THE WHEAT FROM THE CHAFF

During the heat of political agitations with which this country is being disturbed as a preliminary in the presidential campaign year, we should not lose sight of the recent report of the Dawes committee which is the first real business like plan offered for settlement of war reparations problems. A new start towards permanent world peace and industrial prosperity will be the result of international politics can be kept from wrecking the committee's proposals.

HAPHAZARD FARMING
IS OUT OF DATE

An Iowa County Agent described the real cause of most of the agricultural distress as follows: Most of us have been so busy watching the up grade movement of high prices of land that we have forgotten almost all the fundamental principals that underlie farm success.
While we want and hope that our land will be high priced, we do not want it to be so high priced that it will not bring fair returns. The value of produce from our land is the thing of supreme importance to every farmer and every land owner. A very considerable bit of serious thought must be given to carrying on of production in the business of farming.
Haphazard methods of farming, wastland, poor seed, inferior stock, and a go by the board if we are going to succeed in this new and large venture of high priced land. The methods of our fathers and grandfathers can not possibly be used for successful results. We must use our most modern methods and must discover and plan new things if our success is to be maintained. The scrub must be regulated to scrap head the same as the old horsepower threshing machine and the old reaper. This is no idea that has been hatched in a pipe dream or in idealism but in cold facts that stare us in the face. It is for us to go to work and plan out for ourselves the things that are going to put the best stock and best equipment on our farms and to make them produce in interest on their valuation.

WILL BE GLAD THAT SHE HELPED THE COLLEGE

Wilmington, N. C., April 30.—Perhaps the youngest ardent campaigner in behalf of the student-alumna building for North Carolina College for Women is little Miss Wilhelmina Gade Dock, of Wilmington.
Although less than ten years old Miss Wilhelmina is saving for her career. As a student in her mother's alma mater, Miss Wilhelmina is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dock.
Her mother was before her marriage Miss Daisy Reid.
At present Miss Wilhelmina is in the school and is doing at home in order that she may enter the sixth grade next fall and thereby graduate from high school in time to enter the North Carolina College for Women when she is sixteen.

All the money that she has earned heretofore for good school reports has been placed in a bank to pay her expenses to North Carolina College for Women. This fund is always referred to by her as "my college money."

Over hearing conversation about the student-alumna building campaign she said:
"Mother, I shall be glad when I go to college to be able to say I helped to build this."

INDIANA WILL HONOR HERO WHO DIED IN CIVIL WAR

Bloomington, Ind., April 28.—A shrine to the memory of General Lucien Greathouse, proclaimed by General William Tecumseh Sheridan as the outstanding hero of the Civil War, is to be placed in the $1,000,000 war memorial Men's Union building at Indiana University.

General Sherman declared the heroic soldier to be "the bravest of the brave," in an official report, which said: "Where all have been so brave, it seems invidious to mention one name, but we must speak of Colonel Lucien Greathouse. He is the bravest of the brave."

General Greathouse lost his life storming a southern stronghold near Atlanta July 22, 1864 in one of the closing campaigns of the war. He is said never to have given his men a command to "charge" but ordered "follow me."

When the Civil War broke out, the general gave up the study of law and entered the Union army as a priva.
At the time he was killed he had been promoted to the rank of Brigadier General, the youngest to hold that commission in the history of the United States armies.

General Greathouse was born at Carlinville, Ill., in 1842.

Such popularity must be deserved

POPULARITY isn't luck. How well the big stars of baseball know this.

And in merchandising as in baseball, big success is scored only by deserving it. A product, too, must "deliver the goods."

Everywhere men are turning by thousands from other cigarettes to Chesterfield. For a reason!

Chesterfield has given smokers convincing proof of finer quality—for here's quality you can taste!

Chesterfield
CIGARETTES

They Satisfy—millions!
