FOR CONSTIPATION

Black-Draught Recommended by an Arkansas Farmer Who Has Used It, When Needed, for 25 Years.

Hatfield, Ark.—Mr. G. W. Parsons, a well-known farmer on Route 1, this place, says: "I keep Black-Draught in my home all the time. It is the best all-around medicine I have ever found for the liver and for constipation. We began using it 25 or more years ago and have used it whenever needed since. I have never found any other medicine as good for constipation, and that was what I suffered with till I began using Black-Draught. Black-Draught corrected this condition and now we use it for the liver and indigestion—a tight and sluggish feeling after meals, for bad taste in the mouth and sour stomach.

"My wife uses it for headache, biliousness. It sets on our shelf and I don't let it get out. It has been a great help to us. I believe a great deal of sickness is caused by hurried eating and constipation, and Black-Draught, if taken right, will correct this condition."

CRISIS REACHED IN CHINA

(By Associated Press) Canton, November 9.—The crisis in the conflict between northern and Southern Chinese troops in Kwangtung province, apparently has been reached. Canton is under martial law and troops of Sun Yat Sen, South China leader have been surrounded by the forces of General Chen Chung Ming at Sheklung.

SAYS SUCCESSFUL FARMING DEPENDS ON GOOD HOMES

(By Associated Press) St. Louis, November 9.—The quality of life enjoyed by the farmer is the best criterion for judging the success or failure of American farming, Dr. Kenyon L. Butterfield of Amherst, Mass., president of the American County Life Association said in an address here tonight before the organization's convention.

The farm home is the chief test of successful farming the heart and center of satisfying country life the speaker said and to perpetuate the industry it is necessary to conserve and develop American rural home life.

We need first of all a few great centers of interest in the rural home problem, Dr. Butterfield continued. Schools of rural home life must form the nucleus of the educational work. But these schools must conceive their function in its broadest aspect and they must understand the needs and atmosphere of the rural home. They will have to consider the community relationship of the rural home.

For a long time to come reliance must be placed upon the more popular method of discussing methods and stimulating interest, such as the extension service of the agricultural college. I should like to see all our farmers organizations make the farm home and its full meaning to the nation a big part of their program. I hope that government agencies, educational and administrative will stress the significance of aid to the farm home made a dominant part of the work of schools and colleges that have any responsibility, whatever, in rural affairs.

Of course it is hopeless to maintain a satisfying country life if, economically, farming is losing venture. A satisfying country life means that there are people who like to farm. In common with all other men farmers resent injustice and they want a fair share of the product of their toil. But more than that they like the farm community, the open spaces, the wonderful family life."

LETTERS MAILED IN 1914 NOW AWAITED IN GERMANY

(By Associated Press) Berlin, November 9.—There will soon be delivered in Germany a consignment of letters posted nine years ago in one of the South Sea Islands lost of the men who wrote these communications are dead, and many of the addressees will be hard to find, so much have conditions changed in Germany in the last decade. In view of all the circumstances, stamp collectors are hopeful of getting some interesting specimens.

When the German Pacific cruiser squadron under Admiral von Spee, which kept the shipping world guessing for the first four months of the great war put into Ponape one of the Caroline Islands in August of 1914 the sailors filled the local post office with letters to friends and relatives back in the fatherland. Then they sailed away to what was ultimately their last fight; they went down before the English off the Falkland Islands in December.

The letters never left Ponape. The Japanese got hold of them ultimately and not long ago returned them to the German postal authorities. Each communication bears a special stamp reading: "Mail of the Pacific cruiser squadron of August 1914."

BREWERIES RAIDED TO STOP BEER NOW FLOODING THE EAST

(By Associated Press) Washington, November 9.—Wholesale raids on breweries in eastern Pennsylvania to shut off the supply of beer admitted to be flooding a large part of the east begun by prohibition forces. Reports to commissioner Haynes from Philadelphia said 12 breweries were raided today and a score more would be raided before night.

MADRID TO HAVE NEW BULL RING

(By Associated Press) Madrid, November 9.—There seems to be little danger of bullfighting dying out in the national sport of Spain for some years at least. Although the people of Madrid and other cities have become somewhat bored because of the poor quality of the contests recently and despite stronger competition from other sports the construction of a new bull ring of much larger dimensions than the present one is proceeding.

FOREIGN EXCHANGES DROP DUE TO GERMAN SITUATION

(By Associated Press) New York, November 9.—Foreign exchanges toppled as a result of the situation in Germany, demand sterling dropping more than three cents and new lows for the year being established by Spanish pesetas, Norwegian and Danish kroner and Holland guilder, while the French and Belgian francs declined.
