LEAKSVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1924.

THE TRI-CITY DAILY GAZETTE

Church Hour Saw Passing of Man Who Dreamed of Peace

Devoted Wife and Friends Wait At Bedside for Peaceful End

(By Associated Press) Washington, Feb. 4. - Woodrow Wilson laid down his burdens and went peacefully to sleep at 11:15 o'clock Sunday morning. The end was peaceful. Life ebbed away while he slept.

A tired man, he closed his eyes, and, "substained and sooth by an unfaltering trust," passed on to the great hereafter "like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams!" Dr. Grayson, his friend and physician, announced the end of the great war President in this bulletin: "Mr. Wilson died at 11:15 o'clock.

His heart's action became feebler and feebler, and the heart muscle was ro fatgued that to refused to act any longer. The end came peacefully. "The remote causes of death lie in his ill health which began more than four years ago, namely: General arterio-sclerosis with haemopligia. The immediate cause of death was exhaustion following a digestive disturbance which began in the early part of last week but did not reach an acute stage until the early morning hours of February 1." Last Friday the grim reaper had forced his way into the house after waiting on the doorstep more than four years. Saturday he had advanced to the landing on the staircase. and stood counting off the ticks of the great clock. Saturday night he n" at on the chamber door. A aithful physician and a loyal wife mod with their backs against R. At a'clock he ruttled the knot an and to the peaceful, prostrate figure on the bed-a great bed, long and wide, a replica of the bed in which Abraham iLncoln slept in the White House, with a golden American eagle and a tiny silk American flag just over the headboard.

The watchers knew the battle was lost. At the portal of the door now moonlit hills of Judea, 'Peace on open, the faithful negro servant earth, goodwill to men.' hovered. On the bed, sitting beside her husband, sustained with all the "Woodrow Wilson was a Christian.

ITEMS RIGHT OFF THE TELEGRAPH WIRES

(By Associated Press)

Athens, Feb. 4.-Premier Venizelos and his cabinet resigned and a new ministry will be formed by M. Kafandaris, former minister of interior.

(By Associated Press)

memory last in the minds of men. "Wilson, like Lincoln and other great idealists, has not lived to see Jerfferson City, Mo., Feb. 4.-Three convicts sawed their way out of cells in State penitentiary. They killed a his dreams realized. Nevertheless guard by crushing his skull, took his his work will be carried on to his own glory and the permanent benefit gun and gave battle to a guard on a wall, and then gained their liberty. of mankind. In the national sense he led his country out on to the road

Lloyd George Pays

Wilson Great Tribute

(By Associated Press)

Churt, Surrey, England, Feb. 3.

At his new country home here, David Lloyd George, Great Britain's war-time minister, today heard from the correspondent of The Associated Press the news of the peaceful pass-

"Woodrow Wilson will become one of the great figures of history," was-his tribute. "He was a man, and therefore had his weaknesses. But ing of Woodrow Wilson.

crete plan.

(By Associated Press)

Conway, Kansas, Feb. 4 .--- Village no turning back." Plunging into an energetic narra of Wooster, near here, was almost tion of the events of the Paris contotally destroyed by storm last night. ference, Wilson's British colleague at Three general stores, two blacksmith the peace table continued: shops, school, post-office, three resi-"The tragedy of it all is that dences and a number of barns were Woodrow Wilson's failure was his partially, or completely destroyed. No one was injuried seriously.

(By Associated Press) Elizabeth City, N. C., Feb. 4 .- Four negroes were burned to death and a fifth fatally injured in a fire that destroyed the home of John Harris, negro farmer ,near Moyock, early Sunday, it wa slearned here today.

BILLY SUNDAY ADDS TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF WOODROW WILSON

A beautiful tribute was paid Wood row Wilson Sunday afternoon by the tabernacle when 8,000 or more men .were present. was as bitter as ever against his op-He said: "Woodrow Wilson was Christian. It was what Woodrow ponents. Mr. Wilson walked on his weaker opponents-a dangerous policy Wilson put into his life that caused for a great man. One can trample the flags to stand at half mask toon great men, but not little men day. Woodrow Wilson gave his life there are too many of them. for principles that echoed over the death.

"But, after all, Mr. Wilson was a tenderfoot in politics. You know how mosquitoes in some places in the world plague the tenderfoot. If the For Ftrst Time in 32

A Great Christian Statesman Borne to Maker in Peace Passed From Life in Quiet Sleep Sunday Morning

turn to Washington, had made him (By Associated Press) Washington, Feb. 4 --- Woodrow almost an invalid long ago. Early last week a slight digestive

Wilson Finds Haven of Rest

he was the first to embody the ideal of fraternity of nations into a con-Wilson has found in eternity a haven from the storms and sorrows of a troubled world. In the prayerful "Like the founder of Christianity," quiet of a Sunday morning death, said Lloyd George, "the central figure folded him gently in its embrace and in history, and like Lincoln, after bore him to his maker. him, he prosecuted his ideal to his

He passed from life while he slept tragic death. These circumstances with those he loved best close about him. His broken body had weakened if nothing more, would make his itue by little until the last spark of vitality went out, but his spirit was supported to the last by the indomit-able courage of the old fighting days. be resting in complete comfort. In his last wakeful moments he told his loved ones that he knew the end had come and was ready. The fraved remnant of his morof world affairs, from which there is tality lies in the chamber whose walls looked down yesterday upon the last scene of a career that had known all the heights and depths of human emotion.

In death he appears as if in peaceful slumber his features serene and him as he crossed the bar. composed and his square jaw set with inability to subdue personalities-his the old determination, but the lines are somewhat deeper and heavier and refusal to give up personal animosity. This weakness caused his failure to the flashing fire of his eye, has realize his ideals during his lifetime, gone out forever. and in the end it was this weakness which doubtless contributed to his The bed on which Woodrow Wilson died and where his body rests, is of "If the President had been willing massive oak-a reproluction of the to sacrifice personal prejudices to bed built at the White House for obtain the general support of his peo-Lincoln and used by every president ple at home, he could have realized since. It is of unusual length and has his League of Nations ideal by this a golden American eagle over the means, it is certain, in view the conhead. It was made to the order of cessions which the European powers Wilson before he retired from the presidency and was installed in the would have male to the American de S Street house he had selected as his sires for changes in the league plans. "But Mr. Wilson could not overfuture home. come his failing. Last year when I Although he had not known a well visited him in Washington he still day since he crossed the threshold of found death gentle and even meriful. Thus with the soft chanting of his place of retirement, or for months before last Friday, saw the beginning was written the last letter of that of the end of his long illness. imperishable chapter of human his-His collapse during his western speaking trip in 1919 followed by a otry, comprising the life of Woodrow stroke of parlysis soon after his re- Wilson

First to Submit Plan Looking For World Peace

disorder further weakened his delicate vitality and on Friday his friend an dphysician, octor Grayson, found his condition growing hourly more serious. He refused nourishment and by Saturday night was barely conscious. At 9 o'clock he proper place in history can not be fell asleep and never wakened again. assigned to him until his contem-It was 11:15 Sunday morning that poraries are likewise assigned to life finally went out. From first to their niches. last he was without pain and in his

Certainly, he ranks as one of the last wakeful moments he appeared to great war presidents of the American As the end approached the little group watching in sick room drew fore attached to his office. nearer about him. Mrs. Wilson sat

Empires crumbled, thrones colon the bed beside him with his almost lifeless hand in both of hers. Close by was his eldest daughter. Margaret. made over, and under his administraand Dr. Gravson, faithful in his ministration since the first sign of illness more than four years ago, watched for some new way at least to help biographer could attempt to assess But there was nothing to be done More and more feebler became the pulse beat and there was a quieting conclusion. of breath, little by little death was An obscure lawyer, by nature a completing its conquest. A quick flutter of the eye lids, a faint twitch almost like a smile across the wasted features, and the spirit of the great long weakening fetters that bound it Thus he who had dreamed of peace for all the world, had found peace for himself and had left behind a world

Roosevelt and William H. Taft he Thus he, against whom life had States. turned at last, after leading him During his eight years of power he through paths of the greatest glory, travelleed the gamut of human tions; victory, defeat; courtship and Twenty-eighth president of the at Princeton he studied law at the United St tes, and the first Democrat University of Virginia and in 1882 since Jackson to serve two successive, hung out his shingle in Atlanta, Ga. terms, Woodrow Wilson occupied the Meantime he courted Ellen Louise presidency during eight years of such Axson, the daughter of a Savannah world upheaval and turmoil, that his Presbyterian clergyman. They were married in 1885 and had three daughters, Margaret, the eldest who did not marry; Jessie, who became the wife of Francis Bowes Sayre, and Eleanor. who became the wife of William G. republic, and he exercised such an in- McAdoo, secretary of the treasury fluence in world affairs as never be- during her father's administration and later a presidential aspirant.

SPEAT

PRICE 5 CENTS

Mr. Wilson once said that as a lapsed, the map of the world was young lawyer he wore out the rug in his office walking around the desk tion the country abandoned its policy waiting for clients, so he abandoned of isolation and became an active a legal career and went to Johns Hopparticipiant in world affairs. In all kins University at Baltimore for a of that he took a powerful hand. No post graduate course in letters. While there he published his first book him accurately, and in full, until the "Congressional government," a study processes which began in his day and in American politics. It evoked offers with his participation have come to a of professorships at Bryn Mawr and Wesleyan and won recognition; at home and abroad. The young man man of letters, he became an educator who wrote of the defects of the Amerand won his first attention from the ican political system in 1883 found public as president of Princeton Uni- himself to deal with them later. Havwar president had burst at last the versity. Then by the strange ways ing written in a deprecatory tone of of a political system he became Gov- the tendency toward autocracy in ernor of New Jersey and later, be- American president he lived to hear cause the voters of the Republican himself called the greatest autocrat party were divided between Theodore of them all and to see a resolution declaring his office vacant on those became president of the United grounds introduced and tabled in the senate.

Successively, Mr. Wilson became professor of history and political emo-1 economy at Bryn Mawr and at Wesmarriage; responsibility for leading a leyan University and later professor hymns floating in on the Sabbath air, nation into war with the collateral of jurisprudence and political economy responsibility of bringing it back at Princeton where, subsequently, he again to the ways of peace; and was made head of that institution. finally a daily struggle with death. Meanwhile, Professor Wilson had He had heard himself hailed by the gained high reputation as a writer. millions of Europe as "the God of Some of his works, with the date of peace" and heard his name hissed by their production, were as follows: the same millions. Acclaimed at one "The State-Elements and Historical time almost as a new Messiah, he and practical Politics," (1889); "Division and reunion," (1893); "George fortitude and composure of a facing a crisis, was Mrs. Wilson, holding between her hands the wan, withered right hand that had proved the pen mightler than the sword. Near the foot of the bed was his 'I am a broken machine.' eldest daughter, Margaret, resigned to the inevitable. Close by, tears walling from his eyes and coursing down his cheeks was Dr. Grayson, taking the measure of the fluttering pulse, weaker and fainter with each fort

Death advanced and beckoned for the last time. The tired, wornout man drew a long breath, there was a slight flutter of the eyelids, an almost imperceptible twitch of the nostrils.

Woodrow Wilson's soul had drifted out on the great dark tide that runs around all the world.

Out through a city stilled in a Sabbath morning reverential calm, his name was being spoken from a hundred pulpits. In the Central Presbyterian church where he faithfully went to worship while the fiesh was able, a choked-up congre-gation had sung "The Son of God loes Forth to War," "How Firm a dation," and "Onward Christian Soldiers," favorite hymns in which he loved to lift his voice in a happier. etter day. Over a great land that ad acclaimed him chief and in lands eross the seas where he had been siled as a God of peace, prayers were rising for the response of his

Another Scene

In the street before the square rick house where he has lived with memories, his hopes and his re-s, was another scend. There was athering of people there. It was a gathering of people there. It was not a crusading throng come to a mecca in pilgrimage to attest their faith in the ideals he personified. It sickness in the family. ras a group of men and women ing on the pavement in silent er. Small paper slips bearing the inscription "Peace on earth, good-will toward men," held in their hands, ared in the chill wind which ad up the debris and litter by the watchers engaged in the nity of the death watch that all mileunder, while the throng and is and camained in sil and a cloudbank. A little today.

note.

words of Wilson last newcomer does not get used t when he said he was ready proved this. Tragically beautiful was the expression to which he gave utterance to his physician, "Dr. Grayson, "I thought I heard heavenly music at 11:15 this morning. It was the angel greeting Woodrow Wilson."

pests, they will eat him up. Some politicians after being attacked for years, become innoculated to personal criticism. But Mr. Wilson never seemed to withstand political pinpricks. They hurt his proud, sensitive nature. Yes, it was the mosquito bites; it was those wounds inflicted by politicians that broke him and Read Your County's Daily Paper First. | hastened his end." Wilson Funeral

Wednesday; No State Cermony Pallbearers Will Be Selected From Former Cabinet Member And

Personal Friends

LOCALS Mrs. Karl Bishopric has returned ome from a visit to Asheville.

Mrs. C. J. Darlington, on Patrick

Street, will entertain the teachers of the Leaksville High school on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Misses Adeline and Caroline Wilson were the week-end guests of Miss Etanor Baker, at Brookneal, Va.

The reception of Mrs. J. B. Ray on native warbler, a pilgrim venturing ceremony. A large number of friends and north in search of early sun and spring, stopped for a moment, and from his twig aloaf uttered a happy

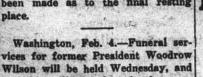

Almost at that moment Mr. Wilso

Almost at that moment and, where was passing on. Fings were immediately lowered to half mast by the great government over which he presided for eight years, giving marks of its respect. The nows went to army path overy-where and to the ships at res. Congress have erranged to adjourn

(By Associated Press) Washington, Feb. 4. - Tentative plans for funeral of Woodrow Wilson as announced by Dr. Grayson, provide dence at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. This will be followed by another at 8:30 o'clock at Bethlehem Chapel in Cathedral at Mount Saint Albans, where the body will be placed probably will be private, in the sense that there will be no great State former associates will be designated as active and honorary pallbearers, among them Bernard M. Baruch. Vance McCormick, Cleveland, Dodge Cyrus McCormick and some members of his wartime cabinet, and others who were associated with him during his terms in the White House.

will deliver the funeral sermon.

Hundred Years King Tut's Coffin Revealed

to the earth.

still torn by strife and turmoil.

(By Associated Press) SUNDAY'S EXTRA GAZETTE

Luxor, Egypt, Feb. 4.-For the On account of yesterday being lrst time in 3,200 years the great stone coffin of Tutankhamen stood Sunday and our telegraph offices were forth today in all its majesty, shorn closed, the announcement of the of its protective nest of golden shrines death of Woodrow Wilson, did not as massive in construction as it is reach us as promptly as it would have chastely simple in design, and as un touched by the tooth of time, as it is inviolate from the hands of tomb robbers. This grandiose stone chest sold on the streets by newsboys. A must be acclaimed a unique specimen little later, they were sold in Reidsof the funerary art of the 18th ville and Wentworth.

MANY ATTEND MASS MEETING AT WENTWORTH

dynasty.

Wenthworth, Feb. 4 .- The citizens' Hopper, T. W. Field and S. M. Harris mass meeting here today is well atwere dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. tended.

At noon, the meeting adjourned J. W. Norman, at their attractive home on Hamilton Street. until 2 o'clock.

Neither the County Board of Education nor the Board of County Comfor brief private service at the resi- missioners were meeting at their usual hour.

Cloudy, mild today, showers tonight Read Your County's Dally Paper First. and Tuesday.

tify before the Teapot in Washington.

(Staff Correspondent of the Gazette) CLEVELAND BROKER TO TESTIFY AT TEAPOT INQUIRY Wentworth, Feb. 3 .- The Hilton Sears jury on trial for his life, found (By 'Associated Press

the defendant guilty of second-degree murder and Judge Thad D. Bryson entence hime in State prison of not less than twenty years and not over thirty.

his terms in the White House. Reverent James Taylor, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, which Wilson attended during his method in others, he probably would have gone to the electric chair. ing December 1, 1922.

heard himself excoriated and denounced as an autocrat and worse at Washington," (1896); "A History of home and abroad. No other President the American People," (1902); "Conhated; no other president since Roosestroyer which hovered close about him during the last months of his occupancy of the presidecy, followed him relentlessly to the modest home where he lived the ways of a retired gentleman and knocked at his door every day until it was at last opened.

a war president, he undertook the on any other day. Yet at 2:30 o'clock task of making a peace which he sinan extra edition of the Gazette was cerely believed would be a lasting one and although he succeeded in getting Europe to acept it in large measure his own country rejected it. And in the he broke his health, wore himself out, suffered a stroke of paralysis uary of Greensboro College, spoke at which led to his death, and declared the Leaksville Methodist Church on happy to give his life for the success Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. While here Mr. Curtis, J. G. Farrell, J. M. of his efforts.

Woodrow Wilson was a precedent smasher from beginning to end. He began by reviving the practice of Washington and Jefferson in delivering his messages to Congress in person; he finished by actually leaving Amer-Weather ican soil and going to Europe. His was the responsibility of deciding when a country with a people torn by conflicting sympathies was ready to throw itself into the great world war, and when the moment came he took the responsibility of throwing in the men and millions, which turned the scale to victory. What ever an army of Boswells

m.y write, that will be the part in which he will be best remembered by coming generations. Born in Staunton, Va., December 28, 1856, of Scotch-Irish parentage, he was christened Thomas Woodrow His father was the Rev. Joseph Rug: grapher. Political opponents charged Gov-

Cleveland, Feb. 3.-Samuel Unger-elider, a Cleveland broker, with Washles Wilson, a Presbyterian clergyman, and his mother was Jessie Woodrow. ernor Wilson with radicalism but he When he was two years old the fortunes of his father took the family to Augusta, Ga., and later to ington branch, was subpoenaed to fortunes of his father took the family to Augusta, Ga., and later to The summonds directs Ungerleider to bring all records of transactions throug hhis house for the year end-Columbia, S. C., where at the age of under his direction which dealt with since Lincoln was so worshipped and stitutional Government in the United States," (1908); "Free Life," (1918); velt had such friends and such "When a Man Comes to Himself," enemies. Through it all he preserved (1915); "On Being Human," (1916); an outward calm while the grim de- "An Old Master and Other Political Essays," and "Mere Literature and Other Essays," were among his earlier writings. His state papers, notes to belligerent governments and addresses to Congress, would fill many olumes. The honorary degree of Doctor of

17 Thomas Woodrow Wilson entered Davidson college, but left there soon to go to Princeton. After graduation (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

After having borne the burdens of Laws was bestowed upon him by Wake Forest College (1887); Tulane University (1893); Johns Hopkins (1902); Brown University (1903); Harvard University (1907); Williams College (1908); and Dartmouth College (1909). Yale made him a. Doctor of Literature in 1901.

> Life was a pretty well settled affair for him while he was president of Princeton. Its great oaks, shaded lawns an dhistorical halls, furnished the settings in which Mr. Wilson did much of the literary work which later was to attract the world. He probably had little though of being snatched into the maelstrom of politics and war. He drew some public attention in the fight for preservation of democratic ideals at the University, but he lived the life of a family man on small pay and as late as 1910 was contemplating retiring on a teacher's pension.

That year the inexorable force of events came into evidence. The tide which "swept on to fortune" began to rise about him. Nominated for governor of New Jersey in a political satuation about which many interesting things have been said and denied with equal fervor, he was elected on the democratic ticket, and immediately took on the state "bosses" for a round of combat which attracted the Wilson and he was known in early attention of the country. In the Jerlife as "Tommy." After he was sey legislature he found the young graduated from Princeton in 1879 he lawyer, Joseph P. Tumulty who bewas known only as Woodrow Wilson. came his private secretary and bio-