JAPANESE TAKE TO BEER

(By Associated Press)
Tokyo, March 21.—The brewing industry of Japan, although it did not escape the destructive effects of the earthquake of last September, still is not on the road to recovery.

The Dai Nippon Brewing Company largest in Japan, recently held its semi-annual meeting and, after setting aside $370,000 yen for the restoration of damaged plants, declared a dividend of 25 percent. Beer, which is known to the Japanese 80 years ago is growing in popularity to such an extent that it threatens to displace the place of sake, or rice wine, as the national beverage.

NEGRO IS HELD IN THE JENKINS CASE

Alex Goodman Said to Be Close Friend to Former Chief Is Held as a Material Witness

Lexington, March 21.—Alex Goodman, negro, was brought here this afternoon from Thomasville as a material witness in the case of L. C. Jenkins, former Thomasville police chief, charged with the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Jones. He was placed in the county jail to be held until bond of $500 can be given to insure his appearance at the trial the first week in May. Sheriff Talbert instructed the jailer that Goodman should not be allowed to communicate with Jenkins.

Goodman is said to have known Jenkins for a number of years and has been in close touch with him at other places where he served as officer. The state considers Goodman's testimony as a highly important link in the evidence against Jenkins.

Solicitor Spruill is expected home in a day or so from Oriental where his father, James Spruill, died yesterday.

COLLEGE OFFERS COURSE IN SUMMER STUDY IN FRANCE

(By Associated Press)
Williamsburg, Va., March 21.—The college of William and Mary is planning to take to France this summer a group of 15 college students for educational purposes.

The young men may be students at William and Mary, or any other college. Credit granted for work done abroad will count for a degree at William and Mary, or any other institution accepting William and Mary credits.

This "school in Europe" it is hoped will become an annual event in the college calendar. One country each year is to be selected for the location of the school. This year it goes to France and England, Italy, Germany etc., are in view for the future.

Specifically, the work this summer will consist of four courses of 30 lectures each on subjects which will train men to fill positions in the United States consular service and diplomatic service, or in foreign trade. In addition students may elect courses in French history, art, literature, contemporary civilization, etc.

Taking advantage of this unique opportunity an undergraduate may secure a valuable and interesting trip abroad, without the loss of time in absence from college, and at a cost everything included, of $550.

RUSSIAN MAILED EXPEDITED

(By Associated Press.)
London, March 21.—The first beneficial result of the British recognition of Soviet Russia appears to be the recent announcement made by the postmaster general that, in the future all mails for Teheran and northern Persia will be sent by way of Russia instead of through Bombay. This will reduce the travelling time from six or three weeks.

The former ruler usually is accompanied by his wife, Princess Hermine and her three children, and the stroll lasts for an hour or two along the highways in the country stretching away from William's castle.

Sinclair's Attorney Halts Committee Investigating Oil

CARS MUST DETOUR DURING BOONE WIDENING

Boone Road from Washington St. is virtually closed to traffic, and while at the junction of Washington and Boone, there is an opening for traffic, yet this is only for cars having business with the Twin-City Gro. Co., the Orange Crush Bottling Co., Coca Cola Co., the Ice Company and the Tri-City Daily Gazette and such firms as are located on Boone Road.

It would be well for others to detour at Glovenia by way of the Boulevard Street, and down Bridge street and through traffic going the other direction should detour at Washington on Bridge Street.

BRITISH FLEET TO BURN OIL SAYS FORMER NAVAL CHIEF

(By Associated Press)
London, March 21.—Predictor that the future British fleet would be oil burning was made by Lieut.-Col. L. C. M. S. Armerly, former first lord of the admiralty, in an address at the Royal Colonial Institute recently.

Replying to the government on the Singapore base question, he admitted the increasing menace in air development but insisted that the main defense of these islands as well as the empire as a whole depended upon the maintenance of sea communications and that nothing but an efficient navy could maintain those communications.

Lieutenant Colonel Armerly declared that fleets of the future will each be a great complex with many forms of vessels, but the capital ship away will remain the kernel of the complex.

CHAMONIX WINTER GAMES COST 12 TIMES RECEIPTS

(By Associated Press)
Paris, March 20.—The winter sports competition held recently at Chamonix as a part of the Olympic Games proved a success in every respect with the exception of the financial returns. An outlay of 3,000,000 francs brought in gate receipts of only 250,000 francs.

The excessive number of free tickets was responsible for this as the attendance was never below 3,000 a day. Notwithstanding the financial loss there was no disappointment because the Olympic authorities expected it. Of the fund for the winter games the city of Chamoix subscribed 2,000,000 francs, the French government half a million, and the Department of the Haute Savoie a similar amount.

The loss is partly offset by the fact that the take-off and slides for skiing, the bob-sleigh chute and the stands and dressing rooms at the skating rink are all permanent and in the future are expected to increase the prestige of Chamoix as a winter resort.

GOVERNMENT TO ABOLISH ANCIENT BRITISH SINECURE

(By Associated Press)
London, March 20.—The ancient and honorable—and useless—office of master of the horse to His Majesty will be the first to succumb to the new Labor Government. The Marquis of Bath, the holder, resigned and it has been unofficially announced the office will be abolished.

In the past the holder of the title has ranked as the third great officer of the Kings court and the appointment has always been regarded as a high honor. The master had to be a peer, a privy councillor and a member of the government, which entitled him to a salary of $12,500 a year.

The office is of great antiquity predating the invention of the carriage. The master of the horse also claimed the privilege of holding the horse for his sovereign to mount. Nominally he had control of the equeries, pages, grooms and stable servants. Since the king and queen took to motor's his labors has lost even their nominality.

TO DEBATE IDEALS OF YOUTH

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, Ky., March 20.—The youth of the church regarding the people; the service which the church is rendering, and the ideal toward which young people in the church should work, are among the questions to come before the national conference of Methodist students to be held here April 18-20. Washington, March 20.—A bill by Senator Gooding of Idaho proposing a drastic amendment of "long and short haul" provisions of interstate commerce act favorably reported by the senate interstate commerce committee.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 21.—The right of the oil committee to proceed with its inquiry into the leasing of Teapot Dome and related subjects was challenged by counsel for the witness when he returned to the witness stand for questioning. His possible relations to the dramatic disclosures of recent weeks, attorneys for the operator, based their objection on the Walsh resolution adopted by Congress directing the annulment of oil leases.

They pointed out that the resolution declared the leases were made under circumstances indicating fraud and corruption, and said that if this be true the committee had ascertained what it was directed to ascertain.

They contended that by the resolution, Congress not only had brought to an end the jurisdiction of committee, but had "defined the policy of the government that the oil shall be preserved for the government."

A brokerage account in which seventy five thousand dollars in Sinclair and Mexican oil stocks were traded in and was delivered into by the senate committee investigating attorney General Daugherty.

William R. Hayes, manager of Ungerleider and Company, Cleveland brokers, told of an account which was carried on his books as W. R. Hayes No. 2. He said it was merely a "cellaneous account" and he had no recollection of dealings in oil.

Daugherty, Hayes said, never had an account with Ungerleider, who he had been one of Hayes' customers with another firm.

John Goroni, president of the A. S. Drug Company of New York, admitted a new maze of stratagems, having to do with illicit withdrawal of whiskey in 1921 and which involved payments aggregating two hundred thousand dollars. His story in brief; fifteen thousand dollars case was paid for withdrawal permit and this was split four dollars to the prohibition director, two dollars to Howard Manning, Daugherty's friend, 1 dollar to the druggist in whose name whiskey was withdrawn, one dollar to Goroni, fifty cents to Assistant United States attorney Lesperance at New York, six dollars and a half to Orr and Owen Murphy.

Senator Walsh did not agree with the Sinclair attorneys but some committee members wanted more time to think it over and adjournment was taken without decision.

Senator Dill read into the oil committee record extracts from a published article indicating Will Hayes will tell the committee Harry Sinclair turned over seventy five thousand shares of Sinclair oil stock to the Republican national committee to wipe out one million six hundred thousand dollars deficit left after the 1920 election.
