"Let us raise a standard to which the wise and the honest can repair; the event is in the hands of God."
—Washington.

Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall be known.
—Christ Jesus. (Matthews x., 26.)

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1924.

THEY SHALL NOT BE WEARY: —They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.—Isaiah 40: 31.

PRAYER:—O Lord, our God, enable us to wait on Thee, and be of good courage for Thou wilt strengthen our hearts.

TOLL OF
CARLESSNESS

Figures recently compiled by the state of Oregon show that 93 per cent of its automobile wreck are caused by carelessness. Of 9,131 accidents reported from January 1 to June 30, last, 5,457 are charged entirely to carelessness. Added to these may be included the following: speeding, 183; failure to give right of way, 1,381; reckless driving, 260; cutting corners, 372; double at intersections, 155; driving while intoxicated, 123; failure to give signal, 290; driving on left side of street or highway, 64; improper parking, 79; reverse direction in fiddle of block, 40; passing to left of street cars while discharging passengers, 31; inexperience, 24; jockeying on bridges, 21; a total of 8,480 accidents which might have been avoided, according to the report of the secretary of state, had the drivers been careful. It is probable that these Oregon figures, would be a fair average for other states.

That too many automobile drivers "let the insurance company pay the bill" is responsible for many avoidable accidents. Let drivers remember that no insurance policy has yet been devised which will return the life of a person killed through an automobile driver's carelessness. Safety to life and property rests almost wholly in the hands of the automobile driver.

"Christ said to us, and His word deceives not; do you wish to live the real life, not that which passes and is ended by death, but life eternal,

POSTMASTER TO PROPOSE BETTER
FACILITIES IN U. S.

(By Associated Press)

Indianapolis, Sept. 11.—Establishment of parcel post and third class mail terminals in every state, to facilitate quicker handling of these classes of mail, will be among the recommendations to the U. S. Postoffice Department proposed by the National Association of Postmasters of the United States which meets here

September 23 to 25.

Only a few large cities have such terminals at present, and the concentration of this type of mail in these cities is resulting in congestion which the postmasters believe can be relieved by establishing similar terminals in each state.

Other recommendations expected to be made is that the government bond its employes, adoption of legislation abolishing the compensatory time feature for employes who work on Sunday or holiday, new regulations which will permit return of mail posted with insufficient stamps to senders, and more stringent rules governing containers in which eggs may be shipped to reduce breakage in the mails. Speakers before the meeting include Postmaster General Harry S. New.

DAVIS CARRIES
HONESTY PLEAS

RECALLS WITH SCORN
THE FRAUDS IN OILS

(By Associated Press)

Denver, Colo., Sept. 11.—Putting to the people of Colorado and the west, "the plain question of honesty in government," John W. Davis asked them in an address here tonight to hold the republican party "to the accounting which it is due," on its record in the administration of government.

Reviewing that record in some detail, particularly with reference to the leasing of the naval oil reserves, and the handling of the reclamation problem, the democratic presidential candidate said he wished to keep constantly before the people of the United State the uestion of party government and party responsibility.
"Unless political parties can be held to strict account," he declared, "party government itself is a base imposition and a fraud."

CONFINED TO BED

Birmingham Lady Took Cardui for Relief of Change of Life Troubles and Says It Helped Her "So Much."

Birmingham, Ala.—"I first took Cardui for that tired, worn-out feeling that comes from being dreadfully rundown," says Mrs. Catherine E. Smith, of 2106 Stout Street. "Twenty-five years ago, I was suffering from womanly weakness.

"I read of Cardui in an almanac, and thought I would try it. I got a bottle and it helped me from the first. After that, during the whole of my married life, I took Cardui when I needed it.

"About four years ago, change of life came on me. . . I grew weaker and weaker, and was confined to my bed, where I lay on my back for days.
I was told that only a severe operation could do me any good, and this depressed me very much, for I dreaded such an ordeal.

"I remembered how Cardui had helped me for female trouble in the past and I had read of how it had helped other women during change of life, so one night I told my husband to go to the drug store and get me a bottle. I began taking it at once.
From the first dose I could feel myself getting stronger. . . I continued to take Cardui until I was entirely through this very trying period of a woman's life."

MEEKINS MANAGER
QUICK TO SPONSER
PORT MEASURE

Citing Benefits for State If Project for Water Development Becomes Law

(By Associated Press)

Raleigh, Sept. 11.—Declaring that if it were possible at this time he would make a campaign in the state in the interests of the port commission bill and that he would regard approval of the measure in November as "a decided step forward in the progress of the state," A. E. Tilley, campaign manager for I. M. Meekins, republican candidate for governor, issued a statement this afternoon through the headquarters of the port commission campaigners.

Mr. Tilley declared that he was expressing his approval of the measure in a statement because he did not wish to make it an issue in the campaign for governor and perhaps "prejudice the measure." He asserted, however, that he felt every man seeking high office in the state should express himself on any matter affecting the interests of the people, "no matter if the question is 'purely an economic question'."

SEPTEMBER FIRST
COTTON REPORT

(Special to the Gazette)

Raleigh, Sept. 11.—The national cotton crop production forecast declined over 1 per cent during the past two weeks, according to the government crop report. The condition declined over 5 per cent in two weeks, and, since a month ago, it dropped 8 per cent. As compared with a year ago, the condition of 59.3 per cent is 5 per cent higher now. The present expectation is for 156 pounds per acre, making a total of 12,787,000 bales.

While the United States forecast in almost 25 per cent more than last year, the North Carolina forecast of 823,000 bales is about 20 per cent less than last year. This is based on a condition of 58 per cent of a full crop for this state, showing a prospective yield of 219 pounds per acre or only three-fourths of last year's per acre yield.

Practically all states showed considerable declines in condition during the last month except Virginia and North Carolina. Virginia's crop improved 14 per cent, while that in this state held to a 58 per cent prospect.
The average for the United States showed a decline of 8 per cent this year, 13 last year, and an average decline of 9 per cent over a period of 10 years.

Georgia has been making quite a struggle over her bright cotton prospects.
All Tar Heels are glad of this for the Crackers have certainly been up against it during recent years. While the conditions in North Carolina look very gloomy, it is interesting to note that while the Georgia yield per acre is 154 pounds of lint, the present outlook in North Carolina is for 219 pounds average. This still leaves North Carolina a good advantage.
Texas is reported as having a comparatively good crop, but her yield is only 132 pounds per acre, based on her present condition of 55 per cent of a full crop.

The condition and production by states is as follows: Virginia 65 per cent and 41,000 bales; North Carolina 58 and 823,000; South Carolina 52 and 767,000; Georgia 64 and 1,209,000; Florida 72 and 27,000; Alabama 61 and 948,000; Mississippi 60 and 1,033,000; Louisiana 47 and 311,000; Texas 55 and 4,284,000; Arkansas 66 and 1,109,000; Tennessee 65 and 421,000; Missouri 50 and 228,000; Oklahoma 70 and 1,289,000 and the United States average, 59.3 per cent with a total 12,787,000 bales.

The State Statistician, of the Cooperative Crop Reporting Service, has just returned from a long trip through the cotton belt with the United States cotton specialist and found conditions somewhat better than was expected.
The poorest conditions in North Carolina are to be found in the eastern or coastal counties from lower Robeson to the Albemarle Sound. The crop is distinctly late in all areas and the plants comparatively small. No appreciable damage has been done by the weevils. Conditions are still very dry in many counties, with much shedding.
