. The Betrayal (v. 47). This was done by Judas, one of the twelve. He had enjoyed the most intimate relations with the Lord, eating with Him, listening to His teaching, witnessing His marvelous miracles and enjoying His confidence.

2. The Sign of Betrayal (v. 47). It was the kiss, the token of the most tender affection and friendship. He now degrades it by making it the token of disloyalty and treason. Jesus' words to this infamous disciple shows the infinite tenderness of His heart. If Judas had been at all human this pathetic appeal would have smitten him to the very heart. How many professing disciples have proven their disloyalty to the Master and even betrayed Him. All who bear the name, Christian, and especially ministers and teachers who deny the virgin birth, Deity and vicarious atonement of Christ are following in the footsteps of Judas. May each one inquire, "Lord, is it I?"

VI. Jesus Arrested (v. 54). The multitude around with swords and clubs led by Judas invaded the sacred precincts of the garden and arrested Jesus and brought Him before the high priest.

APPEAL FOR CLOTHES FOR NEAR EAST RELIEF

Discarded Winter Clothing Can be Put To Good Use

Appeal to all housewives of Rockingham county to send their discarded clothes to the Near East Relief was made this week by Mr. B. Frank Mebane of Spray, County clothing chairman for this great humanitarian organization.

Mr. Mebane pointed out that while we are discarding our winter clothing we can save human lives by sending it to the Near East Relief instead of putting it away in the attic or closet to provide a breeding ground for moths. Most counties of North Carolina have just finished their financial campaign and the states is reported nearly over the top in this respect.

Dr. C. E. Brooks, state superintendent of education, is clothing chairman for the present drive and he has the active assistance of Josephus Daniels, honorary state chairman and Col. Geo. H. Bellamy, state chairman. Governor Morrison has issued a proclamation declaring May 1st Bundle Day and asking all true Tarheels to send a bundle of warm clothing to the Near East Relief.

Many school teachers of this county, at the request of Dr. Brooks have organized their classes into a corps for collecting discarded clothing in their respective communities. Clothing can be turned over to Mr. Mebane or sent to the Near East Relief clothing warehouse in Raleigh.

Rockingham county's goal is 3000 pounds of clothing in which there is still some wear. Palm beach suits straw hats and summer clothing can not be used as the climate in Armenia closely approximates our New England states. Many children and adults were found last winter who had dragged themselves for miles suffering from acute rheumatism simply for lack of clothing.

LOUISIANA WOMEN JOIN GOOD WILL MOVEMENT

Declare only Christian Principles can solve South's race problem

Will work for justice through state Race Relations Committee

New Orleans, Louisiana, April 20.—(Special).—An important step in the Southern movement for better race relations was taken in New Orleans March 21-23, when more than 40 of Louisiana's prominent women—leaders in religious and civic organizations—met to study the situation, formulated a vigorous state statement in behalf of good will and justice between the races, and accepted membership in the Louisiana Race Relations Committee. Declaring their belief that Christian principles offer the only solution of race problems, and that the South is today the 'crucial testing ground' of these principles, they pledged their support to the effort to secure for Negroes as well as for whites the protection of law and "the privileges and conditions to which they are entitled as citizens, such as sanitation lighting and grading of streets, better housing conditions, and other civic advantages.

One of the strongest paragraphs in the paper is that relative to lynching, which is as follows: "We register herewith our protests against the barbaric custom of lynching, which arouses violent and unchristian passions brings law into disrepute, is inhuman and brutal, and unknown outside of our own land of America. We hold that no circumstances can ever justify such violent disregard for law and that in no instance is it an exhibition of chivalric consideration and honor of womanhood."

The statement lays strong and repeated emphasis on the responsibility of white people, as the more advantaged race, to set the Negro a worthy example, protect him from vicious influences, and encourage and help him to rise in the scale of character and conduct. The editors of newspapers are appealed to in behalf of more generous publicity for the Negro's worthy achievements, and less for stories of crime and unworthiness.

Rev. C. W. Boling of the Methodist Church Spray, Mr. Ballard Hodges Misses Elizabeth Moore and Audrey Hodges left this morning for Elkin to attend the League Institute which meets there this week.
