PHARAOH'S
FOLLY

Pharaoh Tutankhamen was wonderfully equipped for his post-mortem adventures. The treasures unearthed in his tomb suggest the trappings that used to be buried with American Indians for their journey to the Happy Hunting Ground, though infinitely more regal.

The half has not yet been told of the grandeur of all those chariots, weapons, musical instruments, vases, incense pots and other paraphernalia that accompanied little King Tut to his last resting place, nor the golden and jeweled guardians set to keep watch over him until the Day of Judgment, nor the sacred texts instructing the departed ruler regarding his journey across the Styx and his appearance in the judgment hall of Osiris, nor the delicate and painstaking care of his body against the time of resurrection, nor the mystic jewels and amulets laid on his breast, nor the fine gold plate in which he was laid away, like a medieval knight in his coat of mail, only much more gloriously.

It is fascinating to read about such things. It stirs imagination and sets egotistical moderns, who may have imagined that the world began with them, to thinking upon ancient times, and upon all the power and knowledge and grandeur that must have existed to make such funeral splendors possible.

But some things, at least, we do far better than those old pharaohs. We do not take vast treasure and lovely works of art and bury them with us.
We know, or believe we know, that we can not take our wealth and art collections to Heaven with us.

In fact, we are more and more inclined to the opinion, in these latter days, that if we are fortunate enough to get into Heaven, the only things we can take with us are the things we have given away here to people who need them more than we did.

SOUTHERN PRESBYTERIANS SETS FORTH NEEDS

(Special to the Gazette)

The membership of the Southern Presbyterian Church is 428,292, according to statistics submitted to the general assembly of the church of 1923. It is safe to estimate the total income of the members of this church during 1923 at not less than $300,- 000,000. The title of this income is $30,000,000, and this title alone is more than six times the amount that is being asked of this church for next year in support of the benevolent causes of the general assembly—for-sion missions, home missions, Christian education and ministerial relief, publication and Sabbath school work, the general assembly's training school at Richmond, Va., and the American Bible society.

If the membership of this church would contribute the coming year 35 cents toward the evangelization of each of the 32,000,000 people in heathen lands, for whose evangelization Southern Presbyterians are responsible, and 60 cents to aid in the evangelization of 5,000,000 people in home mission territory, and if the salaries of all of the pastors of the church should be made what are recognized as "living salaries," the annual budget of the church would amount probably to not more than $12,000,000, which is but little more than one-third of the title of the income of the members of the church for one.

The progressive program of the church, directed by the stewardship committee of the general assembly, is calling upon the church for $4,750,000 for benevolences for the coming year, less than one-sixtieth of the total income of the membership for one year, and, as stated above, less than one-sixth of the title of this annual income. Special effort is being made to get each member of the church to recognize the duty of setting aside the tithes of the income for the work of the Lord, in keeping with the scriptural injunction in this connection, and to recognize that giving upon the part of the individual does not begin until this has been done. Reports from all of the synods of the general assembly show that the number of tithers is increasing rapidly, and due to this fact the financial obligations of the church will be the more easily met.

MISS MAC SWINEY
GIVES VIEWS ON ALLEGIANCE AND PARTITION

Belfast, Feb. 27.—"I would wreck every bridge in Ireland rather than see one man disgrace himself, his country and the martyred dead, by taking the oath of allegiance to Ireland's enemy," said Mary Mac-Swiney at Athlone recently.

Referring to partition, she said if Premier Craig and his government want to be British citizens they should "go across the Channel and live there in peace; we will be glad to get rid of them."
